

THE PIRATE'S COVE

“What goes on in this place?”

“This is a form of religion. It goes against everything that you believe. It contradicts the rational character of human civilization. It is based on a total surrender to the senses.”

“The senses are part of the rational measure of the universe.”

“You have no ideas what you are talking about. And you will learn what you need to know. You will feel it in your body. It will change everything that you are.”

“Did you put something in my drink?”

“I invited you to come along. You gave in to a new form of existence.”

“How does this work?”

“You have denied yourself of pleasure. Everything in your life is a denial of your fundamental nature. You will finally be able to discover your true self.”

My body was getting away from me. I tried to contain these responses. I couldn't catch myself. I was getting pulled along by this radical force.

“Come see me at work!”

“I am at your work.”

“This is better than you know.”

“You did something to my physiology.”

“We gave you an injection.”

“What the fuck did you do?”

“You are no longer completely human. We have altered your DNA.”

“What is going to happen?”

“I am going to do something really stupid.”

“What will that be?”

“You are part human and part lower creature.”

“I think that there was a political movement that coincided with that belief.”

“You needed to ask.”

“That does not belong here.”

“What are they saying? That sounds like gibberish.”

“That is the devil's language.”

“I have a different way of hearing that.”

“None of that matters.”

“This was your story.”

“Where is this headed?”

“A goat is taking over your nature.”

“You are going along with a view of your world.”

“Have you measured the temperature of your brain? You know that it's starting to boil already. You must have some idea what goes on here. He didn't cross the veil if you didn't have expectations. You're used to being reasonable aren't you? But you came here for some entertainment. And we're gonna really mess you up. No you asked for it and now you're going to get it. This is how we work things. You were given an invitation. You excepted it. Do you want to become part of what's going on here. We'd like to welcome you here. I welcome you here, we are inviting you to stay if we're inviting you to stay you can escape. That's all part of the experience. You come in. You get messed up. You take things. You give of yourself. You find someone who's going to take care of this. You dress up. You play the part. You get other people to make you offers. All these promises lead towards something. You get new energy. You get stronger. You take risks. You take new risks. You gamble on your future. You have a body. What else do you have? You take all this time working. What do you have. Do you have dreams. Do you have savings. You're a connection to the future. But the future is going nowhere. That future used to be some thing didn't ask? You still think it is some thing don't you? But it's all going nowhere. And you're gonna realize this tonight. You're going to realize what you really have."

"All the skills that you think you have, all the games that you think you can play and win, all these forms of participation are going to lead nowhere. And it's all going to come down to this one thing. You're going look your reality in the eye, and realize that you're nothing. And when you realize you're nothing you're going to find that thing in yourself that's going to make you some thing. You're going have to let that shake you up. You're gonna have to forget everything that you've done. You're going to have to embrace this new way of living. And I know you were afraid of that. And we're going to exploit your fears. That's going to make your brain boil even more. You're going to be at the edge of your existence. You're going to be screaming to be released from this captivity. Because you have controlled your own destiny."

"You have prevented yourself from realizing your potential. You have never been, but you really are. And for once, you will understand that reality. You will embrace it. You were completely let go. All the madness but you have contemplated will be manifest for you tonight. Entertainment is what you have always wanted. But you've always been afraid to take that chance. You're all fucked up. You're anxious. You're depressed. You don't know who you are. So you want someone to help you love. There's no leveling out. They're only all these highs and lows. And you want to get off the roller coaster. But now you're on a ride that has no easy escape. You can't cry to your mother. You can't find some kind of liberation. It's going to take you deeper and deeper. You're going to scream. You're going to shake. You're going to come out of your skin. And you're going to ask yourself why am I doing this."

"Why are you doing this? Why are you doing any of this? You've been earning money. You've been holding down a job. You have a family. You have friends. You're people who care for you. But they really don't care for you. They couldn't be bothered. Everyone's playing a part. You're playing a part. And you all go along with it. You're all tap dancing through your life. You know what this means. You've heard the phrase before. It's echoing in your brain. It's echoing in every brain. And all that echoing and all that dancing and all that movement up and down, you're all part of it."

