

THE LETTER

“You need to know who I am, Vukovich, I am the writer. I know everything about you. I know your explanations. I know your reasons. I know your excuses. You are a homicidal maniac. There’s no doubt about that. But you are a small fry. There are many who are way more dangerous than you are.”

“That does not diminish your responsibility. You are a good soldier. I have been aware of you for quite some time. Only recently have a big come directly involved in your life. When you understand what I know, this will trigger an insane reaction in you. I am not responsible for that. I am the writer. I’m only telling the truth. You would find out about that truth at some point. All that I am doing is accelerating that process. The words speak for themselves. I know your wife. I know your wife very well. I know your wife in ways that you will never know her. This is the basis for my story. This is the source of your life. This is what will induce a maniacal reaction on your part. I only hope that this reaction can be contained so that it does not hurt anyone else.

Vukovich, we have no choice. You need to be told. And you need to be told in this way. I have clearance and evidence of your wife’s intentions. Even though she tells you one thing, I know it’s really going on in her mind. That is why I am the writer. That’s what I do for a living. That is my mission. That is my application. You will understand what this is all of it. You love your wife. At least that is what you say. And the two of you have a child. And you both love your child.”

“For my part, I see that relationship for what it is--indoctrination. Your child is a free spirit and a wonderful being. It is unfortunate that he is in the middle of this story for all of us, I hope that you can deal with the truth appropriately. I will leave it at that.”

“Not only does your wife love me in ways that she could never love you, but she has expressed this desire for me. She has invited me on numerous occasions to meet her for an affair. I am the writer. I record this information. It is not my rule to act on it. My actions are the right. In this case, you’ll need to hear the full story. And you think that you know the full story. Your wife claims that she is afraid of you. I have no idea what I’m supposed to do with this information. For my part, I believe that she needs protection. She needs to make herself scarce from you. For the sake of argument, I recognize that this is exaggeration on her part we both know her. And she has a history of exaggeration. She exaggerates because it makes her feel more powerful. She thinks that her knowledge gives her an advantage over others. And makes her bigger, and it makes them smaller. And I can only listen to this information. I am reeling it to you in a form that underlines your overall accountability.”

“I don’t want to see it in any other way. I don’t want to view you in any other way. Ultimately, you are guilty of numerous offenses against humanity. Only buy an earth thing, this information can you eventually be forced to reconcile with your crimes. These are war crimes. But you have been acting in the name of others to bear a higher level of accountability. In no way does that diminish your role. By her participation in similar programs, your wife also there’s a level of responsibility for these policies.”

“None of you are innocent. I don’t want to see any other way. I’m doing my best to maintain clarity about these issues. Your wife has not on the expressed desire in meeting me. She is described the meeting in graphic ways. As part of my telling, I am in society details. On more than one occasion, she has described a high level of arousal when she talks to me. Its description this man to create a simmer level of stimulation on my part. She wants to get me involved in a similar expression of my emotions. In most cases, I listen. I even encourage what she says. But my language is seldom as graphic as hers. If it was, I wouldn't be all that different than other men that you meet."

"For my part, I am sharing some thing that is focused on her instigation. In no way to say diminish my commitment to the overall experience no, that is why I'm sharing this with you. She may not have been as forthcoming with you. I am not going to be as reticent. I describe my experience. My overall intention is to reveal the truth to you. And I know this truth will be so upsetting in a deep way. That it will influence how you think about yourself. It cannot be any other way. I wish they could. But this is part of the overall experience."

"I am the writer. I have known your wife for a long time. I've known her much longer than you have. I have understood influences on her behavior. I understand her creative nature. In a sense, I also recognize the dangers in an earth thing her perspectives. That hardly diminishes my overall intent here. I have a story to tell. That is my goal. I'm not going to shy away from this telly. In fact, that is the basis of my motivation. I feel that we share some thing, your wife and I, that is fundamental to our nature. Try as you might, you have not been able to illuminate this aspect of her personality. In a sense, ever be able to affect her in a deep manner. Forever, she will remain a stranger to you. At the same time, I realize that my revelation of this information may alienate me from her once and for all."

