

LUBBOCK

“I have come here to confess. It is desolate here. The wicked wind blows through the planes and tosses tumbleweed everywhere. It is cold, and the wind whistles as I drive. The only emphasizes the lament. And I feel it inside of me. It is the only thing that I think about. I feel as if it’s ripping my little car apart. I feel as if it’s ripping my soul apart. What’s happening to me? What’s happening to my life? What’s the next step? I’m here to make amends. I’m here to atone. What are my offenses? Why do I feel the need to surrender? What have I done wrong?” Fundamentally, it is never enough to admit what we have done wrong. Take the steps for change. We are repeating all the same actions again. We are doing everything that we did before, and this time we are looking for lasting change. I want to get in your head. I want you to come a part of my arms. I want you to be all squishy like in jellyfish. But I do not want you to sting me. Turn me on. For these in all my sins, I am truly sorry I want the world to turn me on. I want the world to be at my beck and call. I want the world to excite me. I wanna understand why I am the way I am. For these in all my sins he’s sorry. And I look on my world has been destroyed. And I look at the destruction of people have done. And I wish that I could alter that path. But I am only following the path to distraction for these and all my sins I am truly sorry.”

“If I look closely, I find new offenses. I did not compliment your new dress. I did not compliment the TV show that you like. I did not complement your world. For these at all my sins, I am truly sorry. There’s a moment when this will all change. You’re still attached to all of the same rewards as ever.. That’s why you think you can make political change. You can reveal. You can make things stand out. You’ve given and received an appropriate reward. Be yourself. Be totally yourself. Don’t worry! Don’t change the economic system. Claim that you are among many who want reform, but there are so many things in your way. These are all your sins.”

“I am truly sorry for these, and all my sins. I am truly sorry. I want to know you better. I want to know you well. I want to understand you. I want to understand you well. I want to understand you better. I want to understand your ways that you don’t even know. I want you to help me clean up. I want you to be nicer. I want to be nice. Where is this going? We need to make all this clean. For these in all my sins, I am truly sorry.”

“This wave comes over me; none of this is enough nothing I feel is enough I am changing, it’s enough; it’s not enough at all. Running to my world. I follow you. You’re not at my door. You come to visit. You come back from the dead. You come back from the dead. You give me something whatever you give me I want. Exciting. You touch me all over. I touch you all over. I am lost and desire. I’m immersed in Sawyer. You excite me. Everything about this is exciting. I can’t stop. Why am I doing this? For these in all my sins I am truly sorry. I’m truly sorry for things that I did. I am sorry for things that I didn’t know that I did. I need to go back. Wanted you. I wanted you for one thing. The world wanted you for one thing. And they got it. They got you for ten years. They got the machine working for ten years you can raise the machine. You can’t go crazy to me. You can’t praise Caramel. And praise Norman. You can praise the pump.”

“Now they keep you very well. Now they keep you in the shower. Don’t spray on my car. Don’t eat my car. Don’t lock my car. Don’t need to be mean. Stop being yourself. Do you what you want to be. Doesn't make any difference. Cares. Just touch me. Help me to forget. We have swimming, but we do not have bath towels. It's in the 30s outside, but we have swimming inside. But we do not have bath towels. I could help you. I could give you everything that you need. I can give you everything that you want. I can make you happy I can make you very happy. That's not enough. I want you to love me. I want you to love me forever. I want your love to start now until last forever. Do you think that you could do that? Can you do that for a long time? Make you feel good? Would that make you feel better? I'm waiting for this to fall in the place."

"I'm waiting to pay him right. I'm waiting to get ahead of the game. Waiting for the game to get ahead of me. Some of these things are definitely not good. If you can't worry about. So this is where you're living now, in a parking lot in Lubbock. My car is being shaken by the moment. There's a loneliness in this place. I want to become part of this loneliness. I wanna become part of you. Your.. I wish you were here. You're never going to be here. You're never going to have that moment when you have arrived. I want you to arrive. I want you to satisfy your most basic need. You are wonderful. This couldn't be better. Is this love?"

"I'm watching this movie. And they learn how to defraud poor people. And they think they're hot shit. And it really doesn't do it for me. It doesn't do it for anyone. We'd like you to make a payment. That will do it all."

