

PERSONS

“I almost made it all the way.”
 “I want to make someone jealous.”
 “That is not part of my life.”
 I needed to get smarter. What could influence me?
 “This is wonderful.”
 “Can I come back for more?”
 “I do not want to get in another story.”
 “That is a very bad story.”
 “This gets better and better.”
 “They are all looking at me.”
 “This is not working.”
 “You are using me.”
 “This is not good for either of us.”
 “This is an interruption of my persona.”
 “I am so over this.”
 “What do you want from me?”
 “This is tit for tat.”
 “This is not working.”
 “I find ways to realize the my uncertainty.”
 “Where does this end?”
 “Tell me, what is the trade-off for mastery of physical pleasure? You have lost any ability to develop a critical sensibility about your world. You accept the portrait as a given.”
 He did a little to change it. He simply accepted the culture advanced at work.
 “I didn’t know how to ask myself what was needed. How could I ask someone else?”
 I learned how to ask to get what I needed.
 “You better see for yourself.”
 “You are trapped in your luxury.”
 “You took the body and you left the shell.”
 “Let me sell this to you.”
 “Pleasure was only the beginning.”
 I watched Bila mop the floor. Her mind is somewhere else.
 “I want a Cinderella moment. I cannot imagine working all my life to buy a house and have a family. I don’t want to wait on the good life.”
 “You are waiting on a guy.”
 “Not necessarily. I just want some kind of magic.”
 “I can make you feel better about your math homework.”
 “Mathematics can help me to arrange the objects in my environment. I can discover what is closer and what is further away from me. I can reach for what is ready to use. I can create a more formidable vision for my development.”
 “How did I end up here?”
 “Are you good with computers? You don’t have to do this job forever.”

“I can use my phone. But I do not really like computers.”
“Eddie wants me.”
“Is it worth having Eddie?”
“Who hired this guy?”
“You work for years like this. Where does it end up?”
“What am I getting for this?”
“You need to stop just reacting. You need to create for yourself.”
“What does this mean for me?”
“How did you spend so much of your equity?”
“This could last until the end of time.”
“That is what has occurred since the beginning of time.”
“I am running out of myself.”
“This will not work.”
“I can trade flesh for gold.”
“How does that work?”
“I need better ideas.”
“Do not drop that!”
“Where is this going to end up?”
“Someone has the answer.”
“Is this actually a cure.”
“The food was great. Where does this take me?”
“Where do you want to get taken?”
“I want to ask.”
“It is my turn.”
“I do not see life as a series of issues.”
“You need to be a little more advanced at your job.”
“This is getting very tense.”
“How did you make me look like this?”
“None of this works.”
“How should it work?”
“I am running out of words.”
“Who are you?”
“How did you know that it was me?”
“This is too exhausting.”
“We have different rules.”
“I can control one segment of the biosphere.”
“That is not going to be enough for significant change.”
“This is not going to work for any of us.”
“You have to strip away the outer layer.”
“This happens to all of us.”
“I am looking for a miracle.”
“I need a miracle worker.”
“What is the difference?”

“I can make things happen.”

“I want to eat this all the time.”

“I got pushed over the edge.”

“I am already part of this otherness.”

“You are being cast out.”

“I will not be rescued.”

“That made me explode.”

“You have destroyed yourself.”

“How could you construct the universe?”

“We are looking at two models.”

“All this was taken from you.”

“I want to look at the alternatives.”

“This is no longer theater.”

“The physics would lead me to a proper performance. I would recognize what was necessary for my evolution.”

“You need to talk with your hands.”

“How does that work?”

“What is going on in there?”

“I am working the magic.”

I saw Bila again. She seemed involved in her work. I wanted to learn more I wanted to participate in her liberation. But she seemed too involved in the moment.

“Do you like your job?”

“How can I like it?”

“Indeed, she was living for the Cinderella moment. She was convinced that a flash of light would wash over her.”

“This did not succeed.”

“You have gone back.”

“I felt great for a while.”

“You have taught me so much.”

“I am finished.”

“What is going on back at the place?”

“This is my history.”

“We are way beyond this silliness.”

“The mop keeps getting heavier as you work it over and over again.”

“This is not going to succeed for either of us.”

“This is a mechanical thing.”

“We are so deep into the mechanics of the universe.”

“This will make you stronger.”

“This is not possible.”

“I need to go back to my teacher.”

“How do you feel after work?”

“I do not want some kind of distraction. I am seeking permanent liberation.”

“I feel tossed by the primary force of the universe.”

“I am all powerful.”

“I am going to learn something special to help me survive time in and time out.”

“What could that be?”

“I cannot change that.”

“There is no changing.”

“It is not as bad as it was.”

“Where do they solve this problem?”

“I want a better class of losers.”

