

SUSPENSE

“You could present the story in a more suspenseful way?”

“When you refuse to admit accountability for your actions, it is difficult to present the story in any other way. Your life has always been about creating justification for your point of view. That attitude is all over your childhood. You emerged as an adult by defending your parent’s point of view. You even went along with your mother’s authoritarian nature. We are not going to stop with your parents’ experience. How did you transform this outlook into an ideology? How does this mindset continue in your future endeavors? This enables you to defend any of your actions. You immerse yourself in this viewpoint. And it grows with time. Only recently have you been able to exercise any independence. Your enlightenment can be traced to our dialogue.”

“I wrote your story to highlight your refusal to express remorse. You continually blamed the judge and the legal system for trampling on your rights. You became so sensitive about your rights only after you had ignored her consistent arguments against you. The questions of the therapist point to your resistance to change. It takes numerous sessions before you admit to the consequences of your actions. Only after protracted questions do you reveal your anger against the victim. The questions also show how aggressive you become when you are pushed. This understanding supports the prosecution’s case that you were intimidating the intimidating.”

“You only say this because you are not that different yourself. You have admitted to your own crimes.”

“I have not been convicted of any criminal offenses.”

“You have never been caught.”

“I have made every effort to attain greater self-awareness.”

“The state has decided how you are allowed to apportion your emotions.”

“The organization has never succeeded at applying mind control to my behavior.”

“You were pretty well disciplined before the story began.”

“Where does that come from?”

“Once the cult gets to you, it is next to impossible to get rid of that way of thinking.”

“Everything becomes something other than it is. There is a name for everything that is independent of how everyone else sees things. Night is day, and day is night.”

“Is it that terrible?”

“It is not that terrible.”

“I am not told what to think. They just make suggestions for me.”

“What would you suggest?”

“Independence for your emotions. The need to explore alternatives.”

“I have obligations.”

“You have turned your obligations into a form of imprisonment. You are not the first person with family obligations.”

“This could be the start of a beautiful friendship!”

“We are not going to agree on everything.”

“If there is someone in the organization, who is pulling the strings.”

“I have done everything in my power to resist that level of control.”

“I will follow you wherever you go.”

“There are some irregularities.”

“Are you about to make an accusation?”

“Is the name spelled correctly in the complaint?”

“It really doesn’t make any difference? We know where you live.”

“Do you know?”

“What is your assumption?”

“I want you to confess.”

“I want you to wait with me.”

“I don’t think that I am ever going to be able to make the complaint.”

“This is too much noise for me.”

“Who are you trying to convince.”

“I hae to stay like this for a while.”

“What do you really want to know?”

“How is it possible to exercise such a high level of control over opinion?”

“I know every day what is happening to me.”

“What is the source?”

“We lack community and awareness.”

“I made every effort to escape the cult.”

“I am about to lose my shit.”

“I have lost whatever I started with.”

“We see things pretty much the same way.”

“I need to personalize things.”

“Where do you want to go?”

“I will go along with whatever you want.”

“Everything was so tight.”

“What was that about?”

“I left something behind.”

“I am digesting all of this.”

“This is what I really need.”

“The need is ongoing.”

“You need to learn how to do two things at once.”

“What do you show, and what do you hide?”

“I hide state secrets.”

“Where does that begin, and where does it end?”

“We are so far beyond that.”

“There is no mind control.”

“We all believe the same thing. We are doing our best to eliminate the threats to our way of life.”

“There are different ways to observe the same thing.”

“I am seeing different facets.”

“And what are you concentrating on?”

“Intelligence analyses.”

“The call to action..”

“We see a common enemy.”

“You are all connected to the same point of view.”
“Where is this headed?”
“We strengthen the efforts of the organization.”
“This is something that I do.”
“I could have been a friendlier person.”
“We have a common enemy.”
“Are you going to read your cat poems.”
“I do not have cats.”
“This is all very casual.”
“This is more than exciting.”
“We were like that in the day.”
“This is not that kind of place.”
“You cannot be on display.”
“We are sharing our ideology.”
“We have families.”
“We represent families.”
“That is all part of the organization. This is the ultimate family.”
“It sure is.”
“We die with our boots on.”
“Talk to me about the torture program.”
“Our lives felt like torture.”
“I blacked out.”
“Where do you work?”
“I work for the organization.”
“I work in a warehouse.”
“When will develop a revolutionary consciousness?”
“The purpose of the organization is to disrupt consciousness in other countries.”
“In other continents.”
“In alternative universes.”
“There is the possibility that individual awareness can become the motivating factor to influencing others to sharpen their awareness about what happens in their world.”
“Our world.”
“The purpose of the organization is to control consciousness.”
“Control political institutions in other countries.”
“By developing these methods, we can make changes to what happens in the United States.”
“We are doing a great job keeping everyone in place.”
“We don’t even have to work at it.”
“We have one consciousness.”
“We do what we are told.”
“We are told what we want to hear.”
“Two forms of control.”
“There are people, who actually believe that it is okay to not to be okay.”
“Who are your working for?”