"I've already been manipulated. They've been using these scripts on me. And they seem to work. That is all that seems to work. Then you claim that you don't have a script. And you don't need a script. But if you don't change, how you speak in these situations, and these situations will work their script on you. And you need to know where this script comes from. I hope you feel good. I hope you feel better. Of all of your feelings. I hope this is the only thing that matters. I want this to be the only thing that matters. I want this to get you excited. How excited are you. There's only one way to make this work. Because only one way to make this now what are you doing to cooperate. Why are you so uncool? I know it's hard. For you. We just need a glass. Just need to fill that glass. You've been drinking. What have you been drinking. Have you had whenever you ever else is here. Glass. Your lips were on this glass. Kissing glass."

"Blame it on the world in a bag out of my cage range we've already started this. Invited others over. They have decided to help. They're gonna help well. No tricks. You know it's Rick. You all know tricks. I'm so sorry about all of this. I'm so sorry that I cheated all of you. I'm so sorry that I treated all of you badly. That's not my style. That's not my way. That's not who I really am. We're also different. We all want to learn. We all need to open our hearts. Is your heart open? Is your bag open? I want to look inside I wanna taste with you I want to snack I want love I want the heat I want the things that you can never give up we have to say beautiful. What a drink! all for this, more than that. This is self-sustaining, this is the only thing that matters in the world."

don't spill a drop it's gonna smoke you don't wanna leave a stain you want to admit what you've done do you wanna throw it all in the garbage. You're throwing my life in the garbage for these and all things I am truly sorry how can I be more sorrowful how can I admit to the things that I've done wrong I try to tell you what to do. For these and all my sins I am truly sorry you didn't listen for these and all your sins you are truly sorry no one listens for these at all our sins we are truly sorry I'm shaking for these and all my sins I am truly sorry and shaking in my boots for these in all my sins I am truly sorry why am I this way do you ever think that they hang on the wrong man Texas I'm the wrong man in this situation this is really not my life. This is not my world. My place. It's not my place to say anything. But I do want to say something. I do want to comment on what's going on here. Because I think it does need commenting. Maybe you've understand how I feel, I can understand how you feel but there's more to it this is like the little raft on the ocean. And it makes little decisions to help perpetuate the life of the person on the raft. But there's something more going on here. And it has nothing to do with rats. We're all gonna fall off the raft. We're all gonna fall off our lives. And we need someone to take us by the hand and tell us that it's all going to be OK. It's all going to be OK. The world is much bigger than your raft. But you don't wanna do it. You want to think that it's all going to be OK. It'll be OK. You won't be able to change a thing. You can blame it on the music. They all blame it on the music. That's why you're in Lubbock Texas. He went to find the source of of the blame.

“What are you doing to history? What are you doing. And this perfect biological model. And he tells us what we're supposed to do. His smile. And he like his arms. He like his chest. And he turns you wan. Turns you off. And you love it. It's going on with these and all his sins. He's truly sorry. Nature did it to me. For these and all these sins I am truly sorry. What just happened to me? For these and all my sins, I am truly sorry. But I don't feel that my sorrow. I don't feel that much regret. But I'm going to learn what that means. I'm going to learn with it means in a very deep way. Upsetting. And even though it's upsetting to me, it's not going to make much difference. Not going make much difference to anyone. Things need to get done. I need to stay on the road. For these in all my sins I'm truly sorry I need to admit to my mistakes. For all on my sins, I'm truly sorry. Why should anyone care? Why are we biologically this way? Why do I need it? What you needed, needed, needed. What do you have for me? Will it from you on? Will it turn all of us on? Will it hurt? Will it leave a mark on me? We start. Where do we end. What are we in. What do you have there. What do you have for me. What do you not have for me. I want something. Can you give it to me?

“Can you deny me? Can you truly deny me?. Are you denying me.? How do I end up here? I feel denied. Deny me again and again. Don't give me what I need. For these and all your sins you are truly sorry. For these and all my sins. I am truly sorry. Why did I beg? Why did I ask? Why did I not leave? For these and all my sins, I'm truly sorry. We live in a guilt complex. We're all guilty. We're all guilty together. Who broke my window. Who broke my life. I went out to the car. Did someone break my window? The car was open? The car was closed. The car was locked. How did you get in? You're sitting in the driver seat.”