“You cannot simply treat the problem. You have to go to the the origins of your being.”

“I don’t think that this is going to work out in any other way.”

“I could do that in five minutes.”

“This is not me.”

Lea was trying to discover another way to look at historical development. It was not something that could be just written about. It needed to be rooted in the heart. It was not longer about knowing. It was all about being.”

“What does it mean to be?”

“I am greater than being?”

“That is creating.”

“The creating origins in non-being.”

“It is a reversal.”

“ I am ready to go on.”

“You had wonderful skills.”

“How do you create the universe that you need?”

“This is totally apart from being.”

“The clock is ticking.”

“This is surely going to create a resolution.”

“I cannot hear a thing.”

“There is going to be a blessing.”

“I am back for what I need.”

“We only want one thing.”

“A business plan.”

“Who is doing the accounts?”

“What is wrong with you, Bila?”

“You are taking advantage of me.”

“How is that?”

“This is where it started.”

“Why does work seem so exploitative?”

“You are interrupting my show.”

“I need to discuss an important matter.”

“It is not like it seems.”

“THIS IS MY JOB!”

“I know it is your job. But you do not even do it well.”

“You got what you want.”

“You cannot just show up at my door.”
“I have a door.”
“The destruction was coming on.”
“What did you see?”
“A place of rejection.”
“You have too much training to let yourself get dragged down like this.”
“Who is trying to bless us?”
“This should never end like this.”
“The body is beautiful.”
“It functions like gravity.”
“It grooves like a machine.”
“Have you been here all night long?”
“Where is he?”
“Why do you seem so confused?”
“Are you prepared for this?”
“You did this for me.”
“What is the deal?”
“Beggars can’t be choosers.”
“I am ready to live again.”
“Then I will die again.”
“Lea, you need to be fantastic.”
“This will be everything for me.”
“It will take a month.”
“I have found freedom.”
“Someone will teach me what I need to learn.”
“The doors are closing.”
“What do you need to learn?”
“It is a one-to-one correspondence between words and things.”
“We need to move it over.”
“Use your noodle.”
“This works.”
“Works better than you know.”
“This will not work for either of us.”
“What is in the box?”
“Millions of ideas.”
“The best idea of all.”
“You do not have the experience.”
“I am the experience.”
“I feel like an insect.”
“The kid is not making it happen.”
“I came here to rescue you.”
“Knock on all the doors.”
“What am I supposed to find here?”

“This is the natural state.”
“There has to be another way.”
“I told her that I knew everything.”
“How did Lea react?”
“Who is responding?”
“What do you want to know?”
“There is no solution.”
“Let us start again.”
“I did not want to end up like this.”
“Who is caring for the children?”
“This is the future.”
“What do you have to do with me?”
“I am supposed to look after you.”
“Lead me where you want to go.”
“They have pulled the plug.”
“This can be remedied.”
“There is a natural solution.”
“He does not seem concerned.”
“Bila, who cares for you?”
“There has to be someone. Otherwise, she would do something more frivolous.”
“I come back to life.”
“Who brought me a kid?”
“This is going to be wonderful.”
“This is wonderful.”
“Who did that to you?”
“You have to laugh.”
“You have to wash it off.”
“You get to the elemental level of humanity.”
“I am good at this.”
“Does any of this mean anything?”
“You tell me.”
“Bila, You tell me.”
“Lea, you tell me.”
“I need to get good at school. My parents have expectations.”
“I have learned how to evacuate the machine.”
“We have been all around.”
“What is the source?”
“I cannot figure anything out.”
“What is the key?”
“What is the gesture?”
“Teach that to me.”
“There is only one way to make this work.”
“It is not disappearing.”

“You are dead.”
“They all have to realize that it is over.”
“Get the assignment done.”
“How can that improve our lives?”
“What is in the notes?”
“The answers.”
“The friends that we need.”
“I have taken a sword in the gut.”
“You will feel better.”
“That is not going to do it for either of us”
“You took so many parts out.”
“She could help me to survive.”
“That is only a little slice.”
“Everything will be great from here on in.”
“Eddie will come back.”
“Where has he been?”
“You seem to do everything.”
“I cannot even look at you.”
“Where did it start?”
“She does it better.”
“I am other than myself.”
“I cannot explain why I am the way that I am.”
“I had skills.”
“This is going to end much quicker than you think.”
“What did I do wrong?”
“That is not going to do it for me.”
“You did something so mean to me.”
“I need your assistance.”
“I do not want to go there anymore.”
“That is how they solve the problem.”
“I want to go back to when it was simple.”
“I got blown out of the water.”
“What do you know about the cure?”
“You are not allowed to interfere.”
“We are back at the life question.”
“How do you get time to do a thing?”
“This is real time.”
“I am being cheated.”
“How did I develop?”
“That is what you want to know.”
“Self-generating.”
“I run quickly.”
“I hit a hard barrier.”