"I feel that I have a deeper purpose. I'm here to expose you here. I'm here to expose your crimes. I'm here to expose the world which tolerates your behavior. Once and for all, you need to be exposed for the monster that you are. You could no longer hide behind the fact you are the good father. In your interactions with your children, you have always maintain the same model. In some ways, this is a perspective that is grounded in privilege. That privilege has been reinforced by the actions that you've taken over the course of your life."

"At this point, there's no other way that I can describe these events. This is all about your ultimate culpability. To see it any other way is to ignore the actual social chip challenges that we face. For all that you can do to intercede with your children, you could never give the information I would enable them to expose your actual motives. Even though, they may not identify with key elements of your program, they have created a method of collaboration with the culture that maintains the same kind of meritocracy that subscribe to."

"As the writer, I am emphasizing the limitations of your methodology. They cannot be seen in any other way. Although you have found a number of situations where you can demonstrate an apparent mastery, I understand the true nature of your actions. I am not at all checking in by the arguments to which you subscribe. There's no way that I can give you sympathy. You may create a world that appears sympathetic towards your family. That is only because none of you ask the real questions. They all assume that your rule is to provide however security for a society. In no way can I accommodate to this view."

"That is why I provide you with a little sympathy. I am sure he glad you have your reasons for carrying out the drastic actions which are all part of your job. But I do not want to show any kind of concern for your understanding. At no point, are you dealing with someone who is going to allow you to present a so-called fair case. Not only are you the source of the problem, but your actions have only exacerbated the overall experience this is not a matter of protecting people. It is not even your function to be in such a place. Any allies, that you have, mean these efforts only take advantage of these individuals.”

“As well, many have entertained actions which increase the level of commiseration of the people. In fact, that is the very basis for my beliefs. That is why I’m so involved in exposing what is going on. And I am thoroughly on board with this outlook. And nothing will dissuade me from such a consideration. This is how the world works. This is how people act. Everything else is a manipulation on your part. That is why I am so severe in my judgment. I don’t wanna hear your lame excuses. I don’t want to hear about your childhood traumas. Every argument that you make only reinforces the kind of attitude that has prevailed throughout your life.”

“You submits to this understanding of human domination. Although, I thought you may have felt victimized by this social structure, you become more adept as a victimizer. That is why even the sympathy that you appear to show for others must be viewed with a suspect eye. And you can cry all you want about your free choice.”

“You can claim that you were operating in a system that rewards those who deserve it. In these efforts I’ve only made you more adept at maintaining this kind of superiority over others. You may wonder on what basis I am making my charges. Look in the mirror! You were obsessed on the maintenance of this world, it will continue to advance the same perspective as long as you and your compatriots can maintain power.”

“That is why it is all so pernicious. In no way shape or form can I even give you a chance to state your own case. If you lived in a world that was truly willing to address the abuses, the evidence would be so overwhelming that you would not have a chance. Instead, you have conspired with those forces to maintain silence. And you have acted accordingly in applying your techniques. I am not here to learn about the past sentence on you.”

“In the forum, that was just so they could constituted, there would be no problem in stating such a case. In all fairness, you would have the ability to impeach this evidence. Nevertheless, you would not be granted the kind of review that you were you were so used to on that basis, everything that you have done would be approved.

“Will never be any accountability. The system of oppression that you were polled is advanced as an example of justice. You have all the ethical arguments to support what you do. These arguments enable you to isolate a bad actors. And your self appointed commissions take it upon themselves to apply these principles in carrying out murder. The fact that these actions are a collective nature does not diminish your individual responsibility. You have tried to keep your wife trapped in this context”

“And she has done a very committed role in affecting your beliefs. But with her recent actions we have no doubt about the overall situation. Even if she might not deny, even if she might deny her intent in developing this perspective, it does not diminish your role. That is why I am so zealous in making my point. From my perspective, there’s no other way to tell the story. That is why I emphasize her emotional rejection of you. Even if she continues to play the part of a good wife, I know what is going on. This is the disease of our culture. And you do everything that you can to maintain this infection. Do not pretend that it is any different. Do not pretend that it will ever be any different. This is the role that you have adopted for yourself. And you will continue to act in this manner. I simply stand back and let these things happen.”

