

MADE

Reason alerted me to the logical inconsistencies in my world view. I had developed this perspective based on the ideas of my parents and my friends. I realized things in the classroom. But I recognized the gaps in the picture that I had created. There was nothing for me in the this notion of success. I was never going to be blessed by the promise that seemingly awaited me.

Indeed, I was falling away from the promise. There was no longer anything awaiting me in this vision. More than ever, I was an exile.

Where was this headed? I felt more alone. I did not want to feel isolated by my world. I wanted to sit at the table with my friends and think that I still belonged.

“I do not want to see myself as a victim. There is so much money to be made.”

“Is the system exploitative?”

“People have the power.”

“Yeah, they can learn the science.”

“They can get the training and become the boss.”

“Where does that take them?”

“Let’s just have fun!”

“Curtail your gains.”

“When I saw what it was, I broke from it.”

“We relate to each other so well. I feel as if I am completing his sentences and he completes my world. It is an out of body connection. When I am around him, I feel as if I am not even walking on this earth. It doesn’t feel right. I am powerless. I want to say how I feel, but words just fail me. How can I make sense of this?”

I feel as if this was expected of me. Eddie was just there, and I grew to love him. It was all automatic. As if they had put a chip in my brain. And I fell in line. It couldn’t be any other way. When desire started welling up inside of me, I wanted someone to hold me. And Eddie was the one.’

“You have to change your representation of the world. Change that little world manifestation.”

“Recognize the source of exploitation. Create communities that resist the label. I can’t do this myself.

“I can’t keep doing this and develop my integrity.”

“The immediate representation in my life. The confrontation with Caramel.

“Drop out. Work to survive. Drop around. Work to support your art.

A skill to infiltrate. The limitation of the process.”

“In questioning the dominant culture, you have created too much latitude for the self.”

“You still needed to avoid collaborating.”

“Create a program outside of the dominant!”

“The dominating culture.”

Developed a model of the institute how to survive productively in the academic community.”

“The point of view of a participant observer.”

“The focus and the divergence.”

"I surrender the object of learning."
 "Cannot control it."
 "The teacher asks a more profound question."
 I want enough to train the body, I needed to train the mind."
 "If I work harder, it will all make sense."
 "I cannot see the light."
 "You need to connect the waves to the point of view of the observer."
 "This happens all the time."
 "You know that you cannot do this. You do not have the permission to do this. This is not how things are supposed to be handled. You have too much energy."
 "That is how the waves work."
 "I have been waiting for you."
 "I need to do something."
 "Clean it up."
 "Someone messed up the toys."
 "Where does this come from?"
 I was not getting good at creating a revolutionary moment.
 "She came dressed for the show."
 "I am dressed for this."
 "There is a balance."
 "There is always a balance."
 "Get cleaned up."
 "You do not understand."
 "I am not ready for this."
 "Lea, get ready for this."
 "Who lets you act like this."
 "I am caught in the trap."
 "I can point out a solution."
 "He sees what you are holding."
 "Extra cards."
 "A friendship card."
 "The door is open."
 "You can turn off the faucet."
 "We have a leak."
 "The dam is going to explode."
 "You cannot understand this."
 "You cannot understand this."
 "I want to be with people who understand me."
 "That is all that I need."
 "That is all."
 "He went his way."
 "He never was part of my way."
 "Your friends thought that you should be part of this."

“I do not yield to the emotional blackmail.”

“We have to find a solution.”

“How does that function?”

“Like a puzzle.”

“Find the last piece.”

“These are all smiles.”

“This is how the changes begins.”

“There is an Eddie that comes back.”

“I am going to get confused at the combinations.”

“We all can sense the confusion.”

“I have come back.”

“The revolution is read.”

“It is like cake.”

“Some people can never be trusted.”

“Are you one of them.”

“Are we finished?”

“There is not enough time for all the variations.”

“The bus cannot fit all the players.”

“Where do you get the money?”

“Where do you get the time?”

“I still conform. I never had to work in a restaurant. I did not work in retail.”

“But you still do not accommodate to the economy.”

“They depend on it working like this.”

“All the money flows down the drain.?”

“At any single moment, we are all crafting reality.”

“It needs to be realistic. It needs to be now.”

“There needs to be some constraint.”

“You are brilliant.”

“I would like to make a trade.”

“You get this, and I get this right.”

“What is one hour like?”

“I am waiting forever.”

“Do what you need to do.”

“There is something that you cannot do.”

I realized that I had a special power. I could remake the work in a new image. What parts did I need?

“You need to go to work tomorrow.”

“I am on financial aid. I am going to create something for the world.”

“Break up.”

“I am breaking up from the world.”

“Drink this.”

