

MATTER PUT TO THE TEST

“You gave me this power. I could feel it dancing my soul. I was consumed. I touched every aspect of my being. I have felt this car before, provided me a deeper material confirmation of my understanding. I existed in the body. The body affirm my physical awareness. And this awareness provided the motivation for science. This enabled me to extend my vision beyond the immediacy of my experience. I could connect to other kinds of activity. I could become involved in movement. I could sense this long-term connection. This provided a basis for further reflection. With this understanding, I could obtain a knowledge of the universe. I was constructing an overall vision based upon this scientific inspiration. But I felt it in the power of the body. And you offered me contact with a lasting experience.”

“There was nothing else that mattered. This was everything to me. I relied upon your touch that you renewed me with your finger. This was a constant understanding. It was no interruption. There was no challenge to its ascendancy. I floated in the moment. I was pulled on put along by the power. Driven by the fury. Even after this explosion, the connection remained. Deep end.”

“I watched myself in this place. I was protected. I didn’t want to move. This was all part of my route. Even if I encountered challenges, I attained a clarity. You offered me that inside. You added to that sensation. I felt enlivened by these forces.”

My motivation became more intense. With nothing holding me back, I surrendered to the moment. I surrendered to the power. I wanted nothing else. You gave me everything that I needed in the moment. I was locked into the sensation. There was no other way to view myself. This navigated my nature. I was co-extensive with this realization. There was no lapse. There was no question it. It was all clear.

It couldn’t be any other way. I couldn’t explain this to someone else? How could I engage this feeling. I didn’t want to get distracted. I have something to take care of. It’s something important to solve. And I wanted a solution that would last. You were part of that inside. These were things that lead to a greater sense of being. I found the self in the habit.

Nothing else connected to me. This was an internal inevitable. I needed to make it more substantial. It was more than the solidity of the body. I was connected to a lasting belief. I would not subside. It was part of everything that I went through. I couldn’t let it go.”

I could feel this power touch me. It was everlasting. What could that possibly mean? I was existing in the present. I had a recollection of my past experience. I could use that understanding itself. How long could I expect it? If it lasted in a consistent manner, I would be part of this everlasting experience. We continued as long as I had vitality. In a sense I was connecting one form of vitality to another. I was connecting one form of power to another. It was something that affected me constantly. How was I able to do that?

I needed to be in contact with some form of material evidence that would provide for my understanding. This knowledge was based on direct physical contact. But I could generalize from this contact. Even more, that physical contact with a self evident process of awareness. That process of awareness revolved over time. Some people craved the foundation of this understanding. I was totally rooted in this evolving consciousness. As such, I was also connected to an evolving world. I realized the dangers of this expectation.

I could align myself with short term changes, and I would believe that they wanted something bigger. I realized that it wasn't always the case. My beliefs take me in the wrong direction. I could lose my focus. Self. In a sense, the nonsensical added to my life. This made me think that there was greater occasion. But it's self. I was lost in these influences. I gave myself to the moment. Or deeply immersed in my delusion.

You were my delusion. You were my everything my everlasting. You were right now and forever. I reached for you. I tried to hold on. I didn't want to surrender to this connection. I needed language to express what was going on? Did you have the language to respond? If the physical world made you stronger, where did I take you? What else was available in your immediate vicinity. How could this be a form of education? I wanted you to guide me. I had undergone this education.

The universe swirled. I immersed myself in this mania.

How could I protect myself? I needed to do something definitive. Did I need to ground myself in the physical world? I was building on my resources I was developing a clear understanding of the world around me. Dragging me down. I wasn't sure what it was. Hesitant? Did I need to do something important? I looked at my options. My influences. I needed to find a way to make this a go. I didn't have enough to work with. I was winning in the short term. But was disaster waiting.

What could I ask you? What did you know? How could I develop a clear understanding, you're going to clear out.? All these questions. I didn't understand what I had to do to make it happen. This awareness needed to be rooted in the body. I was fortifying the body. Are you fortifying the body? What was your version of health? How was it improving? What was it disrupting? How can I avoid illusions? Was it all a matter of knowledge? Did I know some thing that no one else knew? How could I share that knowledge? Could I come out better Could I move forward? I needed you to catch me. But what if there was no love in me?