“Take me away. Where are you going to take me. I don't want to go there. I'll go there with you. How long do we have to make this happen? This is taking longer than I thought. This is taking longer than anyone thought. It's not supposed to be like this. There are interruptions. Why are people in the way of people? For these and all their sins they are truly sorry.”

“People who feel powerless like to make changes to little things in their environment.

They spend a lot of time working on their appearances. They devote a lot of effort to fixing their cars. They enjoy doing repair work on their houses. They are convinced that personal motivation will be the same source of their eventual liberation. In a sense we need to be sympathetic to the Amarillo Tigers. They were going to win this year. They are going to bring focus on the small community. Is it snowing somewhere? Is it snowing on me? I don't want to fall off the road. I'm already having difficulty maintaining my place. It could be my guilt. These things are finally kiss you, and you have the things. The friends. Are your friends there for you? Do they know? Do they care? Do you think that's the focus. Focuses. Hocus focus pocus out of my hair on my hocus-pocus focus I need to escape. I need to escape Lubbock Texas."

"You found me here. You're being chased by the police. I'm here to save you. What does saving mean? What is your saving grace? What do you have the no one else has? This place is great for development. I can get a house here. And get away from people. I could be a nice guy. I can show up for work. I can work hard. I could go home. I can watch football on Fridays. Football and TV on Saturdays. I can make my life right. I can make my life wrong. I can make it all happen at once. What's going on here? I want to join in. I think others should join into. Crossing what's this about?? What did you expect to accomplish? What does anyone expect to accomplish? I want to join in. I would it be one of those. I would be one of these. Some thing to make sense in my life."

"I want a hot sauce dripping from my mouth. I want the hot sauce hot all over. Does anyone understand. Does anyone want to understand.? There's any of this matter? You keep asking the same questions. You're not racking up points. You're just distracting us from what needs to be said. I need to be sad. Do you need to be sad. Love needs to be said. Maybe I'll go to the Dairy Queen and meet the love of my life. She's already pledged to the homecoming king. I want to get deeper than this. I want to know what you think about it before you go to your first shift work. Or your third shift work. Why does it all matter. Why doesn't it matter. Why don't you ask interesting questions? How do you shape the world.?? Where is any of us going? We know where it started. Where is it supposed to end it all as an important. You're all part of this. You get to play along. You get to clean up after. You didn't even know if it's existed. This would make you happy. It was so make all of us happy. This is an open credit card. No idea what's about to happen. This could be big."

"This could be bigger than anything you know. This is going to change our minds. It's going to change our lives. This is going to change whatever matters. Nothing like this matters. This is great place to begin. We could've taken a different route. But here we are in Lubbock Texas. And that's all that matters about life. You're wriggling around in the bed. Is she with you? Is she not with you?"

"What is the movie say? You've made it? You've made it more than anyone else. You know what I'm gonna say. Yes I'm bad guy. Get the fuck out of my conversation. If I say stuff like this, I'll say stuff like this again. When you're free with my life. We're playing stupid games. I'm here right now. This is what I want. I what would you want. Don't get in my face. I want to get in your face. I won't bother you. I'm here in Lubbock Texas. They all understanding. It's all about simple things."

"You need to do the laundry. You need to clean the sheets. You need to clean the towels. I want some soap. You don't have any soap. I want love. It's a great place for families."

It's where families get left. They wonder what happened how did I get left here. How do they break down and buy big Texas. Is there love to fine. But I find love in Lubbock Texas. I want to be understood. I want to be well understood. What's that. Can you explain any of this to me? Where is this going? Why does it hurt so much? Why does it shake me up? What is love in Lubbock Texas? If I feel it, when I leave it? If I don't feel it won't be able to stay? What's in there? What's in the box? How has this changed anything? How is this change the quality of life? Even understand what the quality of life is? Sitting in my house watching TV. That's my quality of life. I went to Walmart and I got some food, it's in the microwave. My life is in the microwave. I'm turning it on. I make it for you. Sometimes I just want to turn on the button. What else is going on in your life? Why do you seem so busy and you're getting nothing done? We really cares about any of this? Will anyone ever care about any of this? I can't get involved. It will be in a box. You can be in the hospital. I'm in the hospital in Lubbock Texas. I'm in the quality inn. This place is so cool. It has a pool. I want you to meet me here. I want you to love me here. I want you to love me and love it. None of this makes any difference. This is the only way to go. Following the signs."