"And now it's going to express itself for you. That expression will have no release. That expression will be forever and ever. That forever and ever will be you. You'll try to tear off the mask. But it's stuck to you. All of it is stuck to you. You don't want to be like this. You don't want to think like this. You don't want to act like this. But it's deep in you. And you feel terrible. But it's all deep in you. And you shake even more. And your quake even more. And the self divides in millions of fragments. You stare at each fragment. And you wonder what it means. It's your life. But your life has no connection to the past. There is no interpretation that will make sense for you. You've come off the timeline."

"So experiences that seem to have a cause have no reason behind them. You thought you knew what was going on. You had this thread that held it all together. You had memories. But most of those memories were created for you. They have nothing to do with anything. None of this has anything to do with your reality. It's all been made up for you. You've been part of this elaborate costume drama. You keep thinking that revelation waits for you. This is all beyond your grasp. Nothing is allowed. Everything is permitted. Do you know what that means?"

"You're getting yourself ready for constant stimulation. Your your body has emerged with every other body. You will feel that one with the sense of vitality. You'll find your place in the universe. It will shock you. It will shake you to the core of your being. You will scream to the heavens for some kind of resolution. This is all that matters. This is all that ever matters. Do you want ultimate stimulation You never want to come down. This will be the ultimate experience. He will let go of all your lies. You will no longer be an impostor in your own life. You will not be committed to success. You will quit being the phony that you've always been. You see me. You want me. I can give you everything that you want. I can help you connect with eternity. I can help you open the doors to revelation. What more do you need? What more do you want? Who can give you more? What have you been waiting for? This is a little late in the game."

"This is nothing that I want. This is everything that I need. I'm crying out for this. We're all crying out for this. It's too late for any of us. We need to take a now. The music is moving us along. Hold me tight. But your energy ripped through me. You don't even feel your body. You only feel the rush of pleasure. You don't want to come down. You never wanna come down. The road is giving you everything that you need. You have almost attained total bliss. We invited you to become one with us. We will take pleasure of your body. We will stimulate it, and we will enjoy it. There's nothing you can do about it anymore. You've always restrained your true nature. Your inhibitions have blocked you from growing. You have feared your own madness. You truly have tried to contain your desires."

"You were allowed irrational nature to destroy your human nature. And now that nature will lose everywhere. It will have no boundaries. It will explode into the world. You'll love every minute of it. You'll embrace the power. You'll feel it in you. And when you know it, it will go away from you. This is not something that you could own this is not something that you can hold. You were giving yourself to this energy. And if you try to hold back, it will break you. Do you recognize where this is going? Do you understand how this is happening. Do you know what is going on with you? Why are you this way? What has happened to you? Where have you been? It is destroying you. You're embracing it. It is everything and nothing. You do not understand it yet. You need to acquire a mystical awareness. You have to strip away all your beliefs. You're not to let go of all your expectations. There's only one way to attain this paradise."

"You were on the threshold. You cross over, and you will taste the sweetness. What have you been waiting for? You've lived your life in denial. You've never let this power affect you the way that it really should. Do you think this is wrong. You're going to have to embrace your own evil. When you leave here, you will be guilty. You will kill. You will destroy. But none of this will affect you anymore. Because he will become the guiltless man. All that matters will be pleasure. He will accept this rain. He will be part of the Empire of the Senses.. It will pummel you. You it'll shake you to your core. You want more and more and more and more. You'll sweat. All the fluids will pour out of you."

"You need a new body. You'll need a new saw. You need a new origin. None of your history will help. None of your favorite items will help. Nothing will gratify you the way it used to gratify you. You're completely transforming your relationship to reality. How are you get out of this? I will be your witness? Where is your greatness? What are you like? How are you find yourself? What do you need to do? Or do you need to go? What is your goals what are your goals? You will have no goals. You have no questions. Nothing will matter. You were surrender to being. And you'll be stripped of your attachments. Everything will be nothing. He will embrace your nothingness. You will shake and shake and shake. You'll want more. You'll be left wanting."

"You'll be the wanting man. He will crawl on the earth. He will accept your wretched state. You will embrace your ugliness. You will be fond of your decay. You will hug your ignorance. You know nothing you are nothing you will be nothing you're worthless you're cast out of yourself. There's no escape. There is no escape. You were in the Pirates Cove. Everything is about pleasure. Everything is about pain. Those who want more pleasure or dominate those who want more pain. You will make pain your pleasure. You'll ask for more. It'll cut you in 1 million parts. You will embrace each part. You will be a flowing river."