"You're part of this mess. You're all over. You're everywhere. You're part of this mess. I can't stop. I can never stop. What do I have here? I need to remember that feeling. I needed to remember it for a long time. Here it is. You feel it with me. There's no room for mistakes. Are you there to rescue me? Are you here to give me some thing that I need? What are the benefits of this? I need to carry-on? I need you to offer me guidance. I'm being pulled back and forth. Where am I headed? What can you learn from all these questions? Do you have an answer? Do you understand? What do you need me to tell you question? Is this to do everything that you need? There's another side of the performance. We need better lighting. We need to get her in fighting. We are moving from different sides of the wall. We need to finish one thing quickly. This will change your life. This will change our lives."

"I don't even know what you're talking about. Swing at it. Touch it. Know it. Claim it.. Go beyond it. What are you tracking? Have you been following all this? I felt that I could tell you some thing. I never told anyone before. I thought that I could tell you something important. Do you have a means to interpret. Requirement? Do you have the resources to retain an image in your environment? What could any of this mean?"

"How did I lose my directions again? I'm getting distracted. We're all losing our way. This is some thing I want to taste. This is something I want to know. I was being offered a shot. Show?"

"I knew all this, but it was an adult board back-and-forth what is distractions I was dying as I was leaving. I was not supposed to be like. Another one I'll transcendence. Can I open that door all your art does. Doesn't help you to say. It doesn't help you to know. You only see what confirms your delusion. I don't want to go alone. Been part of it. You're not leading me anymore. You're not helping me to see. We could reimaged. What would it take principles. You need to repeat them to yourself. This will lead to a more profound understanding. I understand what I'm talking to you about? This can help if you have the confidence. Are you an imaginary person? None of this matters."

"I'll deal with it. What is the matter, baby? Oh dear, what is matter? I'm giving you a lot of matter. It's are there a particle or a wave? Honestly, are you serious I go in one door and out the other. Sometimes you make such an effort for short media positions. Once you've done though, you dismiss all contrary ideas. Really, he's going to see this? What are you going to do when you get off. You'll need more fun."

He was given a test. He will be in some business, a great success. His test also became a standard form for financial transactions. That was funny. He was able to build upon this interaction. These developments helped to enhance his personal vision. You liked him. He didn't answer the right questions. Given you the right answers. He had given the right answers. He would continue to offer the same viewpoint. Sometimes he would get tired of this. It was a double standard. But he could continue with us out there. He would go off of this song. Making offers himself. He would expect you to be there when he needed you. Knock, knock, knock!

You were an alarm. He loved it that way. It was the only way to do it. He got answers when he wanted them. You didn't get any answers when you needed them. That's how it went. And he loved it. Because he had given you the right answers at the right time. After that, nothing else made a difference. This was your new family. This was your new world. This is a new way of relating to reality. This was your breath. This is your dying breath. We gave it to her for the ticket. He made nothing of it. It was almost as if he expected others to follow you. He just one person in a long line. Check in. Check out. Give me a meal. Swallow it.

It tastes good. Make the dog bark. That's so lovely. I'll do it again and again. I'll give me one. I'll take another test. How did I do in this one? Over and over again, how do they do this one? Over and over again, this morning, how do I do this morning? How did I do in all of this you're lovely. At this moment, you're more than welcome to. Put on this dress. Do a little dance. Say you love me. I'll go off somewhere when I talk with my buddies. Go off somewhere where I make the real plans for life. Then I'll find a cave, and I'll fill you in there. Would like that? I know it's going. I've been saving all this for you. Your pictures of me. Look at me. I look wonderful. I went to the gym. I'm in shape."