"You're giving me the sign. I'm watching the signs I'm watching you. You're watching me. This feels so good. I'm touching you. You touching me. None of this makes any sense. Car needs gas. My life needs gas. I need to change a few things. I need to change these signs. They point away from Lubbock. I need to go to Lubbock. There's too much snow in Amarillo. Just Amarillo Tigers. I'm afraid of the Tigers. I'm afraid of the snow tigers. Snow leopards. I'm afraid of the snow lines. I'm afraid of all of it. Why does the scare me? Why am I scared of mountain lions. The land is pretty flat here. What is this about. What am I going to learn? There's some thing I'm missing. She did that wonderful dance. Everyone was watching her. That was all that mattered. And you told me that was all that mattered. It's not bad enough that he will simpler explanation do you love their exclamations. You let them get away with their shit. You put in the book. You put in the box. You collect it in the machine. The machine talks back. Consider that to be social awareness. That's social interaction for you. That's scary. Do you have other feelings? You are brother feelings? What are you really thinking about?"

"What is the shake up? Why do you think you have no alternatives? You could do loads of things. It's a different place. You can feel it is a different place. I have one goal. You spent all this time boosting up these other characters. I could've used a boost. I'm a little over this. I understand. Part of this is just green with envy. And I'm going to stay green like that. This has nothing to do with you. This is everything to do with me. Is it something to do with the social contract. When did you terret up? When did you try to get in on it? Why are you trying to sneak in and party? Where are all the cars going? Are they going to make it? He's going to make i matter? Why are they all stopped? Is that what you call happiness? Do you like sitting in a traffic jam? There's no traffic jams in Lubbock. I love it here I can sit in my house and make a world happen. The world is happening for me. I can watch it on the TV. The TV tells me everything. Why? Because I'm in Lubbock. I have a reality here. I have my food. I have my job. I have my wife. I don't look like the people I see on TV. They look too wonderful. They seem to be enjoying things that are not enjoyable. I can't do that like him. I'm going to eat another meal. I'm gonna have two dinners. I do that sometimes. Makes me feel good. Makes me feel wonderful. Highways closed. Highways open. I'm gonna go fast. I'm gonna go slow. The police pulled me over. How are you doing today? I'm doing great. OK, you can leave. That's how it's supposed to be. It's supposed to see if I'm happy. If I'm happy, they can do things for me. They can make my life seem better, thank you, thank you for your service. Thank you for your checkered past, thank you for making my life so much better. Thank you for a doll. That is what I love more than anything. I'm getting off when you getting off. Do you know what that means? Do you know why I'm almost there? Do you know why I'm like everyone else? Are you like everyone else?"

"I do what I can. You do what you can. Is there water in the river? There's water in the stream. There's love all around us. What are we gonna do about it. Are we going to change any of this. I love how it moves. I love how it moves me. That's why they call it the valley. That's why they called Lubbock. I'm here. I'm watching things on TV. They seem to contradict the reality that I'm living. I'll except that. That's why I'm in Lubbock is in Lubbock with me. That's why we're all holding hands. That's why we're all breaking bread. That's why we're all having popcorn. This is the best thing that's ever happened in my life. You're the best thing that has ever happened in my life. Hours. I'm going feel the same. I'm going. I know where you're hiding. Come to my house. Let's hold hands. I'm staying at your house. Where do you live? Pets? Do you want to know?"

"Really you don't do you? I feel as if I'm coming apart. I feel us, and I hate something that I should give you. Love is all around me. This is the only thing that matters. It's the largest employer. At some point you have to say no. At some point, you have to say that you're screwing me over. Fuck you. Did I feel good. You're all alone in your room. Can you tell someone to fuck off? And it could be the television. It could just be the television. That's all that seems to matter, all that seems to matter to you. I'm not supposed to care about any of this. You're not supposed to care. Cost a little more. You get to spend more of your money. But you're not supposed to care. None of this is supposed to matter to you. Do you understand that. Do you understand what does matter? Have you made allowances? Have you made things happen? So close to some thing. And it doesn't make any difference. None of this makes any difference. What am I supposed to do? I don't want interrupt. I'm in the middle of something. I need to finish."