“It is amazing that you advance a standard in behavior that allows such actions to occur again and again. That is all part of your modus operandi. As long as the populace remains ignorant over these things, you seem like welcoming avenging angel. Unfortunately, there are enough people who are starting to wake up. Over time, you acquire an awareness, and that awareness may actually lead to some kind of social change. I am not here to sing your praises. I’m not here to give you an opportunity to answer these charges.”

“You have already acting in a way that provides no kind of recourse for others. Again and again, you have found allies or willing to vouch for your methodology. There’s no way that I can be sympathetic. There’s no way that I will ever show any sympathy. It is that simple. Nothing could be simpler. I what kind of society allows it be for these actions. What kind of society sanctions this behavior. You have advanced your society review of the world which makes it impossible ever to create any kind of accountability for these kinds of actions. Therefore, I can barely be sympathetic. I am limited in showing concern for humanity. That humanity is the very basis that convicts you for these kinds of actions. Nevertheless, I need to accommodate to the fact that you get away with this again and again. In a sense, poison the court of public accountability. That is the very basis for your supposed independence you are a monster. That understanding goes beyond your actions. Go to the heart of your ideology. It goes to a kind of difference on your part that prevents a deeper level of self examination. You were like so many others.”

“You only become frustrated when the facts are unearthed. And you have your alternative narratives to support your version of service. Go ahead. That’s what you do best. That is why your wife is sympathetic towards you. That is why you continue on with this kind of behavior. It is a society that sanctions this kind of thing again and again. It’s only adds to year crimes I can only watch it all. That is why I am the writer. You have conspired to create your own justification for this kind of thing. And it keeps on time and time again. There has to be a point when you can’t get away with us anymore. I don’t pretend to offer a forum to bring you to justice. I also feel this is a world that is barely concerned about these issues. When I say that I’m referring more to the vision that you have created. Most people in the world would be aghast if they knew the full story. Everything that you do it’s meant to curtail the telling.”

“ Right now I will I be able to document your actions? You have been very careful in controlling this narrative. But you’ve also made an effort to control all pertinent documents that can describe the basis for your actions. Therefore, it becomes more difficult to describe what is actually happening. And people are sympathetic to your age. And you exploit this sympathy. In fact, there’s nothing progressive for us. Your authority depends upon a populace the remains desperate for their livelihood. They feel as if they do not have the time to confront your actions. So you believe that you’re speaking for them. You live in characterizing the actual situation in the world. But your lies so correspond with the deep fears that’s been ingrained in people. So you have found the new group of victims to accord with these beliefs of yours. That makes it even more difficult to stand against these policies. As well you are used skills to hide your actions. And you convince people that this is necessary for their sustenance. This only serves your needs. You’re offering nothing to anyone else. Does your wife grasp the situation. There are times that her arguments may seem even more potent than yours. She also believes the propaganda that you’ve been fed.”

“It seems to compensate for these feelings. Who are you?”

“Your family has done well in submitting to these beliefs. You’ve done an excellent job at maintaining the amusement park. All deep questions can be reduced to little puzzles for children. In this world, fantasy and video games abound. Every real social problem can be reduced to some kind of a weak electronic challenge. That only aggravates the situation. It is necessary to achieve in the lost world of yours. Can you do a great job?”

“Can I respond. Do you think anyone who disagrees with you is envious of your position. That is rooted in an inability to marshal their own skills. Unlike you, they have left their last to become characteristic of their lives. You have seduced your wife into this view. Even though she knows something is wrong, even though she has put aside her commitments to do her wall game, you were able to maintain his home. That supports your perspective. No thank you. For your part, you depend on the foot soldiers to do the real work. They are unsung heroes. In your world, they totally go along with your perspective. That makes it even more difficult to counteract this understanding.”