"Answer his questions. I have enough money. I'll pay for you as time. How is your ice cream. I'll buy you a smile. I'll buy everything I need what you need. I buy children. I'll buy a diamond ring. We can sell it. We can make more on the market you can find loads of things we can share. This is all part of how we live this is how we live and die. It's the only thing that matters to us. No one really cares. No one is listening. This is your life. This is your letter. Is your book. This is your universe."

“No one is listening this is your fun. This is your Unfun. This is your pleasure. This is your love. You’re moving without moving. Do you think this looks cute? Do you think it’s that fun? I have sacrificed an animal. I sacrifice myself. I need to look at this. I look like this all day. I rolled in the mud. It was a form of duress. It was a routine. It was a ride. All right all right. Do I understand? I’m not hearing this. No one’s answering this. I stare into the distance. There’s nothing to see. There’s nothing out every state. There’s nothing I want to say. Look at me. You’re wonderful. Don’t move away.”

“Stay with me. I took a test. I passed the test. Halima, who is this guy? Halima, who is this guy? Halima, who is this guy? Why do you keep changing on me?”

“I don’t even know who you are anymore. I don’t know who any of these people are. I need to leave you. You took the pictures. You made me look happy. I look happy. You made me look wonderful. Who made me like this. You made me. I don’t want to be made like this anymore.

“You have the skills to affect how other people think about themselves. You look good. You say the right things are right. You’re not too deep. You are intelligent. You’re provocative in your own way. You can get tasks done. You have great technical knowledge. Do you have a crew? Focus. Do you have a plan. You show great attitude. You know how to follow instructions. Is there anything else to worry about? I’ll bring you on board. We’ll start you out with a couple of candidates. If you can work with those candidates, I’ll put you in the field. You can record. You can find it always.”

“You can get them to follow schemes this morning. Thing to worry about. You are in the world. Go to people. Do you know how to destroy? You know how to pick up the pieces. He’s definitely company man. We have a company woman for you. You’re going to enjoy working for us.. You can benefit us.. Just show them what those benefits are. Keep talking. We have to give us a time. Do you have to be away from the worry about it. Will take care of it all for you?

“You look like you have the right number. A shape. It’s a place for you. Just hang in there. There’s no way to separate the two things. You see things the way that you want to see them. Your people are working with you. They’ll do what you want them to do. Do you have that skill? You have just enough charm. We can build on your charm. We can teach you other techniques. Invite others to help you. You can learn the invitation method. You can ask everyone to get involved. You could enjoy their involvement. You could say that’s wonderful. It’s the only thing that matters. I’ll hold hands. She’ll hold hands with you. It’s a special kind of love.”

“ When did this happen? You can’t open the store. You’ve got what you ordered. She’s waiting for you. She’s at the end of the gate. You don’t have a key. We’ve got a place inside for you. You can take this. It’ll help you forget who you are. It will help you remember who you are. It would do whatever you want to do beer. It will help you to stop worrying. Don’t let this affect you. Don’t listen let this effect anyone. How did I get here? This is ridiculous. How long do I have to stay here? I’ll sign you up. We have some other jobs for you.”

“ She’ll love that. She doesn’t care about anything else. You were invited just for that. You can build up on those skills. You can learn new skills. You’re the best at doing this. I want to teach you something. I want to teach others similar things. Where is this going? How long has this been going on for. You need to admit who are your enemies. Sometimes your friends can do silly things. They can really mess with your plans. Don't worry about it. Just feel good."

"The planes leaving soon. He's on it. He's waiting for you. He's waiting for you to kiss him. You can't stop. You were made this way. I love it this way. This is a form of blessing. This is a form of penance. Growth. It's a form of change. This is you. This is how you will always be. Do you love it? I love you too. We're all in this. We're all out of this. We're trying to get out of it. We're trying to stop it. We can't stop it. We invited you for one reason. And you're perfect."