"It's not where do you get success. It's not what are you get outcomes. It's where you jump in. It's where you jump off. He's occupying the buildings. He's working for you. Who's helping the corrupt billionaires? Find me the non-corrupt millionaires. How does the system work? How does the system work to benefit others? How does the system work to benefit itself. Where is everybody going? What are they making? Things happen. I shouldn't be here. You don't really understand. This is my working time. This is your playing time. You shouldn't be interfering with my time. Do you want to contribute, share some thing? But you're in my show now. And there's different rules here. You need to abide by what's going on. You're totally uncool. Your total interference. Don't pretend that you're not. Look at your life. Look at your shit. I don't have time for any of this. I don't have time to fuck any of you. Y'all need to fuck off. Trying to be sympathetic. I'm trying to be nice. But there's only so much niceness left in me."

"Haha. I need a drink. I need a thing. I need to get out of drinking. I need to make my thoughts without further cues. That should be obvious. Why his life made you an able to think the next thought without taking a sip. I'm getting so impatient. There's so much to share."

There's so much to think about. I've been working on this. I've been going deep. You have no idea where I'm going. I'm going to the time before time. Does anyone in Lubbock know? They probably are now. They all know something deep. That's why little big is what it is. They're ready to help. They're ready to service. They're ready to hold hands. Look down on my book. We love love it. It's part of a good experience."

"I wish I could stay here I wish they would love me here. I want to be loved and that would be an ideal experience. Stay. What's making it all happen? Who's getting in my face? Who knows what I don't know? I want this to be mean. You need to figure this out. Depending on three people. Two do not know what they're doing. One is being persecuted. We need to save ourselves. We need to get out of the pool. We need to rush, rush, rush. We need to stop the corrupt billionaires. Don't give them more than they need. Do you know what's going on here. One moment you're totally sympathetic. Then you're lacking sympathy. The purpose of the state is the help of the state. Why do you say no? What is your fear? Only works one way. You create some thing. And then it gets uncreated."

"Mess with something. It gets messed up. There's no other way to think about this. There's no free way. What is this about? You you were conscious, were conscious, and you continue to hang out with fuck ups, and you continue to hang out with fuck ups. This is something you need to learn. This is some thing that you need to learn now

There was a knock in my door. And I opened it up she claimed that she was dealing with the IRS. She need to come into my room to watch me sleep. She had questions about what I was doing with my life. And I needed to inform her what was going on. She lay there smiling. We need to figure out your taxes we need to figure out your life we need to figure out how you got here what are you doing in Lubbock Texas? What are you doing in your nakedness you can't make up for everything that you over the world. You've destroyed so much that you cannot make it better. You're all along for a ride. You had your chance to get it right, and you did it wrong to be consequences for your stupidity, you can't get away with doing whatever you want. This is how it works, there's a lesson to be learned, or you need to learn that lesson. We can take our time to teach it to you. We're gonna show you what has to be done."

"Reassure you what can't be done. I'm going to show you why you can't do anything. How am I going out out of here. My car is broken down. My life's broken down. I'm in Lubbock Texas I'm on the bed. Of money. I have a lot of money. I'm gonna try to escape my dad. I'm gonna try to escape people think that I owe money. What do they want from me? What do you think you're going to get for me. I need to hide. I need to hide in the bed. I don't want anyone to see me. I don't want anyone to laugh at me. She's watching me. She's watching my every move. She's sitting across from me in a chair. I'm in the bed."

"How did you get here? Who are you? I'm an agent. An agent for whom?"

" I'm with the IRS."

"Who let you in here? Do you let me in here. Why did you come? Why didn't want you here. I don't want you here. I want don't want you talking to me. I don't want you interfering with my life. I don't want you messing with my desires. I don't want you getting in my head. I don't want you making me do things. I don't want to do. How did I get here? Where am I? How long do I have to stay here? Why am I being punished for something that I didn't do once? Why am I being punished for something I did twice? What did I do wrong? What am I ever doing wrong? I don't want to do anything wrong?. This is awful. This couldn't be worse. This hurts.

Stop it. Don't stop it. I don't know what I want. Why is life making me this way? Where is this going to lead? Where is any of this going to lead? I'm looking for good people? I'm looking for bad people. It's all ends up the same. You do something silly and it accumulates into something disastrous."