“Your wife believes that she is trying to assist the most unfortunate. But she is doing little to dismantle these fundamental beliefs. She continues along with this belief system. The more you try the more you get. She has her own frustrations. That may make her more skeptical of the system. Despite that awareness, she remains equally subject to these principles. And you rely upon the subjugation. This is all part of the overall implementation of your plan. It is amazing that she continues to do this to herself. If not for her artistic inclinations, she would totally be committed to your way of life. As it is, the criticism remains muted. There are moments when she seems to be in control. She can actually denounce some of the things that are going on. But she really remains hesitant to challenge the foundation. Therefore she remains subservient to this point of view.”

“Worse, she’s advancing this perspective to the world. She offers an organizational framework to go along with the disciplinary attitude that you bring together, the two of you have a lock down on obedience, on the part of the people they have no idea what’s going on. Down deep in you, they know. They are skeptical. They can read the signs but it’s not a matter of threading the needle. What do we have to do to break this allegiance once and for all. The initial strains of that kind of outlook are starting to affect your family. You have your fears. Occasionally, you become aggressive in trying to assert your outlook. That does not diminish the reality. The world does not take kindly to this kind of manipulation you’re only aggravating the situation.”

“How would you it even be possible to confront these directives.. Your wife offers just enough doubt to make you angry. But she’s on board enough for you to let that feeling dissipate. That’s why things are continuing on and pretty much the same direction. You are quite adept at effecting your point of view.”

“Down deep, she despises you. She curses you under her breath. She’s chartered your every move. She knows exactly who you are. Therefore, she does not make common cause with your worst impulses. Finally, that may be your undoing. She’s reserved part of her private life in a way that has nothing to do with anything in your life. That is part of her ultimate rejection. That is why I’m sharing this with you. This will help you see some thing that is already quite apparent. You were living a life estranged from yourself.”

“I cannot be any other way. No one could assume this level of hatred towards others, and pretend that he can get off Scott free. And you have been hiding behind procedure and law. Down deep, you know that all this is wrong. There is no law that protects your family from this truth. That is the disease of your life that is the disease of your world. And that infection will continue to grow until it consumes everything around you. Cannot be any other way.”

“Despite my understanding, I find it very difficult to denounce your crimes. On that basis it seems even more difficult to document what is going on in your family. The conspiracy of silence has been executed so well. It is frightening, that this has become the world in which we live. It’s kind of reasoning predominates. It’s next to impossible to isolate the actual circumstances of your actions moreover, becomes nearly impossible to detail your wife’s phone away from you in a sense, what difference do her beliefs make? She is not really defending anything that is dad critical for your lives together. You have provided economic support. You have gone beyond that level. This is all part of your successful ideology. That is why you are who you are. You do this all so well.

“There is no accounting if it is not possible to frame the social indebtedness under which we live. This situation has only become more aggravated. Do you know how to pull all the right strings? And there is a little that I can do to advance the contrary position. Nevertheless, any little bit of this information is enough to upset the house of cards. And I cannot evade that determination. You’re all made for each other. Carry on with these behaviors again and again. Indeed, I feel more and more like a spectator. I am the writer. I cannot see if there is not a fundamental reality behind position. And that is the reality that you fear. How can I respond? You’ve created a perfect world. You created a perfect wonderland. As long as the walls are tall enough, and the ballet barriers have been put into place, things will continue this way for one thousand years. This is your immortality. My main interest is to expose that attitude. Clearly I have evidence. Will it work any longer?”