"You're the perfect wife. Don't ask questions. Don't say anything. When you do say some thing, just say that you love it. Say that you love it all the time. Tell everybody that you love it. They're going to love it too. They're going to love it with you. Just couldn't be more wonderful. We're all feeling this way. We're all feeling better than we've ever felt before. I didn't know they were going to make this. We're going to make this every day. This is a repeating order. Your life is a repeating order. You're doing the same things over and over again. You don't mind. You'll do it again. You invite others to do it. It should be fantastic. If we get involved. I want to find a place. You'll find two places. You sit across from each other. This could go on forever. Why bother? Do you love it."

"Do you love everything about it. Do you think that you need it. Do you think that you want it? Don't you think? Don't you think? Don't you think? You don't think he's thinking for you, thanks so much, I think that you can do it, you're the one, you're the thinker, look at this guy, he's one of us, he passed the test, he's passing more tests, you're brilliant just say the right thing, just be the right person and you still can't figure out the puzzle. I'm sending puzzles to you, and you still can't figure out the puzzle. I mean you think you do."

"You dismiss it. You think that someone's chasing you. I think someone's laughing at you. Do you think that someone's laughing with you. One way to stop it.

"I have a legal document. I want you to quit messing with me. I want to see you in court. I want you to stay away from my lover. I want you to stay away from my wife. I want to stay away from my life. I can't go along with any of this. I see in the clouds. I see it in your eyes. It all trickles like a little stream, and the stream becomes a torrent, and the torrent becomes a current, and the current becomes a river, and I'm drowned in the river, and I'm taken down stream, and at the edge of the ocean to enter the universe, and I enter the energy flow and nothing happens, and I feel numb, and I do it again I do it again, someone else does it with me and we're both do it together."

"Why can't we stop, why can't we be better, why can't we grow. There's an answer here to figure it out, one of these days you're going to figure it out, and then you're going to say no way, why did I do that, why was my life like that, why did things happen to me, and this way that way. I can't let that happen again but it's happening over and over again. It's happening with other people. It's happened to people that you don't know. What's happening with people that you do now. Someone pass the test. Simon was promoted. Someone was demoted. You're here every day. You're not here ever. You're not here when I need you. You're here when I don't need you. You're always in the way. There's so many things I need to say. I'm getting ahead of myself. I do it all the time. It's the only thing that I care about."

"You're the only thing that I care about. He said that you're going to help other people. We can get good things. There are no good things. Do you realize how far we are from a simple thing? Do you realize how far we are from good things? Do you realize how far? Do you realize? I'm falling the top of the world. Halima, someone come get me. Halima, come get me? Don't change it on me. I got it right this time.

"Halima, come get me, Halima, come get me, Halima, come get me, Halima, come get me. That hurts. I need to stop. I need all the corrections to stop. I needed it to be as it was in the beginning. That is not creation; that is it. Happy accidents, that is so bad, that is such a bad universe, give me another, one provide me with alternatives, let me stop now. I was moving to the next stage. No one could help. No one could be honest. Ourselves. We're destroying our friends. And we have protocols. They're supposed to stop what's going on. Stop. I need your help. Page."

"Any idea where this is going. You really don't understand, do you? You have to think that I'm crazy. And I'm not. One day I'm going to say what needs to be said. I'm going to tell everybody what needs to be heard. No one's going to listen. So won't make any difference. I'm going to see it from the top of the world. You have everything I need. This is ridiculous. I don't even want to be here. You're a bunch of fucking clowns."

"Halima, who are these guys?"

"These are the friends of my husband. I can't explain any of this. I don't know how any of this got out of hand. I don't care about any of this. This has nothing to do with me. I thought it was my story. But it's someone else's story. And I'm not even invited. I'm not even involved. I don't even get to eat. Getting sloppy. You're messing with the dream who's going to help me work this out? Only one person understands."

"You are the person. Lover, do what you need. What is the entry fee? How much are you willing to spend? Sometimes I can make a deal. Sometimes I just need the money up front. Did you take the test? Which personality is yours? How are you willing to tap dance through life? When do you snip off the offending part? He can help with the test. He seen the booklet. He seen the answers. He's change the answers. He's made the answers work for him. He's made the answers work for himself. I'm on the road. I'm in the air. I'm coming down. I'm jumping up. Do you know what I'm doing? Do you know what you're doing? Do you know what anyone is doing?"