"She sitting at the edge of my bed. She's reading a book. She's looking at my accounts. She's auditing me. I don't want this to happen. I never wanted this to happen. Why did it happen this way? Who let her in here?"

"This is America? We've run out of soap. We've run out of towels. We've run out of sheets. How do I make more money. I keep working harder. I keep pretending. It's wearing me down. I don't want anything else. I didn't want it to happen anywhere, in any other way. I'll give you money to do this. I'll give you money to come along with us. I'll give you money to put money in the meter, to put soap in the soap dish, soap on the clothes, I want something to be clear. I want you to be clear. I know this to be clear. I want to get it to your head. I want to shake you all over. I want to tell you fuck off. Don't think that you know anything that I don't know! This is another disaster. Put it all in place. Do you see how this works? Every second works this way. Every meal taste like this."

" This taste better than you've ever tasted in your life. This is fantastic. Have some more! It at all! Love it for what it is! Love it for being good. Love yourself. Love yourself because no one else will. Love someone else because no one else will love yourself except that someone who loves you. She works for the IRS. She's done your accounting. She knows what you really need. She shows up on time. She tells you what you need to hear. You're in a room. Everyone's in the same room. They're going to be told what they need to hear. This is how you make money. This is how you make law. This is love and death. This is in mortality. This makes you feel good. This makes you feel like nothings happening. Why do you bother? Why do you wanna close the door? Why do you want to close all the doors? Why are you pretend that none of this is important?"

"Why is one of this important? Am I important? Do you love me? Am I important? Do you love me? Do you want to touch everywhere? Do you want to touch you nowhere? What do you want to touch? I want to touch something that's real. I wanna awesome it's real. I want to review your taxes. I want to see where you made a mistake. Correct all the mistakes. It's too late to correct the mistakes without some kind of normalcy. Do you know what his parody involves? It involves the amount that you get plus interest on that amount plus a penalty for that amount plus further penalty for trying to hide plus a further penalty for being a fraudulent individual.

"Do you understand the basis for all these assessments. Aren't you glad I'm here? Quit trying to flirt with me! Your flirtation is not going to get me anywhere. Your flirtation is going to get me everywhere. I'm way over the top. I'm way under the moon. I see the signs. I can't miss this song. It's meant for me. It says come to me. It says suffer under my wake. It says wake up. It says wake up and smell the coffee. It says wake up and smell the bodies. What am I doing?"

"Where am I? Who will take responsibility for his tax policy? Do you see the problems? I had created a path to success. What it happened to this dream? Had I gone off the rails? What mistakes had I made. I realize the dangers that were ahead of me. I did not want them to interfere with my success. I realized I needed to ask for help. She was an expert in taxes. I just simply asked her for help. Can you help me.? Can you teach me how to do my taxes? Can you teach me how to save money? Can you teach him how to hide my investments? What is really hidden here? What is shown? Why are we the way that we are? Should I have said something? Should I've done some thing? I'm waiting for something to happen? It's happening right in front of my eyes. It's going to explode in my face. It's going to interrupt my flow. I need to protect myself. I need to protect what I have. I don't have much. It's all in the car. I wanna get out of here. I don't wanna get audited. I shouldn't be audited. What do I have? I've been working on my car. I was selling things. And he's selling Bibles."

"I've been selling vacuum cleaners. I'm selling encyclopedias . I have to buy the encyclopedia. I have to show you the encyclopedia. If I sold one every day. Yourself to others. Do you know what's inside? This is the key to unlock in your life. I'm a doctor. I'm a professor. I can tell you the key to unlock in your life. Read this book. Listen to this music. Listen to me. I can help you. I can give you everything that you need."

"Where did this nothingness lead to? This was the beginning of creation. This was the beginning of greatness. We could start with desire. I make it exploded to fill in all the space. I was drawn in by the explosiveness I became excited in the moment. I need to take account for all these feelings either focused and where are they going what did I need to know her who is the concept here? How could I stop myself. How can I find the motivation. How did why did I feel lost?"