"There are forms of intolerance, which become more prevalent in social discourse. "

"The enemy is in the world."

"That is the second problem."

"It is part of the first."

"I am getting rid of the trash."

"You will love me for what I am."

"I no longer complain."

"There is the family system."

"And the family non-system."

"Don't think that I can help."

"How can I keep caring?"

"Keep on!"

"You are loving someone who is not me."

"This is where I fall apart before your eyes."

"You need to pay for the ambulance."

"I thought that we were making this a case of social awareness."

"The job is pretty crazy."

"I can peg this."

"Tell the story as it happened."

"We never reach attributions of guilt."

"I wanted to learn."

"Don't say something bad about me."

"I am not ready for this."

"No one is."

"Who is the accuser?"

"The organizations has all this covered."

"What do you want to know?"

"Have you hit the high point?"

"This is the best that I can do."

"Who are we defending against?"

"I am getting my girls and getting out of here?"

"That seemed more complex than I know."

"I do not hear it yet."

"I wait a while than it happens."

"This is the trap that you set."

"There is not much more to it."

"There were too many influences."

"This could all be your story."

"You wake up like this. You want to show the world what you know."

"Do you have that much in you?"

"If you can go this way, you can go the other way."

"I have gone dark."

"That is the biggest problem with the organization."

"I can help you."

"This is a lack of accountability on the social level."
"We are all sorry for what we have done."
"This is a lot worse than I knew."
"Suck it up."
"It does not hurt that much."
"This is even worse than I thought."
"How do you make it last?"
"You are more accepting of the dominant culture. Honestly, you are a brainwashed bunny."
"You only see what you want to see."
"You only see what you have. And it is going nowhere fast."
"I am going to get absolution."
"What if that had never happened?"
"I have got a deal."
"The organization gives everyone a chance to change."
"Did the bus arrive?"
"We were bussed into the site. No one knew that we were there."
"Did you know?"
"I was born to know."
"I see it. Where does it lead?"
"I breathe."
"I wake up."
"I love my son."
"I love my daughter."
"You are perfect examples of social allegiance."
"Answer the question."
"Do me a favor."
"I woke up."
"What is in your bones?"
"Should I keep looking?"
"I am going to tell you about my life."
"I am nostalgic about family."
"They showed us romantic movies. They were able to inspire all of us."
"We need to make the world more favorable to our way of living."
"We will all confess together."
"That is how we are."
"There is a forgetting of the family."
"And a total embrace."
"You love your new family."
"We will all leave in disgust."
"Now, the story is complete."
"The next one needs to vary."
"You are all looking at something that you want."
"They show us slides."

"Don't think that you are going to change it."

"What are you going to do to help."

"I do not want to give you ideas."

"I am having enough problems."

"I am on top of this."

"We have a plan."

"Lean on me."

"The place is not clean enough."

"I am sympathetic. What are you doing to change?"

"And this is so wonderful."

"You are noisy."

"This is before anything changes."

"Back to work."

I developed a way to think about this."

"There is a point when you love and depend."

"You need a lawyer."

"I was going the divorce route. But the organization got to me?"

"You are even lovelier than I thought."

"I cannot keep talking about this."

"You are going on a great deal."

"You have taught me."

"I am the rebel without a cause."

"You are ten layers deep of working for the system."

"Do not abandon me."

"I do not want to abandon my position."

"The organization has a place for you."

"The moment keeps getting lovelier."

"Then you abandon it."

"What happens after that?"

"You need to be more proactive."

"I cannot make things happen on my own."

"Where is this headed?"

"I want to be the director, but I want different rules for the organization."

"I am trying to work out the plausibility of this story."

"We could ask a lawyer."

"I made a serious mistake."

"You are going to have to surrender all your papers."

"I have made some extensive notes about the organization."

"That is private."

"I want to go public."

"I want someone else to go public."

"The real source of the problem is the problem."

"You are trying to assign blame."