“I feel as if I see the pattern. I recognize how all this is developing. I understand what I need to do to prevent you from continuing on with this behavior. Are you were going to destroy yourself? I can only hope that you do not hurt others. I am here to prevent that from happening. Knowledge needs to emerge in a pure form. Cannot engage forms of oppression. It must fulfill an overall mission to the truth. How can we know? How can we ever know? In your heart of hearts you know. That is why things are the way they are. You’ve ever organized so well. You assume that you have had a trial. You’ll get away with what you want. No I don’t know the difference. That’s how you’ve always been operating. That’s part of the organization. They give you the cover to get away with shit. So you’re doing pretty well what you want. And you think it’s all okay.”

“I think that’s all that matters. Look at yourself! Figure out what you want. Go after it. Where is this nonsense coming from? You’re asking us to look at short-term gains. Over the long term, these systems breakdown. That’s what validates this view. You present a perspective that has no real connection with human need. It’s all about desperation. It’s the only thing he could talk about. I see anything you know.”

“Everybody up as if they’re all perfect specimen and they all go along with the same thing. The higher up you get, the less control you really have. We’re not dealing with people who have very much vision. That’s you right. He’s been very effective at implementing orders. You’re great at covering your tracks. And you’re great at insulating your superiors. That’s always been your skill. This is something that I think about when I'm eating my soup. I'm thing that I think about when I'm putting salt in my soup. Why do we need salt? Why do we need soup? I want a little more from you. I want vision. I want a blessing. Let's eat together. Tell me what's behind all this. What is behind these beliefs?"

"What makes you the way that you are? Is that too far to ride? Is it ever going be worth it? What else do you want to include? Is it edible? Is it physical? Who's behind it? Is this an interrogation? You try to send me it is you're asking me what's my favorite flower yes, what is your favorite flower? What does this have to do with the position that's coming. If you know what the favorite flowers, that could tell us so much. Why do we start with favorite flowers? Where does it end up going? It was the only place that I want to go that goes to the sweet spot. Give me what I need. Give me give me a life. Give me breath. Give me peace of mind. Help me get to the end. Help me get to the beginning. I hear running water. I'm at the fountain. There was a moment when this was a livable model. Can you even implement any of your ideas.? I thought that I was zeroing in on what made you so reprehensible. Now, you're trying to get me lost in trivialities I feels that there's something else involved. I feel that you need to tell me something. What could that be?"

"I've already made one too many mistakes this week this has nothing to do with how I feel or how I want to feel. I'm not interfering with your life. It doesn't exist that way at all. You're getting a little too close. Or not close enough. It's sort of like hey how are you doing. Hey how are you doing. I want to be part of this. I don't wanna be part of this is where it gets really difficult. I find a lot of people who want to be part of this. And I'm loosing my perspective. There are so many perspectives. And I was inside being the same thing. You're the only one who understands. I'm looking at people who really don't wanna understand. And that's where you come in you give them a purpose. You tell them it's okay to dispense with basic ethical ethical judgments. Your reinforce this idea of the holy family. And your holy family is the only thing that matters. Because you never really understand when any of this is about. Every kill us a good kill. That is your model. Ultimately, this becomes motto of present: every kill is a good kill. You want to talk. but you said for a rigid limits on what can be talked about there's no real poetry here. It's the poetry of human execution. And you've justified it all along. This is your war."

"This is you existing in someplace where you're not really appreciated, but you throw so much money around that everybody considers you the good dad. This is a good dad model of the world. And you were the perfect representative. We love you, good dad. There is going to be a point when you're going to have to answer for your crimes. And your children will be mortified. They will be angry. They will be angry at the state for making a decision that needs to be made. They were angry at the people. Ultimately, he will be angry at the people. The people who make the people. How far is supposed to go. On your view, the people gave you the right to do what you did. So you find logical enemies. He find logical delusion. It all goes around in the family. No one makes any connections."

"We're a happy family. We're not supposed to make those connections. We're not supposed to have those discussions. Can you see the picture? You could only see what's in front of your eyes. That's the difference between a painter and an artist. You might as well be a house painter. Here take a white paint brush, here take a paint brush and dip it in white paint. Your white-washing the walls. Your white-washing history. Your white-washing your life. What do you want me to do? Do you want me to feel sorry for you? Obviously, things have occurred in your life. They didn't kill you. Now you distill them into your arguments, and your arguments give you justification."