"I was sure that she was wandering around the halls. I kept looking to see was going on. Every time that I did, she seemed to duck behind the wall. I could still see a shadow. They seemed to be enough to tell me that something was going on. When I finally heard a knock at my door, I thought that it was shitty. For all this time I was sure that you've been following me this was not the ghost from New Orleans. This was something else. And I was trying to figure out what it was. This was a big deal for me. In some ways it was the purpose for the trip. If she had been on my tail all this time, I'm sure that I would eventually catch up with her."

"And the seamless was as good a time as the present. I waited for my queue. What would it be? Why did I need to push beyond this room into the next. I felt that it wouldn't take much to peel back that failed. Up until this point, my experiences were giving me enough of a glimpse of this phenomena. But I couldn't get things to move to the next stage or slowing me down? I was getting in my way? I can wouldn't run through the halls of this motel all they wanted and I still would not see who I was looking for this made it all the more challenging for me I clearly understood dangers that awaited me. One little thing could blow my cover. It was the same thing for my visitor. Why had she crossed the portal, cross through the portal to visit me in this place? What does inferencing? I needed a stronger influence. What time is it? Dressing towards an eventual showdown. This is why my sister remains elusive for the time being."

" I could try to ignore this presence, and Cora seem to be part of my journey. Where was all this headed? I didn't want things to get out of hand. I wanted to be able to focus clearly. I where are the challenges ahead? I knew who my enemies were, or did I? I went back to the room and then I thought about my visitor. Was this part of the movie I've been watching? She actually paid me a visit? Or maybe I would need to leave this. What it was in control? I couldn't even sure about these incidents. He was already broken. And there's a chore into the hallway. But I wanted to swim in the pool. They were kids splashing it. Why were their parents keeping them up so late I? All I wanted to do was sleep when I finally made it back to the room. I lay in the bed again and try to let everything go. I didn't hear another knock on the door. I didn't hear any noise from outside. Everything playlist shuffled I want to think this was all a trade-off. I wanted to figure things out. but I just store these ideas up until the moment when I can truly little flower how could I describe this hope.”

“I will be walking down in the long hallway call mom and I would notice a light coming from the end. I’d make my way over there. We will be in there.”

“ I imagine debt collector and IRS agent, or an insurance broker and she would have detailed files pn me and want to examine her information. I would sit there listening. What a day learn? If I owed a lot of money could I ever pay it. I imagined another hallway. This one was longer. At the end with another office. If I owed a lot of money I could ever pay it. I imagined another hallway. This one was longer. At the end with another office. This was the get rich skiing. I felt more welcome in this office. What was going to happen? How was I going to be included? Possible benefits. All of this seemed attractive even so, there were dangers in a strange ways, this place was a crossroads, it was a meeting place for heaven and hell. I wanted to understand better what was happening. I want to assume a place of my own. It was a wild excitement. I wanted to be part of this other world. I could sense it beckoning.”

“If my visitor was sent from a government agency I wondered what agency. What was what was the purpose in having her show up at my door? It’s not as if I’m trying to conduct some kind of secret operations here. Nevertheless, let us assume that my actions actually do pose a threat; therefore, it is worthwhile examining what is the source of that threat.

“I am staying in a motel room in Lubbock Texas. I’m on a journey to Phoenix Arizona. Is there any possible reason to assume that I am doing anything illegal? I don’t have much money with me. Am I part of an organization which poses a threat to the government? My ideas pose a threat to the government? Are we engaged in research might be of interest to the government.? There are a series of questions which could reveal my overall intent. At the same time a government could be particularly interested in what I am doing. On this basis, it is important to analyze my activities. If she’s working for the government, are there like others like her? Do we live in a society where people on these roles in surveillance even though they may not realize what they were doing?”

“Deeper understanding of this process requires an analysis of information? How does communication lead to these kinds of behaviors? This may appear to be the key to social interaction. The effort to maintain particular norms may create pressure on the situation. When individuals deviate from these norms, there are critical signs that can be tracked. At a certain point, these variations represent a threat to the dominant order. Even though this order does not have any authority to control democratic processes, it may be concerned that its levels of control are so intense that they represent a threat, or two constant power exercise by the controlling group. Therefore, it would be in their interest to monitor what is going on among the populace. If this group can gain control over governmental agencies, it has collected data to monitor the citizens. These efforts can be elaborated using key legal principles. On this basis the individual can be isolated and tracked. He is overall strategy assumes that the citizen is criminal intent. This intent is curtailed by very strict social structures. When the social structures are disrupted, this can be the basis for a great threat to the system. Therefore there’s an effort to maintain maintain control. Due to my activities, my friends, my political beliefs, I may have become a person of interest for this group. Therefore they feel that it is important to send someone to provide further information about my actions. On this basis, I may be viewed as an enemy to the state. This designation may allow further surveillance and intrusion into my life. The authorities can maintain that I tripped a number of red flags.”