"You need to make it all work."

"They are working together."
"There is one goal."
"The soup."
"I want you to see this."
"I love you."
"Are you in love, or are you loving?"
"It is not like that. You are a very simple person with very simple beliefs."
"What does that mean?"
"Get a pet."
"That really does not express the actual problem."
"I could study that."
"What emotions are permissible?"
"Who is picking up the tab?"
"Some government agency."
"The people."
"Some other people. We steal their shit."
"We are all on the same page."
"None of this matters."
"I am hearing things."
"What do you know?"
"I wish that I could fantasize."
"That is going to do it for me."
"I want a snack."
"What is this for me?"
"We assumed that a special kind of knowledge could lead to social change. We lost track with the pipeline."
"What is that about?"
"You would work every moment for the purposes of the organization."
"I found it in my closet."
"I found it on my computer."
"We want you to consider this."
"I care."
"We want want you to care."
"Of course, we do."
"What is the problem?"
"Can you find the way out?"
"We work out this together."
"I need to take some time to try to forget about thiis."
"It is all tied up with nostalgia."
"The selective application of human rights policy."
"That is never under consideration,."
"Where did you get the manual?"
"From the organization."
"Big smiles."

"Prayers."

"I want to protect myself."

"We hate each other."

"We cannot stop."

"We stopped."

"There is a process of reasoning."

"I do not want to mess with the process."

"I am always with it."

"Do not look at me like that!"

"I always stare."

"I cannot deal without it."

"That started a long time ago."

"I will be saved."

"I try not to think about it."

"How are you different?"

"I am way beyond this."

"This is strange."

"Did you choose the fish dish?"

"I chose the chicken dish."

"I know what I've got."

"HOPE!"

"What door should I open?"

"I am working tonight."

"That is the only thing that I care about."

"This will not affect me."

"I accept the discipline."

"Sit down, and shut up."

"I am down for the count."

"We are going to create it on our own."

"The director would like to see you."

"What got this started?"

"I have a white paper prepared."

"Your intelligence estimates are all mistaken."

"Tell me what to do, and I will go along."

"I am writing a book about someone who has an alien encounter, and it opens up her passionate side."

"I have heard that story, but it did not end up that way."

"This is what I should care about."

"Are you going to be able to do it?"

"I am going to need another alien encounter."

"Two in one week."

"If you want it, you will get it."

"I am going to make it."

"That is not what I want."

“Just wire me.”
“What happened to consciousness?”
“What happened to reasoning power?”
“Here is someone with limited reasoning power, who is telling me about reasons.”
“And making it up.”
“You do not grasp this.”
“There is a style of cherishing.”
“I got thrown out of heaven.”
“I cannot wait for that.”
“No one will know.”
“I was at the beginning, and I was at the end.”
“The organization needs to tell you things.”
“YOU WANT THE WORLD TO LOVE YOU.”
“CONNECT!”
“I have it all down.”
“I can sleep through it.”
“That is a gift.”
“I am going to claim my reward.”
“This is a happening place.”
“We will give you what you need.”
“I WANT YOU TO LOVE ME.”
“You are on the list.”
“It is a long list.”
“Add to the list.”
“What else is her?”
“What should be here?”
“True love.”
“I will resolve this.”
“This is all yours.”
“We can go deeper.”
“I want to share.”
“Give me a lifeline.”
“Follow me!”
“We will all return.”
“This is my lifeline.”
“This is not working for me.”
“I do not want to hear this!”
“I am going to help you fill in.”
“Fill in.”
“I need to leave.”
“We are not even close to anything,”
“Anyone can help.”
“This has power!”
“Fantasy brings it all to life.”

“WHAT IS THE THING THAT HOLDS IT ALL TOGETHER?”

“Food.”

“Hunger.”

“What is another need?”

“You have a map. Now you simpliffy the map.”

“I can go many places.”

“I am only going one.”

“That does not amount for much.”

“WE WANT TO CREATE SUSPENSE FOR OUR AUDIENCE.”

“I am creating something for my audience.”

“He is working on you.”

“And what are you proving.”

“That’s good for him.”

“Really, what is your problem. There are books, and there is this shit. Do not pretend that this is the same.”

“This is the modern version.”

“I am the modern version. That is some bull shit imposter shit.”

“I have a house. I have a car. What more is there?”

“There is Rome.”

“Go to fucking Rome.”

“I am going.”

“I can give you the world.”

“Give me a cup of dirt.”

“Why are you in better control?”