"How did this happen to me? You made the candy. You bet the apple. Do you want to believe that you know some thing that no one else knew? What do I know? What do I care about? Why can't this be better? It's not about the pressure. It's about the pain. It's not about the party. It's about the name. Do you know who this is? Is this guy your husband? What does he want?"

"Today is the beginning of the rest of my life. Where did you get that from? Where the fuck is he from? What does he want to know? Who is he working for? Is he deep cover?"

“That hurts me?. That hardly seems fair. Are you threatening me? Do you want to hurt me? This can’t go on forever. If you give it everything you have, then it will become everything that you could have. It’s nothing that you want. And there’s nothing that you ever want. I’m nothing like that. Do you know where I am? Do you know what’s going on? Do you know how this is going to end? It’s over before it has ever begun. What makes any of that stuff moved? It’s the noise.”

“I want it because it means nothing to me. I wanted because it’s nothing affect me in anyway. I want it because I don’t want it. That’s the best way of describing it. You can’t pay for it. It just comes upon you. And you don’t even want it. And you take it anyway. Do you want more than that. Where are the others going? How can you feel good about any of this?”

“You just do it over and over again. This time he’s going to be different. He’s given a name. They give him a name. He say that is important. He says that is important. It all seems right. You go along with it. You do it over and over again. I don’t make sense. You can do it again and again. Doesn’t make any difference. It could be with anybody. Just help me to understand. Just help me to make sense of it. Just tell me to pay for it. It’s going to be free. That’s ridiculous. That doesn’t matter. I want more of that. I’m going to clean it out. I’m going to make this right for you. Do I have to look at that? To clean it up? Give it another name. Did you pay for the ring? Did you pay for anything? I saw you. I don’t even know what I’d like to do this. I passed the test. Today is the day when everything is supposed to make sense. Here’s the book that you’re supposed to study if you want to pass the test.”

“Here are the answers you have to give if you want to pass the test. I don’t want someone pulling out my appendix when they’re supposed to take out my heart. Do you understand what that means? I was just going to make you feel? You need to start with animals. What are the animals say to you? What do you say to the animals? I know you want us to be perfect. It’s not going to work that way it’s going to be like this pretty much forever. I was on the verge. I found someone who could give me the answers.”

“Just give me the things that you need. Just give me cash. Just let me touch it. Just let me touch it. This is the only way it’s going to happen you can write it all off. You can write it all on. Right everywhere. These are a bunch of scribbles. This means something to me. This is my own language. I need you to follow me. I need you to help me out. I need you to teach me. There were three people here. One of them is me. One of them is you. And one of them is this guy.”

“ I am this guy. This is my story. Good, let’s see what you can do. You’re part of my head. You’re part of my mind. You can teach me things. You can tell me things. Let me know. That’s not going to help you. You made it all wrong.

How do you spell that way. I want to win, I want to lose, I want to find a way to do this right. I’m not going anywhere. I don’t want to think about this. I’ll pick up a couple of hours of my life. Then will be all done. You can’t do a miracle, I don’t want to deal with you. I thought that I would change. I put it in my soup. I closed the office. And I went home. You can do one thing. And the factory closes. I can still open, it’s giving you everything that you need.”

“How did I end up here? I am a bad person and I’m getting worse. Do not do that to me. Change. And do you have the power? Do you have the training? You made the justification in this world, the only justification that matters, that is the only thing you're allowed to do. That's all I'm going to make. I am leading the lambs to the slaughter. I need to lead the pack in the party. I don't want to get involved. I am involved in the measure of involvement. I'm late to the party. Why do you feel these questions are important? Resolve your future. Worse. I'm paying for a place where I live. I'm living a life that I don't want to be part of you can help me. It's just a big waste of time. Be honest. Do you want to fuck? You don't even know what you're supposed to do. You're hiding from yourself. That's all that matters. That's all that I care about."