"This is combat. What are you fighting for? Why does this have anything to do with you? These are numerous arguments that are used to justify actions and that seems to give you the foundation for doing what you do. Are you really a good dad? Are you going to teach your son about self reflection. I'm going to give them these little lessons."

"They're just like the lessons you gave, that you were given the lessons that you give to the world and the world doesn't like your lessons, you fucking blow them away, okay, daddy what did you do in the war? Which war were you in? We started this war? You decide you're gonna finish it. But you didn't. And now we're here to finish you off. We're not going touch you. We're going to expose "

"Is the kind of fuck that you are: you find out what your wife is doing. You find out what she's doing to you. You find out what she's really doing to you. She's screwing you over. She's laughing at you. What are you going to do about that soldier? Are you willing to take the fall? We need a job done? We need you to act out your jealousy once and for all. We need you to get aggressive. She's setting you up. You're setting her up. You're both working together. What am I supposed to say about that. What can I even say about that at all?"

" This is ridiculous. You're all ridiculous. You might as well Bruce be working together. She's so enticing. Then you show up with a gun. Is that your way? Is that your culture? We're going to have to clear this out. We have to purify this element out of our culture. But that's what you're supposed to do. You purify at the point of a gun. And you're successful over and over again, doing what you do. Because you're the only one who can do this well. I know some thing. I see some thing. If I saw something more, do you think I would do something more? I don't care. What are you afraid of? Are you afraid about thinking about some thing? We really don't think about the same things. Is someone watching you? Does someone care about you?"

"How did it go to this point? How did you act? What did you do about it? OK, you got what you wanted he got everything that you wanted he made them the world high with you I can't get over this. I can't get over you. I have nothing to do with this guy. I have nothing to do with a story. I don't know how he wants to work it out. He's done some anatomy. He's a killer. He sees how it all has put together."

"That's why he wants to get involved. He wants to do his part. He wants you to do your part. Are you working together? Do you entice me, and then does he slam the door. That's what the good dad does. Rejection, huh? I think I've got this dad. It's always been a good dad. Cut me a line for the good dad. I never did that kind of stuff. I was pure. I need to be pure. I need to take a clean shot. None of this has anything to do with me. None of this. I'm focused. That's what makes you dangerous. Then what makes you think that you're doing what you do because you do what you do because you do what you do to me that's what makes me think what you do what you do to me."

"You're both working together. It's anatomy. And it's a murder. It's a murder mystery. I see how it works. You're talking to each other. You're telling each other things. These things are important. I only want one thing. I'm not going to wait for it to happen. It's going to happen to me. I'm going to get dinner delivered. I don't even know."

“I don’t want to care. I don’t want her to be a part of my life. I’m a good dad. He loved me. I fell in love with him. Good—take this. Do you know that I’m mocking you? Do you know I am listening to all of this. I’m gonna use it all. I don’t have to destroy with it I only have to destroy myself. I only have to get out of here while I can. I’m a good dad. You’re a good dad too. At what point did any of this make any difference? Who knew? Who didn’t know? Why bother? There’s a number of threads.”

“There’s a number for important threads. I can’t save anyone here. I can’t even save you. I can help you with your homework. I did one good thing. That’s what I’m here for. That’s why I talk the way that I do. Then I get blown away. And someone asked me to leave. I need to talk to you. I need to tell you what was really going on. I know that this might bother you. I know that this might get you angry. But I’ve been thinking about having sexual intercourse with your wife. And she seems to be encouraging me in these thoughts. Given the circumstances, it’s probably not good to think about stuff like this. I’m not really given the fantasy anymore. I have a plan.”