“You are going to turn into more of a shit.”

“Tell me something that I don’t know.”

“I do not want you to give me something that I already know.”

“No more portals. No more abusive aliens. No more fantasy characters.”

“I am almost in end game.”

“Come back to me.”

“I will save you.”

“I need a replacement lover.”

“I am trying to serve two masters.”

“I will redeem you.”

“There is something hat is bigger than both of us.”

“Who took you away?”

“I only have so much that I can deal with.

“I am a doctor.”

“That is not going to hurt.”

“QUIT LYING TO ME.”

“You could do something for the world.”

“You could give blood.”

“You could give love.”

“Tell the truth.”

"You are in it for the long haul."
"That is the only thing that I really love."
"We are moving the chairs."
"Come back to me."
"Come to confession."
"I want you to tell me something true."
"This is impossible to understand."
"This is being shared."
"Pass it to your left."
"You are not poignant."
"I am getting closer to center."
"It is getting hotter."
"You think that you can beat this."
"I am the Donner party."
"You need to move more quickly."
"Do the dance!"
"Different places."
"Are you kidding?"
"Different forms."
"I will pay for it."
"There is a room where you can save everyone.?"
"Sing all your cat songs."
"These are different forms of saying."
"Not saying."
"I will offer you what is needed."
"She will never get what she wanted."
"Girl, he is taking advantage of you."
"That is how the organization works."
"These are all secrets."
"Can I help?"
"I could give you the gift of life."
"I am not going to stay until the end for you."
"I understand things about the universe."
"This is where we are all headed."
"She is going to reveal all the connections."
"You make the sun shine strongly!"
"The reactor is going to burn us out."
"And it will all be over."
"I cannot work this out."
"I do not want to break you."
"That is not part of your story."
"They made me an offer."
"I took it."
"I knew that there was a connection."

"You broke the connection."
"This is going to become major."
"I can be in all places."
"Then the gods will destroy you."
"Total extension."
"This is implying a place where we work it all out."
"Follow me home."
"These are things that I need."
"This completes the world."
"You are the sacrificial lamb."
"We are in endgame."
"Throw all the pieces down."
"What does he want?"
"It is all about self-love without self-awareness."
"We are making the planet."
"We are all that is needed."
"I want so much more than this."
"You ran the night."
"You are a saint."
"I am not going to respond."
"Someone knows it all."
"She will emerge."
"I do not think about such things."
"He is a spy."
"They are all spies."
"We cannot love each other."
"SELECTIVE LOVE."
"The organization is going to decide."
"Then the clock goes off."
"We have numerous chances to make it happen."
"It is a simple equation."
"I am all ears."
"This is ow it will end."
"I went home for a total redo."
"That is all that I care about."
"ONE MORE CHORUS."
"I am going to keep doing this until I stop,"
"I am never going to to stop."
"You will not give me what I need."
"My turn."
"We all need to be saved."
"You are the last in line."
"I am back."
"We will get this down."

“Back to the drawing board.”
“Back to the coloring book.”
“These are things that I need.”
“Face the source.”
“This makes it all happen.”
“Will this ever happen?”
“I need this to finish.”
“Do not hate me?”
“I have a perfect performance. What flows from this?”
“We are going to Tucson.”
“There is never going to be enough resources.”
“Take me to the bridge.”
“I go searching.”
“You have it all.”
“But none of that is much of anything.”
“That is the sad part.”
“I have got a few confessions.”
“There is a space for miracles.”
“I was waiting for my blessing.”
“There is a place for stimulation.”
“We are crafting the body.”
“There is a culture.”
“I take risks.”
“Thta never risks.”
“I am very good at this.”
“I closed all the books.”
“I apologized to everyone.”
“What do you want?”
“I confess.”
“This fills out all the spaces.”
“There is a religon.”
“There really is.”
“He is not going to give you what you want.”
“Close the deal.”
“We go back to the room for a recitation.”
“He is hunting.”
“None of that is going to work.”
“I will hang unitl I am asked to leave.”
“The mothering instinct.”
“The killer instinct.”
“Do not touch this.”
“I have everything that is needed.”
“I write it all down in a little book.”
“That is creeps.”

“You are creeps.”

“Bring me what I need.”

“I am holding in place.”

“I like the ice.”

“It is nothing like you think it is.”

“I am way beyond that.”

“We can go back and fill in the good book.”

“She is going to find all the miracles.”

“What did you let go of?”

“Close the show.”

“With everything that matters.”