"Really fucked, you are really fucked, I'm trying to focus here, but all of us. Ouch, ouch. Don't push me the far. That's some stupid fantasy. Nothing touches anything else. Statement of the mind. It makes no difference. It explains nothing. You can get it done for cheap. You can make it pass the test. 's. Walk in. When you're done. You take the test. You get the job. You get the job. He wanted it. Halima, do you know what's going on? The game. Can you like every minute of it. Or is it going to take you. And? I don't want to go on like this. You could pretend it was far. We can pretend a lot of things, but none of this works. All of it's fake. Or does it go on the end. We believe the story. Leave all the lies because they're incredible.

"Truths. Seven has a dog. Oranges. Someone has everything we want. And it's going to be fantastic. We're going to enjoy every minute of it. We're going to sleep through it. There's two houses. This house is yours. Don't come in. Everyone's afraid."

"That was not going to do me well."

"I need to review the test."

"Move all the money to this account."

"Move all the love to this account."

"Does this bother you too much."

"I can pay for this."

"I want the fun stuff."

"That does not affect you."

"This tastes great."

"Where does this come from?"

"I went in and out."

"You passed the test."

"You are too clean."

"What am I doing here?"

"I was in the dog house."

"What do you want to know?"

"Do you believe in money? Do you believe in power? Do you believe that your efforts will be rewarded do you believe in family? Do you believe that your family will be protected? Are you willing to protect your family? Do you know who your enemies are? Are you allegiant to the state? Do you deserve what you get? Are you skillful? For the rules? Are you obedient? Do you know what needs to be done? Are you ready to do it? Are you ready to sign in? You really give yourself? Does it still make any difference? Are you going to be part of it? Will you build upon it? Will you come in on time? Will you fill in all the right boxes? Will you feel at home? Will you hook yourself? Do you have a snack? Will you invite friends? We do happy things? We do sad things? Will you do what you're told? We will be the boss? You'll be yourself? Are you in on time? Are you in bed? Do you know what else to get done? Just going to take forever? Is your opinion valued? Others? Do you value others? Do you need help? Can you do this on your own? Are you self starter? You going to be in orders? Or so? Can you be industrious in crowds? Can you be useful at home? What are you doing? Can you write it down? Can you hide it? Can you think about it? Can you organize it? You have a minute? Can you quiet? Can you make it happen? Can you make it happen? Shoes? Can you untie your shoes? The entire night? And you get out of here? Can you get in here? Where do you go from here? What am I supposed to see? Or do I supposed to learn? Or did I feel tomorrow? Who's leading us? He's not leading this? Is it so beautiful? Why is it so beautiful? Why is this not well? Where is this leading? Why can't you stop? Why can't anyone stop? No one is ever going to be able to stop? Why do you have to go in there? This is impossible? Is this impossible? I can't do this? Help me with this? Stop me from this?"

"Can you stop me from this? Who's asking any questions? Who is the leader? Who is the follower? I need to get off the show? What do I have to say to get off the show?"

"I was ambitious. I wanted to succeed. She wanted me to succeed. I lived off that connection. She would help me advance. She would live according to the rules. I would follow the rules with her. I would create the rules. She fall the rules. I would add to the rules. These rules for best and reason. So you would you have my reasons. I was locked in. She was locked in. She like the way things were going. What was the motivation? Can you motivate me. Can you give me a jumpstart? Can you give me everything that I need?"

"We've examined your test results, and we're convinced that you're the perfect human. But you're going to have to do a lot of work if you think to stay in the program. The test is only a beginning. It really doesn't give you bragging rights and the material that you've learned should be the foundation for your actions. You can implement these policies, and this can enable your future advancement. This advancement will be the foundation for your relationship with your corporate wife. We have assigned someone to you, and she agrees with this assignment. In a sense, this seems ideal. You both get what you want it. She gets an answer. And you get a question. It's going to take care of everything. You can't get rid of these thoughts. They were being with you. I'm trying too hard. You're eliminating a fundamental truth. Can you go along with something, it goes along with you. Where does this go? Exactly with us, in the mindset. What is that? What is taken away? Do you need to be able to answer all these questions. Your relationship is based upon this understanding. Do you know what you have. She knows when you have. We both know what you can share with each other. Everything else is greater than nothing. Everything else is real. There's no other way to think about this. That's why you were hired. That's why you were brought up for the team. You'll just have to wait until your time. What's your complaint? Do you know how the machine works. You learn the keywords. Accepted the burden. You understand the connection. It's nothing to worry about. This is who you are. That's what you'll always be. You get part of yourself. And you get some thing back. It's a trade-off. You accept it. You embrace the terms. It's part of your nature. As part of the growth plan."