“That is more poison.”
“I am living on borrowed time.”
“How could I change the world?”
“People were staring at me.”
“I felt that I could get a head start on the world.”
“Do you follow politics?”
“Political parties.”
“How we create our identity?”
“How do we do that?”
“Are you going to eat the bacon sandwich?”
“I do not eat bacon.”
“This could be significant.”
“I need some money.”
“I want to enjoy my life.”
“What is this place.”
“Why are you using fork?”
“Who are you?”
“Let us start by sweeping up.”
“Who gets the most money?”
“We are working together?”
“This is making me sweat.”
“When will I be able to go back to the house?”
“I can move in and out.”
“That is all that we know.”
“We know when to close our eyes.”
“Who picks up the check?”
“I need you to lead the world revolution.”
“You need to exploit the contradiction in each person’ life.”
“You work for a system that does not reward you for your contribution.”
“This is not fear of self.”
“This is a fear of too much self.”
“Do you know that guy?”
“I am being swirled around in the confusion of memory.”
“I do not want to return to my life.”
“Then you just return.”
“I am shaking all over.”
“I have had enough to eat.”
“This was supposed to do something.”
“Are we doing this again?”
“This is a new kind of work.”
“Like sleeping.”
“What makes the machine run well?”
“They will find me.”

“I will lead.”
 “What is the need for leadership?”
 “You do not want Caramel to sabotage the historic moment.”
 “This is all that we have.”
 “I feel as if I could never get anything done.”
 “I cannot leaver the story.”
 “What is this about?”
 “No one is laughing.”
 “We need goals.”
 “What is the best goal?”
 “To get off the merry-go-round.”
 “To jump on the treadmill.”
 “I am running around the wheel.”
 “Drink this, and you will not know the difference.”
 “They all act the same.”
 “Skip the rope.”
 “This is too easy.”
 “I have to spend so much.”
 “Pay a little more, and you get a little more.”
 “This is impossible.”
 “That is a little hopeless.”
 “I need to find the cure.”
 “Drink the tomato juice.”
 “I cannot make the magic button stay on.”
 “That is the basis of a revolution.”
 “What will that do to human motivation?”
 “I need someone to help me out?”
 “That is not going to be good for either of us.”
 “There is more work.”
 “Work for the family.”

I needed to break from the all. I still went to class and pretended to study. My head was somewhere else. I was not involved.

“I need to get this.”
 “How can we make this work?”
 “This is supposed to be very easy.”
 “I need the milk.”
 “Where did you find me?”
 “This guy is still a creep.”
 “What can I do?”
 “There has to be one person who I can truly rely on.”
 “That is so nonsense.”
 “The smell betrays you.”
 “I will work harder if I know that I am blessed.”

“The heat is breaking me down.”

“We asked the boss to turn it down.”

“You looked so wonderful in the moonlight.”

“I am protecting myself.”

Lea was protecting herself against the elements. She did not look vulnerable.

“I am going to follow.”

“Cover me.”

“What kind of job is this supposed to be?”

“You use spreadsheets.”

“There is no solution.”

“Drinks for everyone.”

“Solutions for everyone.”

“That is impossible.”

“There are methods.”

“I can buy it for you.”

“Can you buy it all for me?”

“Then I realize what I have paid for.”

“Do you like this?”

“I did not dress for the party.”

“I am having metabolic issues.”

“I can be there in second.”

“Where are you hiding?”

“Is there still time?”

“This is so silly.”

“This is going to burst all the bubbles.”

“We can say that the bubbles are burst.”

“Where are you now?”

“I thought that we could do this.”

“I told you that I needed something simple.”

“I cannot do this anymore.”

“You have done it.”

“Do not speak for me.”

People were speaking for me, and I would get rewarded if I did it all perfectly.

“I need to bound out of here.”

“Where is the here for the bounding?”

“You did not come dressed for the wedding feast.”

“I am not dressed.”

“I have no luggage.”

“I did not bring a thing.”

“How do I get here?”

“I finished this.”

“I have to leave.”

I felt that I was unable to commit to anything in my life. Maybe, I could create something else that seemed important.

“She will lead us to the perfect job.”

“What are we going to eat?”

“Where do you find these people?”

“They have so little to make things work.”

“How have you been doing?”

“I have not.”

“I do not need a personal report.”

“I could do better at this.”

“This is the only thing that I have to trade. I have emotional needs. And you have emotional needs.”

“All my dreams are broken on the hardwood floor.”

“We could explain more.”

“We could find a cure.”

“This is chronic.”

“Who are you waiting for?”

“No one is waiting.”

“Do it in the now.”

“Politics needs a definition of the now.”

“He will fill up your generator with gas.”

“Good times end now.”

“Do not look at me.”

“Do not go along.”

“What did you study?”

“The sparkle of the universe.”

“The vitality of human beings.”

“I can run with ponies.”

“You really destroyed yourself.”

“That is not going to happen.”

“Do not smile.”

“I need to complete my book.”