“I want to work it out. I want to have sexual intercourse with your wife. I think that she encourages him in this plan. Nevertheless, she has obligations. She is not going to frame those obligations in a way that she can gain better control over events in her life. Instead, she’s going to ask me to wait for some future paradise. Along the way, she’ll give me a little inducements here and there to encourage me. First of all, I’m not really into waiting secondly I’m not into fantasy, so none of this is really going to feed a fantasy, third, I don’t mind talking, oops me busy and distracts me from other things. Fourth I’m going keep talking, fifth, I think I look wonderful that’s your line, I think I look wonderful. As long as you do, he’s going to give you everything that you need. There’s one look that isn’t so flattering. I don’t really want to talk about that. But you know what I’m talking about. This is the one where I go back in the past, and I get stuck there again.”

“I keep feeling it the same way. I’m seeing the past is entanglement. It’s not a straight line. It’s not a straight line going backwards. It’s not even a curved line. It has all these doodles on the page. It’s a lot a mess. I have the money to get where I want to go. I’ve already paid. They’ve checked my balance. It’s gonna work out. This is all that matters all of this has been a long time ago all of this has been a long time is any of this matter? I’m very good at doing what I do. I’m very good at cleaning out the mess. I’m almost in my neighborhood. So why are you following me. I can’t help it if your wife has encouraged me to have sexual intercourse. I have not pursued it. I’m not pursuing any of this. I’m looking at a bigger picture. I’ve done all this to help convict you. I want to show the world it’s not all about the good dad. It’s about the assassin. And he’s ready at all points.”

“It has nothing to do with you. It is nothing to do with me. There’s nothing to do with your wife. It’s nothing to do with my desire for your wife. I have one goal, and one goal only. That is to convict you of your shit, that is to reveal the world of others like you, and there are many, are there many go along with that, and there are many extol your virtues, and there are many who make excuses for you, I’m so sorry about that, I’m so sorry about your past, I’m so sorry about you being on your knees crying, I’m not there to forgive you. I’m not there to forgive anything that you’ve done. Because this is not reconciled do you understand? Do you understand? Do you understand?”

“I hope you’re angry as fuck. I hope you’re coming outside yourself because that’s the only place to come out of this is a letter to you yes you I'm sorry. This is not personal. This is political. I don't even get close to you. I can already smell your rotting flesh and I am 1,000,000 miles away. You've infested your head, this planet. with others like you. And you've been doing this over and over again. I'm glad you've had the time in the money to be the good father. Because you can just go fuck yourself. And you can fuck the little horse you rode in on. As for your wife, you have a need to have a talk with her."

"She needs to have a talk with you. You need to be talked out. You need to be talked out of your shit. Someone needs to tell you once and for all that you're the little helpless man you've always been, and he may be hiding behind weapons, but you're still a little helpless man you've always been. And you will be convicted in a court of law. Therefore, you're going to do everything to avoid that. All of you were tied up together. All of you were tied up in the story. I want to wash my hands so badly. That's all that matters to me. This is the moment that I feel really real. I've done everything that I can to detail the evidence for this trial. So who's going to present it. Is your wife going to tell it like it is? We're not going to wait on this one."

"I'm going to be better, so I better see some money quickly. Because I'm not going to wait on this one. I can't pretend to see all this and say that I'm not going to talk about it. I've been talking about it for a while. I'm getting a little closer. I'm getting a little closer to confessing. What is there a needs to be confessed? Who put the makeup on? Who took it off? I don't really have time to talk with you."

"So I'm sending this letter. I don't have time to mail this letter. But you're going to get this letter anyway. You're going to see what you're really about. You got to see the scum bag that you always been. I'm going wash my hands of all of this. I want nothing to do with any of this. I'm not part of the circle. I'm not part of the dilemma. I'm not lamenting my childhood. I want you to hear those cries. I can't go to this place. This is nothing to do with me. I don't want to end up in this place. This has nothing to do with me."

"I am preparing a brief so that I may argue my case under more suitable conditions. This case will take place after your conviction. I will be arguing for some thing more intense. I will be arguing against the universe that creates this picture. I am arguing. I guess I need for you to confess and going on. I'm going to argue against all of this. I'm going to put my argument front and center. I want you to get involved."