“This would give him the opportunity to engage in this level of surveillance. I find all of this ridiculous. This really nothing to justify is such a virus. Nevertheless I am experiencing an example of such actions. And I need to respond accordingly. There’s more going on here. I need to get to the bottom of it. I need to discover how to society can allow for such abuses. Are conformity has guaranteed that rebellion includes a limited repertoire of behaviors in some sense, these behaviors are tolerated. Actual efforts to hear away from these principles resulting in monitoring. I believe in most people have their own behaviors. On this basis, they believe things that are not true. They believe that they are the center of important activity.”

“They were there, they would not put it past the governments to expand a great deal, and resources to follow what they were doing. This confused idea prevents a deeper analysis of the actual activities of the surveillance organizations. It also feels to account for the actual use of information. What is a real threat under these conditions? On that basis it is easier to determine what the actual activities in the stations are.

“I don’t think it’s a coincidence that any of this is happening in Lubbock. This is all according to the plan. I wonder if my visitor even knows who she is working for. If I ask her a question will she tell me. When I returned to the room she was still there. She seemed prepared for my return. I asked her why she hadn’t left. She indicated that she hadn’t collected all the information that she needed. She wanted to ask me a few more questions. All these questions were very specific in nature. Some of them are financial. Since she had provided identification and I had been able to verify all her credentials/ I continued to cooperate, know it nevertheless, it was a great deal that I did not tell her. I did not volunteer and I thing. I did not try to engage in a conversation with her. I let her speak. I let her describe what she was thinking.”

“Leo believe that he faced critical threats from governmental organizations. His beliefs made him exaggerate his overall role. On the one hand he believed he was flying under the grid, despite a host of indices that describes pretty well everything about his situation, but on the other hand he was sure that he was being tracked, because of his financial transactions. Everything that he did was related to credit agencies. Therefore, it was surprising he didn’t recognize how this imprint left him completely vulnerable. In many ways, he accepted his phone his vulnerability. These are the very conditions of his operations. I thought my situation was different. Therefore, the presence of surveillance occupied a different role.”

“People were able to generalize from experience influencing this description could be taken further. On that basis human experience accessed more extreme forms of stimulation.”

“The God particle was influencing their actions. It was particularly interesting since it resided inside human. Beyond scientific knowledge and psychological intuition, it provided understanding about the world.”

“If this visit was provoked by some kind of supernatural force, this would make sense. It was as if elements of the dreamworld were already penetrated human experience. I would need to account for these changes. This would depend upon a more systematic interpretation. Such an interpretation of balance with human contribution with a description of the encounter with these unique forces.”

“Leo had lead me astray with his business practices Time and time again, this just reinforces my need to get out of here. I couldn’t turn back and go to Alabama. I’ll be at the gateway. And I will be facing greater challenges as I headed West. I wasn’t the first. We’re headed down this road. There’s a place where I could escape it was a place. Where I could realize my dream, make an immerse myself in the history, I can understand the challenges of the renegade, trying to escape when I close the door in this place, I was closing the door on the way of life I reckon most full steps that are weighted.”

“I recognize the dangers mini outlaws to travel his path. They were trying to escape the authorities. Provided the opportunity to start a new identity create a new identity and start a new life. Leo would’ve seen an advantage in this alternative. And I played along and what was the end of his journey.”

“What was I going to face. I didn’t want do with this all on my own. If I was going to head into the Badlands I need to have my plan ready. I was a shadow I was trying to escape. The world was opening up for me. Going to be a wonder. I I need to figure out all lives available I was already so far out there. I was exposed the visitor make sure of that. But I was going to enter a place where he could not travel they would offer me more support him. She could not penetrate the starkness. We needed a steady hand.”

“ I cannot let myself be exposed. The risks were massive.”
