

PROOF THEORY

“How did you realize that you would be good at proof theory?”

“I could feel it in the soul.”

“There are multiple point of entry.”

“Will those, who are guilty, ever admit to what they have done? They have numerous excuses. Their own personal issues. Their allegiance to the state. Their personal challenges. Their perpetual childhood.”

“Will you love me if you see me elsewhere?”

“I will take the money.”

“I will help lead you to the Promised Land.”

“I want to know what is the promise.”

“You are going to risk everything that you have.”

“You are going to have everything that you risk.”

“I am pretending.”

“This describes the actions of the state.”

“Which state?”

“The state of Maryland.”

“The United States of Put All Your Eggs in One Basket.”

“This is not the blueprint for the future.”

“I am from the river.

“I am from the source.”

“The river delta of humanity.”

“There is another place.”

“The Zambezi.”

“The Tigris.”

“This is going to get involved.”

“The children will do it to the adults.”

“Do you even know?”

“I only want a little part.”

“I want the edible part.”

“You made a quick exit.”

“That may work.”

“I have a letter for you.”

“I want to get to Room C.”

“They have mansions.”

“They have secret passages.”

“The secret room.”

“A secret life.”

“A secret universe.”

“What are the two of you doing?”

"We are holding hands."

"Your hands will create a different arrangement."

"You are going to have to proceed even further down the corridor."

"Are you going inside?"

"Where are they hiding?"

"You cannot hide."

"I cannot explain it to you. You need to live it."

"I have discovered a theory."

"You need to clean up."

"I am a clean proof."

"Where do we start?"

"Some people try to start with the bones."

"That is not going to work."

"How did I end up here?"

"I didn't want to move."

"There are so many things to do."

"That will be hilarious."

"HA! HA!"

The bones were not going to work. We needed a different architecture."

"I will take it."

"You are all part of the shit. You do not see that is where it all hurts."

"There is a cluster of receptors."

"They could say something else."

"You think that you control the ground."

"We are part of the other side."

"You had one chance to destroy the madness."

"I want them all in a prison cell. That was the beginning of the conversation."

"I am one who is going to win."

"Have we regressed?"

"I am talking with you."

"This could be our last conversation. They are listening."

"They should hold their tongue."

"I am the source of the contagion."

"This is an idea whose time has not yet come."

"I have a belief."

"It will take a long time to get to that point."

"I could deal with it."

"I cannot."

"And you are going along."

"This all meant something else to you."

"I need to get so far beyond this."

"I have been pushed to this point."
"I stripped away all the extraneous parts."
"That is how you manage the proof."
"You consider the force."
"Everything is not moving in the same direction."
"I am looking at the tea leaves."
"Who is paying me?"
"If it doesn't come, then it goes."
"If it doesn't go, then it goes nowhere."
"That is totally brilliant."
"Thanks."
"I am giving blood."
"Who else is giving?"
"This is a center for regeneration."
"I am never going to get what I need."
"You need a different body."
"You need more bones."
"This is not an arithmetical progression."
"This is a fanatical progression."
"I remember what you did in another life."
"You showed up."
"The clouds said this."
"And the constellations affirmed."
"All that went away."
"You went away."
"I realized what you cared about."
"Human creativity."
"Insanity."
"Will this be something that I really want?"
"This is theater not science. People cannot abandon their alliances."
"I understand the personalities."
"This time is through; we need to get what is necessary."
"You need a different identity."
"I am being watched."
"They do not care one iota what you are doing."
"They are caring."
"How does that work?"
"Immunity."
"Immunity from protection."
"I am free."
"I am the last human being."

"You do not understand any of this."

"I am not working with the same proof theory."

"You need to stand next to each other holding hands."

"They live off of the continuity of human history. All they do is erase. They create gaps everywhere. They take away things that should be there."

"I am getting closer."

"I am closed in."

"I want to be part of this."

"You can tell me what you need to know."

"Nothing."

"A break."

"A kit."

"A big break."

"Anyone can do this."

"You are working on something massively big."

"I have something big in tow."

"Listen to what I have to say."

"I am paying with American money."

"That has limited historical value."

"Do you have a mystical currency?"

"This will not last."

"They have something else to say."

"Before the ghosts."

"This is aggressive."

"You have erased all of your crimes."

"That is how we make things happen."

"We need straight lines."

"That was way beyond beyond."

"BEYOND!"

"I need a meeting with the Director."

"The Director will not agree to see you."