"He starts here. And you end up here. There's nothing in between. It's a bad day. It's a time for sharing. It's a time to be ridiculous. Yet. Have to pay for the house. Enough to pay for the taxes. Enough to pay for the car. If the kids. What more could you want? What more could you ever want? There's nothing more in the tank."

"Awesome. You don't move. You don't send it at all. Seems okay. And the craziness starts again and you wondered how you got in this. You're looking for a way out. Read it down. Let the shit get in your head. You're working for us. You're giving us what you need. And your wife will accept that. Do you have any questions about the business? Do you have any questions about the machine? Do you have any questions about yourself? This might seem as if it's out of control. But you're the one with all the answers. You're the one ready to contribute. You're the one who they're looking for."

"Thank your blessings, thanks to everything you've ever done for us. You're a prime candidate. We can't let you go yet. There's a few things that you need to know. If she starts to doubt that you're the one, don't make a fuss. Your emotions are too vibrant, it's going to crumb the place. You need to make this work. You need to make it work every time. There's a safety valve. There are alternatives. But if you get caught up in the machine, she's going to see what's going on, and she's going to jump. You don't want her to jump. Do you want her to stay with you until the end?"

"If you see something that you don't like, tell us. Don't complain! Don't tell anyone else! This is how we work. We know what we need to do. And we leave it at that. This couldn't be any easier for us. We've cleaned up the mess. Now it's your turn. Do I have to listen to this? Move a little faster! Learn the lessons! Don't get caught up in your personal problems! Don't do something that someone else would do. Make yourself an original! Do you understand this. You feel as if you're being destroyed, but you understand us. You put all the pieces in place, and you get the work done. That is how it works. That is how you work. You need better parts."

"You need a better arrangement. You need to understand yourself better. This is part of the growth of the growth process. This is part of the program. You signed up for this. She loves you because you signed up for this. Do you have any questions about this? You shouldn't. You should know everything. That's why you we chose you. You have the smarts. You're going to get this done. You going to tell others about it. And they're going to love you. Everybody's going to love you. That will be the end. There will be nothing more. That will be the end. And it will all be clear."

She started to wonder if this was what she truly wanted she had been at enticed by these invitations. But things got out of control.

"And the only way that they could change was if people made an active effort to improve the situation has helped you to last a little longer. The cure for success. Period in an able due to live with your discomfort. And you felt betrayed. None of this is going to matter. It doesn't do anything. It doesn't affect anyone. So that's happening. Create followers. Why are you destroying this? What are you getting in my head? All of this is clear. I can make sense of this from now. I need a long-term solution. I need something that can guide me through the worst. There's something important missing her. You don't have a job. Period. This hurts too much to think about. We have only one thing on the calendar. You need to take care of it. You know what that means."

“I didn’t choose him; he chose me. I found that exciting. What was the promise? You could help me with all my dreams. I didn’t want to seem to ambitious. I wasn’t depending on him to give me a wife. But I had enough unanswered questions, and he could offer good answers. This would help my growth. I could develop more confidence about myself. I could spend time working on the things that were important. I would no longer get distracted by silly face this women hands my self-confidence. It will enable me to take calculated risks. With this, I can finally attain the independence that I craved. I would no longer be depending on finalizing my past. I could create a more realistic relationship with my family. I could build on my own plans for the future. He was that kind of guy.”