“The hard shell.”
“Use the nut cracker.”
“This is really messing with me.”
“How does that work for you?”
“It is still happening.”
“Are you good with this?”
“There is a hard barrier.”
“I ate too much lettuce.”
“How do you balance night and day.”
“I am a committed worker.”
“I want her to be able to understand this.”
“This tastes so good.”
“I love you for what you give me.”
“None of this works.”
“What happens between A and B?”
“I do not need to hear this.”
“You are not some kind of god.”
“Who let you in?”
“What is the objection?”
“I am not getting enough satisfaction in my life.”
“Baby has it good.”
“Eddie, how can you make it right?”
“You need to get into my head.”
“You are blessing me.”
“This is really easy.”
“I am hiding from others.”
“I am so far out there.”
“Bila, you are grounded. How do you do it?”
“I have no choice.”
“Do not worry about it.”
“There is a point in your life when you cannot worry about it.”
“I have no choices.”
“I need to be somewhere that I can feel comfortable.”
“I can never feel right.”
“I cannot submerge.”
“Where will this end?”
“I need to submerge.”
“I made a mistake.”
“Cover for me!”
“I am here.”
“We are face-to-face.”
“Would you like to rebel?”
“I do not need your input.”

“This is growing inside of me.”
“This does not bless us.”
“Look to the heavens.”
“Who do you want to blame?”
“Some people have ripped apart societies.”
“Some people take risks.”
“I hardly care.”
“Give me a French lesson.”
“Make each work count.”
“Make one word count.”
“Did you bake it?”
“I am too far gone.”
“I can go back.”
“Why is that a solution?”
“There are two solutions here.”
“The variation.”
“I can measure how far I need to go.”
“Eddie is making me lose myself.”
“The bear is here.”
“How does that work?”
“You came out of the box picture perfect.”
“That is how they work on the machine.”
“This will not work well for either of us.”
“You look so fresh.”
“Give me a close up.”
“There is all this confusion.”
“We can give you new parts.”
“He enjoys this.”
“He knows how to rip you apart.”
“This is where it gets tough.”
“This was not explained.”
“The wires came out.”
“Will I survive?”
“Put new batteries in.”
“Eddie needs help.”
“How are you willing to help others?”
“I cannot do this?”
“Who has it?”
“Who has it in the box?”
“We have found some resistance.”
“Is this working in all cases?”
“This is cold fusion.”
“That is so perfect.”

“Knock before you come in.”
 “What is going on in here?”
 “Is this some kind of day-care center?”
 “This is how I started my life.”
 “I am hearing my life again and again.”
 “This is not history.”
 “This is denial.”
 “What is being denied?”
 “We only have one chance.”
 “We could be friends.”
 “She took what she needed.”
 “She left the cake.”
 “It is not iced.”
 “You blew a fuse.”
 “We can expand.”
 “This is all happening too fast.”
 “The grape juice is taking us places.”
 “This is too simple.”
 “I want to believe that I am getting on better.”
 “I need some kind of expert.”
 “Do you have an expert there?”
 “What are you complaining about?”
 “What is the basis for the complaint?”
 “Which comes first, Lea?”
 “The house comes first.”
 “How does that happen?”
 “It works with every other plan.”
 “Can we trade?”
 “Can we make requests?”
 “The confusion is universal. There will be no easy resolution.”
 “What is the connection between being and non-being?”
 “I need you explain?”
 “You are contemplating things that are contrary to your being.”
 “Someone must understand.”
 I was getting caught up in things that had nothing to do with my life.
 “You need to finish your work before you can talk about anything else.”
 “They all have something to give.”
 “What do the pets know?”
 “How do to make the right sound to get what they want?”
 “What is the source of the excitement?”
 “Get her away from me?”
 “This could hurt all of us.”
 “Where do I find the off switch.”

“Bila cannot care.”
“There are other crew members who pull their weight.”
“Pull their weight.”
“You will find out.”
“They will open the door.”
“I know how to do that?”
“Pull the string.”
“We could open another topic.”
“I know how you feel.”
“I know what I want.”
“What are you really looking for?”
“Someone who can turn on all the buttons.”
“This is going to end up the right way.”
“I need to get control of my health.”
“I hit a wall.”
“I need a recommendation.”
“I know what is the basis for trust.”
“This is when you go off the rails.”
“You go off the rails.”
“What made you feel strange?”
“The touch.”
“Where does that come from?”
“Outside of this place.”
“I am not kidding.”
“Do not whisper.”
“There is so much happening at one time.”
“You are supposed to care for me.”
“I thought that it worked.”
“It never works.”
“I am going to explode.”
“That is brilliant.”