"I want you to listen. I want you to get excited about what I'm gonna talk about. I want you to read my book. There is this other place where this all falls in to order. Order in the court. This couldn't be more ridiculous. You can't even paint a clear picture. I have something in common with other oppressors. And the only person that can stop you are so you can stop. And this has nothing to do with me. This is worth it. None of this is worth it. None of this is worth it."

"I feel as if I'm close to resolving this. I am presenting a case that needs to be argued in a court of law I am presenting a court of law that needs to be argued in the court of public opinion. I am creating a public opinion that needs to be argued in the court of eternity. I am creating a court of me that argues against the court of eternity. I want a reckoning right now. I don't like the possible alternatives that result from your ridiculousness."

'For the time being, I need to hold to the story. Is the only one that's going to get me anywhere. All of her versions are only distractions. I'm not into distractions. I feel distracted by it all. Have you turned it off yet.? Does any of this matter? Does it hurt? Does it hurt at night? I was pretty embarrassed but here exposition. That's all I have to say for now."

"I am not going to abide with the world that defends this clown. It is that's so poor take it for what it is."

"You're not exactly asking for forgiveness. And I don't really expect that. That's how it works. As long as you're not challenged you keep thinking that you get away with it. You really have. I want to come all tumbling down, what are you gonna do? Are you there to take the world with you? You gonna take the whole world with you? That's what you've been doing all this time. If you're doing it for quite a while. I only have to open my eyes. I can see it. Or face to face. Kisses me on the lips. Couldn't be more evident?"

"What is your wife thinking? What does she think about any of this? Has she got tired very tired of tolerating your shit it really is pretty endless it goes on forever and ever even if it doesn't, you can pretty well compensate that with one of your arguments indeed, and you're pretty much the boss of all this. You let her rule over for a little roost, and she believes that she's in control. Let's be honest you're part of a brutal society. You're part of brutality. You were polled in one way or another. For you it's all part of a ritual."

"When you get your cue, you snap, when you get your orders, you snap. And you keep holding yourself back every day. Do you think about it. But you don't want to do it in your own life. You just snap like a twig. You break like a pencil. The words come to an end. And you're still around acting as if you were in control. It's all about you staying in control. You're the only one who knows how to do it properly. You hold on. Your whole to your place. You do what you need to do. And it works just like that. It doesn't work any differently. You wouldn't have gotten this far if you didn't have a method. The tried and true method."

"You're not the only one who's tried it. You're not the only one who's going on. Where is the break? When does anyone say I can't do this anymore. I can't do this anymore. I just saw the weakness. I just feel the weakness. You need to be stopped. No good it's going to come of this. What happens when you find out? What happens when the world comes to your house. Are you so so so here. What have you done to me? What have you done to me? I'm still here Were this for a long question. Will you ever figure it out? You still have a chance to do something you need to stop at before it occurs. You know you need to stop and we still have a chance."

"I would like to close this chapter once and for all. I don't want to think about this anymore. But it is essential to get to the bottom of things. It is important for you to accept your accountability."

"You are hiding from the world. You give the impression that you are entirely above board. But your life is an open book, and it is important to recognize your role."

"You operate in a world that depends on the accumulation of evidence. This is used to incriminate your enemies. However, you never have connected the dots for yourself. That enables to keep doing what you do. This is all part of your accepted order. You are rewarded for your actions. But the world remains in a the dark. There is no other way to see it."

"It is about to all catch up with you. What kind of world are you returning to? Where is this all headed. Do you even know? Are you watching?"

"There are different ways to enjoy the spoils. But there has always been a risk. What else is left? The nightmare keeps getting worse. And the monster keep coming out of the shadows. That is what you are becoming. You believe the world is against you, and that offers you justification. How are things going on the homefront? That is the source of your real problems. It is all getting out of control. And that is part of your own creation. I can no longer be sympathetic.”

“The world is catching up with you, and your feeble arguments no longer apply.”

“How does your wife feel?”