“What happened here?”

“This should only take a minute.”

I needed to figure how these people could come into my life. They shared very little with me. We did not have the same beliefs. They were more exploitative than I could imagine.”

“That is not going to work.”

“I need some privacy.”

“Everyone needs to get in the picture.”

“I only want one thing.”

“One thing.”

“Who let you in here?”

“I am intimate with social realities that are detrimental to my development.”

“I have the power.”

“You cannot do it on your own.”
“That is the sense of a collective movement.”
“This is too much of a burden.”
“Does anyone else really care about that?”
“Now, you have a cause.”
“Give me a meal.”
“Are you working together?”
“We are.”
“I cannot explain this to you.”
“How can I get anything done?”
“I am looking for a remedy.”
“That is going to cause some interference.”
“What do you mean?”
“This is more than an upset stomach.”
“This guy is hideous.”
“And he is still hanging on.”
“Is this a deal?”
“Read this part.”
“This is the guy who never finds love.”
“Not a good time.”
“Pranks.”
“Pranks.”
“Where is the ghost?”
“I am waiting in the wilderness.”
“The beast is here.”
“Someone is here.”
“This is strange.”
“Who let you in the house?”
“Who is this guy?”
“Ask him to leave!”
“How long has this gone on?”
“I thought that I could finance this.”
“I felt as if I had been sidelined.”
“How are you at creating yourself?”
“Someone asks me to leave.”
“You get kicked off the island.”
“Why does that matter?”
“I am looking for a connection.”
“I need to get out of here.”
“This is not what it seems to be.”
“There will be a resolution.”
“We can stop living in shit.”
“Who is waiting for me?”

“You are closer than close.”
“You have already been suspended in space.”
“I want this to be simple.”
“He is waiting.”
“You were not supposed to contact me.”
“This is a warning.”
“These are all warnings.”
“Should we?”
“Which way?”
“Let me in.”
“Fuck it.”
“No one has it.”
“This is hopeless.”
“What are you making with your cleverness?”
“She dressed.”

“I am going back to the high chair.”
“I will finish.”
“I only need to get it.”
“This guy is another interruption.”
“I am not going to give him the time of day.”
“You are so good at this.”
“Later on, it seems as a waste.”
“I cannot do this anymore.”
“This will never be perfect.”
“I win the race.”
“Let us do another race.”
“You are infected.”
“This is nothing to worry about.”
“This is never going to happen.”
“I give so much of myself.”
“That is more than impossible.”
“I broke the mold.”
“It is time.”
“What kind of mold?”
“This is a Jello mold.”
“How does that happen?”
“Where is the host?”
“This is too complex.”
“You want it simple. Then you complain about the destructiveness of such a simple connection.”
“Where is the creativity?”
“I want more than a body.”

"Use the Jello mold."
 "There is nothing or me in this."
 "There is still time."
 "That makes no sense."
 "I do not feel shame."
 "Get the doughnut."
 "Let the guilt go,"
 "Why are my friends going along with this?"
 "She knows what we do not know."
 "We need to get the sound right."
 "The monster is living next door."
 "What do you have there?"
 "Who is leading you?"
 "Where are you being led?"
 "I do not eat doughnuts."
 "We could have made the machine work."
 "The cost is too much."
 "I need you to play the nurse for me?"
 "How does that work in the transformation of society?"
 "I need to find what is in there."
 "I cannot find solutions."
 "There are two different methods."
 "There was no cash left."
 "What kind of game is this?"
 "Who is watching?"
 "I see what I like."
 "I do what I like."

I was a reserved person. I did not like to share my emotions in public. I felt as if I was forced to be open. And I did not like how it felt."

"The last character can give me some soul."
 "I was traipsing around in this costume picked out by one of my friends."
 "There are no details."
 "It is a play date."
 "The body is so smooth."
 "Was it worth it?"
 "We could work harder."
 "Where did it start?"
 "There is too much noise."
 "I do not have a pet."
 "We all end up in the same place."
 "It is a breakfast journey."
 "What gets us started?"
 "I do not move."

“I do not move a bit.”

“I tell myself what I should say.”

“That is the beginning of world revolution.”

“You play a part.”

“Then it all seems hopeless.”

“This is not going to work.”

“We need it to work.”

“Where do we get we?”

“We all ace the same revolutionary moment.”

“I cannot do this job anymore.”

“You get another.”

“The boss is taking something from me, and I want to get it back.”

“The confrontation with Caramel.”

“He trying to get it right.”

“This one percent is off the scale.”

“That is way too close for me.”

“Eat quickly.”

“Think quickly.”

“I do not need it now. I only need it.”

Social change comes about when you feel that you are stuck, and you need to do something deep to get everything unstuck.

“I only need something to sleep.”

“Have the nuts!”

“We will be rescued.”

“I have an identity.”

“This is a little forever.”