" Nothing can continue. Nothing will bless you. Nothing will redeem you. You were mean in the state. You were lost in the ether. You were lost after the body. You'll crave all its parts. You'll devour and it will nourish you. You will find a heavenly body. And it will give you lasting pleasure. And then that pleasure will sick of you please. And you will throw off all the trappings of this feeling. And he will be cast into the nether world. You will find and nothing can save you from this experience. You'll get poured deeper and deeper into this hell. And no one will offer any kind of relief. And the feeling I hope you come more intense. And you will be dropped down this hole."

"he whole will get deeper and deeper. And you will love it because you are in the Pirates Cove. This is entertainment. This is masquerade. This is pretends. This is all you know. You miserable shit! You complete disaster of human experience. And the universe will speak you out. And you were realize that you were nowhere. You're helpless. You've always been helpless. All your skills and all your abilities are useless. You will surrender to this moment. You will embrace this moment. You will love that sensation. You'll be the drowning man. You won't be able to breathe. You're suffocating on your existence. What does this mean? Do you want more."

"You want more and more and more. You will realize the body can contain more pleasure. And that is all that you want. That is all that you ever want. You can't hide from yourself anymore. I can't be any different. Just everything that you are. This is everything that you want. This is everything that you can be. And you're trying to hide for yourself. There's no self to hide from. There's no place to hide. You're facing it. Your face-to-face with the sickness of your existence. And you patch yourself together. And you go at it again and again. You find your body and other bodies and they all intersect. And you live off that explosiveness. And you want more and more and more. Who can rescue you? Who can give you what you need? You're running away from yourself. You feel that helplessness."

"You feel that wonder. You were ask yourself where with a sound. All of the abusiveness of your existence is there for you. That's all that you want. That's all that you ever want. And you want more and more and more of it. And it's all available for you. And you're embracing it. That's the pleasure. It's all about that taste. The taste of misery. And you want to be more miserable. And you want to be happier. And you realize that all these emotions are illusions. It easier this way for all these masks. What is left. What is not hidden? You cry out to the heavens. Why have I been made this way? Why am I living this shit? How can I extricate myself from this place? You shake. And all the blood washes through you. And you explode. What can the matter be? What can your matter be? It doesn't matter. You came to this place. All that you wanted was pleasure. You didn't want to remember. You didn't want to forget. You wanted to be another victim of history. So you embrace that state. You can't became one with all of this. And it rushes through you. It excites you. And you feel it. This massive connection with the world in with yourself. And nothing would protect you. And nothing would save you."

"I need to get off it. I need to get on it. I need shake and shake and shake. And you get off on it. And you shake and shake and shake and you get off on it. It wasn't a part about any part of the body. It wasn't about touching or sucking your craving or needing or hoping or wanting. It was about none of this. You weren't going to find a reason. It was without reason. And every time you try to focus it or localize it or make sense of it you got shaken by it. You became broken by it. You were broken in 1 million pieces. You ran it. You controlled it. And you broken 1000 pieces. That was all that mattered. You were all that matters. And you connected. You got off on it. Can you pushed and pushed and pushed. And it pulled in and pulled in and pulled in. And he felt great. He wanted more of it. See you did it again. You pushed and pushed and pushed."

"He pulled and pulled and pulled. And I felt so good. He wanted more of it. He wanted to taste at all. He want to lick it all. He wanted to know it all. But none of that mattered. It was all illusion. It was all fake. You're only seeing what you wanted to say. You were only being what you wanted to be. None of it was real. None of it could ever be real. You couldn't feel it you couldn't remember if you couldn't see it you couldn't taste it.

They were only glimpses their expectations. There are hopes. You thought you could do it. It wasn't going to do anything for you. You were breaking. You're breaking apart. You thought you could hold onto it."

"But you were all wet. You're wet everywhere. And you dissolved into liquid. And you immersed yourself in the water. And there was no transcendence. There was nothing. Or nothing. You've always been nothing. Your shame. And your shame erases your shame. There's more shame. That's all that you are. That's all that you'll ever be. And you keep hoping. There's no hope here. This is a place without hope. Enter here and let go of your hope. Enter here and embrace your despair. It's all fake it's on nothing. You want more pleasure. Take care. You can't take it. Take this. This will increase your endurance. You're embracing your own demise. You're dead as you live. None of this matters. None of this will ever matter. You want to matter more. You want to give yourself. Where is the scoring? Where are you going? Where is any of us going? Do you have any time? What's the score? You're losing the game. You have no points. You're nothing. You're worthless. You want more of this."