“At first, I might’ve had my doubts. It’s too obvious. For me. I needed to give it all the credibility that it deserved. Indeed a part of my development. I knew they were challenges. I kept doubting myself. I couldn’t trust my success. He offered me reassurance.”

“There are still moments when we try to work through our disagreements. But I really thought nothing of this. I’m sure that I was sure this would all be temporary I could trust him. It would make me a better person. I would feel mature. Finally begin my adult life. I thought is it as if I was looking at someone’s résumé. I looked up and down. I try to find some errors. What was a really saying? It’s fake? Is he showing me the real thing? My questions became more extreme overtime they built. The attain solidity. He emerge from the shadows. I was full of constant wonder. That was all that mattered. I found an amazing. but I could needed to be sure about a lasting course. I wasn’t relying on him for everything. He simply provided another outlook for me. I am braced this invitation. And it wasn’t just the words. It was the reality that he shared. And I welcomed this opportunity. All along, I was getting better. And I had dealt with interminable crises I thought paralyzed. All of that was behind me.”

“When you influence somebody, you need to find a way to get in her head. You need to find what are her weaknesses. You can even make yourself look weak. That way you will be more sympathetic. She will think that she’s in control. Just say what she wants to hear. Purge her way of thinking. That’ll only make you more vulnerable. It will show your weaknesses. All the while you were the one who’s controlling the narrative. You help her to say every time.”

“You’re reinforcing perspective. It’s all part of your development. You need to control the organization taught you the skills. You’ve been sent out in the world to advance these principles. Without the sudden outlook, the world remains in flux. We bring solidity and structure. We offer those things that are absent in the present world. This puts you in an ideal position. You’re a true leader. You could tell people what they need to hear. They will respond in a friendly way. They will consider your ideas. They will ask them out. You have nothing to worry about.”

“What are you saving for? What are you wasting? What is the matter? You’ve got this in tow. It’s all about you. It’s all about your ideas. You’re going exactly where you need to go. There’s a deeper reason for all of us. But it’s all going to make sense. You put all the pieces in place. You find those to work with. You do needs to get things done. You move on. You move backwards move all around. You realize that it’s all about you. You realize it has nothing to do with you. You get sick in public. Become better. You find sympathy.”

“You lead the way. You’ve got this. It’s your show. Formants. Just make it good. That’s all. You’re one of her best graduates. Just keep on. That’s all that matters. You keep the regime in working order. Amen! Amen! Thanks again.”

“How long is this going to take? I have some ideas. We can make our life here. We can hide out from the authorities. This can be to get at beginning of something important. Do you have a social conscience? Do you love this? Who is watching us? I saw that I left. I’m in a hurry. I’m not going to take all my time doing this this is perfect for me. And you find this moving along. Stand with these things. This is a little bit of perfection. Nobody’s perfect.

“Perfection is a social construct. You need to be perfect to become part of this group. Take the test. This is way beyond my understanding and a little perfect. It makes this happen? Or they found you? What are we eating? We’re going places. Just giving friends. That’s a blessing. You’re successful. You’re afraid of doing this, and it was going to come down the same thing. Flesh and bone. And stone. Heart and soul. Don’t let it bother you. I never does it just affect the world this is too big for me. Getting too close. I never knew you’d be here. I sustains me. This is more than enough. I have the rice dish! Have the couscous!”

“It’s all about human consciousness I’ve been replaced. It’s in the way? We’re supposed to finish this right. We’re supposed to get closer. We’re closer than we were could be. But there still something missing. What’s needed? We need a good quote faster at this. How do you make that happen. How did you get the costume change? How did you get in here? It’s a way to escape. There’s a way not to escape. I love this. This is a little strange this is frightening what was the score? We can work together. There’s an interruption. I think I put 11 together I figured lol that’s perfect for me I just want something that’s in the mail this is too close for me. Don’t move! I see what I’m supposed to say. I’m a little nervous. I got what I wanted.”

“This will be our new life, and it will never end.”

“What would an ending look like.”

“Stare me in the eyes.”

“It is not that kind of story.”