"You take it. You lick it. You suck it. Vomit it all off. Kiss me now. Kiss me forever. I look beautiful. Kiss my beauty. Kiss my ugliness. Kiss my decay. We're all decaying together. You're not even part of this. You need to leave. You've already left. I parked my car here. You're not supposed to cross here. You need to obey this law. Come in here with me. Embrace my nothingness. I'm pure desire. You know what that means. There's no reason. There will be no reason. You'll just do this. And then you'll go back to the shit and you'll do it again. This is the Pirates Cove. He pay to get fucked up. You pay to make us fuck you up. Do you like this? Knock on the store. Wait! Maybe they'll open it. Maybe, they'll ask you to come in. You can come in. But not now. You're going to have to wait out there for a long time. Someone will turn you on. Someone watch will get you off. None of that matters. Everything is here now. You had a chance. We all had a chance."

"No one's going to skate. That's too far in the future. That's too far from now. That's too many days from now. That's the perfect time. That's the time for making love. But there's no love here. There's only vanity. And there's lost. And pure desire. And damnation. And everything you don't want. And everything you do want. Bang bang bang bang bang bang! Do you have it. Do you have what it takes? Do you look like you have what it takes. When other people look at you, do they see that you have it? Why are you looking at me like Faith. I'm not going to give you anything. I'm not going to bless you. I'm not going to get you off. I'm not going to fuck you to death. Is that what you want? Do you want all of that? Do you ever ask anyone that?"

"You think you're redeemed now don't you? You think you're redeemed now don't you? Are you redeemed? Do you want to fuck the redemption? Do you want to show your damnation. Do you want to say that you're sorry? Do you want forgiveness... do you want to be protected? Do you wanna fall down the stairs.? Do you want to feel safe? There's nothing sexual here. Pull on your member! Put on your reality! Find this place to taste. Find this place to suck. Find this place to realize that nothing is nothing."

“Everything is not ever nothing. You are nothing. And you fuck that nothingness. And you fuck it up. And it goes nowhere. And you’ve been doing this all along. And you settle for something that’s temporary when you could get something that’s permanent. And now you’re going to have to live with this. You’ve been damned with us. You’ve been going with us. You’re going to have to destroy this. Some thing is going to have to be destroyed if you want something to be created. You are trapped. I have everything that you need. You think I’m here. I’m not here. I never have been here.”

“There is no Pirate's Cove. You never left your bed. You never left your life. You're still the same shithead you always were. Your wallet's empty. Your bank account's empty. You're empty. You don't have a car. You don't have a life. You're nothing. Someone needs to take you in. How much will you give me to kiss you just once? This is a real kiss. This is a Judas kiss. Do you know where this is going? Do you want the ultimate pain? This is going to be pleasure. You know that. I can't be any other way. That is how they explain suffering. It's not really suffering. Take this. Take that. Take this. Take that. Pull on this. Feel this. Touch this. Now I get it. I wanna jump up and scream. We have all been doing this for so long. And I want to jump up and scream. Or scream! Just do it.”

“You need to tell me things.”

“I do not have anything to say.”

“You have abilities.”

“I do not even know where this is going.”

“Someone blew the whistle.”

“You need to quit while you are ahead.”

“Where does this go?”

“I do not want to think about it.”

“You can collect all of this.”

“That is all that you will need to pass it all along.”

“There are two avenues.”

“They took me in this private room. They introduced me to the alien woman.”

“She doesn't speak your language. She speaks no human language. You'll have to learn how to relate to her.”

“I couldn't use any form of international language. What did she understand? Why was she here? Why was I here? I need to use my resources to make some thing happen between us. Tina Flash, I need you to show me the way. It's all the bottom of the body about the body. It's a style of belief. It's transcendence. It's beyond his cell. That's all that matters. How can I achieve the understanding? How can you help me to overcome the cell? Desire does not make any sense without touch. I give myself to the physical world. It is beyond understanding. It is total experience. You've invited me to this place. I welcome the invitation. I give myself to the moment. I care about nothing else. Your love and purity. Give me what I need. Help me to find a source. This is beyond flesh and bone. This is the purity of the moment. Nothing else matters. I am drawn on by this connection my body can do nothing else. I accept this reality. I am brace its influence. I can no longer restrain myself. I'm carried along. The magic is everlasting. It's a stanza mean. Impulses through everything that I do.

Tina Flash I'll be recognize when I should be. Take me to the ends of the earth. Fill me with his understanding. I I wanna think about nothing else. I want you to energize me. Help me to overcome all the constraints of the earth. I immerse myself in this madness. I flowed in this endless experience and how can it be any other Ness how can I think matter but this? I am immersed in the sensation. I am lost in this touch. I cannot escape this influence. This is all that matters. This is all that ever matters. I'll give myself I do not have to worry about the physical body. There's no limitation to this desire. It is without constraint. It is without limit. It is pure understanding I have a little choice. My body does not allow me to think differently. I've already committed to the moment I accept your definition."

"He describes who I am. Leave me no choice. You confirm my expansiveness I am everywhere available. I seek your blessing, I long for your touch. I am enhanced by this realization. Any other way. I can only exist with your influence. You've already absorbed me. I am lost in this place. I am immersed in excitability. Everything moves through this essence. It is my now and forever. It is a lasting opportunity. It is totally without question. You offer and I accept. I am giving. I am receiving. I am in the circuit. The energy only increases. The flux on the expanse the dynamic is endless. I embrace this nation. I feel enriched by your contact, nothing else can fulfill my being. I float in these waves, I am enhanced by your view."

"I couldn't think about it in any other way. I had already immersed myself in the wonder. I thought it's bubbling everywhere. It was total apprehension."

"I merged with Tina Flash it was no longer about the body. It wasn't about the sort it was the last onto perpetuating there is no definition. There is no separation through and through--this connection was carnal. It showed how creation was divided. Constant forces are renewed. They came back again and again. I did my utmost to grasp their Genesis. Tina Flash me down. She took away any allegiance to the world. I could only exist in this place of stimulation."

"I would be left lighting. I would accept this haunting. It would be nothing else. On forever and ever I will submit to its young. I would let myself come dominated. I would race any wish to become something different. I was suspended in his force field I couldn't let go. Stand inside? Spray? I was powered up. I wouldn't let myself become detoured. I wanted to know. I wanted to give us nothing left I was stripped to the root of my existence, existence. Tina Flash humiliate me. She would make me realize my weakness there is nothing else besides this proximity."

"Everything else has been shut down. And I was forced to except that reservation I would never get away from her. This was my all. This is us."

"The mistress of pleasure returned to see how I was doing. She could see how Tina Flash and made herself now. What else remand? I needed to be dragged from the room. I would be taken to the next stage of revelation."

"How could I continue to feel pleasure if I didn't have a body experience stimulation. I was getting to the essence of creation. I was drawn into this stimulation. I can sense this immense current was deep within the human spirit are welcome to put along. I had no interest in the other kind of connection this was a forever I thought incited I felt uplifted. I was the very definition of my existence I need to go along with it. This was spirit without body."

I was being me made. I lost myself in a certain time. I was excluded from myself. I was without myself for the moment. I was totally accepted here. and I just went with us and embrace it. This was beyond desire. I could accord with nothingness and move beyond these influences I was reborn as a star, and I shone in the nighttime sky. No I was destroyed and reborn and destroyed and reborn's. I follow the cycles of the cosmos. I watched them I became them I controlled them and I imagined them a new way."

"It gave me access to something greater. I moved beyond myself and I accepted how could I keep track of all this. Was I greedy? Did I want something that couldn't give, and I didn't realize. What was available. I only wanted more. I had become insatiable. It only added to this madness. It was everything for me it was just wonder marvel. I gave, for me. I gave and I gave when I gave. One more than I have. What more did I want. What was this conflict.?? Are you understood?"

"I recognized my positional state. It was nice being nor nothingness. Who is moody? It was desolate. It was everything that I wanted. It was nothing that I could use. It was not desire. It was not pleasure. It was not satisfaction. It was ongoing. I accepted this brush with greatness. I threw myself into the onrushing forces. I recognized my project.

Nothing else. I couldn't imagine it in any other way. Thus, I remain. I stayed with it. I didn't let anything shake my calendar I knew it all. I wanted to return to get it again to the Pirates Cove.

I wanted to see the mistress of pleasure. I wanted to see Tina Flash. I wanted to see anyone else who is willing to become part of the festivities. We were all engaged by the constancy. I needed to be there to complete myself. I would break any laws. I would transgress any prohibition.