"I need to hold here."

"That is not going to succeed."

"You are waiting too long."

"There is too much noise."

"I need purity."

"That means getting rid of social arrangements that keep the structure in place."

"What are you talking about?"

"What keeps you jacked up?"

"I drink my own blood."

"Seriously?"

"I am not trying to explain some kind of theoretical bull shit."
"This is where gods go to die."
"More Eternal Return bull shit."
"You had a moment."
"They all did."
"I am waiting for you."
"I arrived early."
"What are you looking for?"
"This is a marriage of two things."
"On and off."
"I could do it that way. I will not."
"You will be part of this."
"He will take care of it."
"Don't laugh."
"That is going to take us to the next stage."
"And what is that?"
"Kittens."
"These small animals are flying under the radar."
"They are trained."
"They are divine."
"Where does that come from?"
"Respect."
"They are all evil together."
"They will destory the world in one fell swoop."
"Save part for me."
"You can have the sand."
"I am looking at the numbers."
"Are you on here."
 {"We are getting close to finishing this proof. This is not the proof that we wanted to complete. We only want to demonstrate that this can be done."}
"How can I win at this?"
"You need to be totally present."
"How does that present work."
"I heard about it."
"I have heard other things."
"The kittens meowed."
"This is not that story."
"That is not earth-shattering."
"I wanted to help you."
"This is one of the most important things that I have ever heard."
"That will take me over the hump."

“What will I be left with?”
“I need to stop you before you do it.”
“You have fifteen minutes.”
“You have three minutes.”
“I do not have a better explanation.”
“This represents an increase in energy.”
“This is an increase in belief.”
“Where does this go?”
“Where does this end up?”
“I could not do this.”
“Practice.”
“I like how this is going.”
“Who are you working for?”
“A secret agency.”
“They describe secrets, which do nothing to damage their relationship to the present world.”
“Do you have a different ID?”
“I have governmental ID.”
“He told me not to worry about it.”
“He was working with customs.”
“That is why they have borders.”
“What are they doing for you?”
“You will do well.”
“You will do well to say nothing,”
“That is all that I need to know.”
“That is all that I never need to know.”
“There is a messenger.”
“They kill the messenger.”
“I am going to give you everything that you need.”
“I can pay your price.”
“This is cheap.”
“I can deliver.”
“We need to complete this while there is time.”
“Do not let the time run out.”
“They called me.”
“They called me.”
“They called all of us.”
“I could make notes.”
“I need another character witness.”
“There are not going to be enough witnesses that can attest to your character.”
“And you think that you have arrived.”

"I have arrived."

"There were too many distractions to complete what was necessary to tell this story."

"What were you doing before?"

"Real work."

"Just in time."

"Just in case."

"This is case law."

"This is going to be solved before you know it."

"Then I will have to go."

"Why is this not telling me what I want to know?"

"I am going to write it."

"I hear it in a different way."

"I will make this right for you."

"There are not enough alternatives."

"What are you starting with?"

"It is more complex than that."

"I needed to dip in my baby's funds."

"I want to go into the secret room."

"YOU HAVE NOT BEEN INVITED."

"They will try to create their own."

"Do you want to come in now?"

"I could use your help with a serious legal matter."

"What does it involve?"

"Excitement. Constant excitement."

"I am dealing with soe much crazy shit."

"I have the facsimile."

"Do you want to keep going?"

"Are you too tired?"

"I am too tired to make a difference."

"You can catch up on another day."

"This needs to be completed."

"You have everything needed."

"I think that I need more."

"I was looking at a deficit."

"We are all there for you."

"We need to reveiw the options."

"What do you have there?"

"There is a better option."

"That is wonderful."

"Where else can you be?"

"Saving money."

"You are not going to go down."

"Who is the assassin?"

"He fell asleep."

"There are accidents."

"I am fated."

"Are you going along with this?"

"My family will not let me."

I wanted to describe all the details of the family story. You would never get what you wanted.

"I am much closer than you think."

"I do not see it like this."

"I see it very differently."

"Does he carry identification?"

"We would ask you questions, but you have special clearance."

"We would clear you, but we need to ask you a few questions."

"History does not work like this."

"Reality does not work like this."

"I need to make one thing happen."

"The trip."

"Where do we start?"

"I had a budget."

"I need to stay on my toes."

"Do not say the wrong thing."

"This is torture."

"I am too good at absorbing the truth."

"Who has been movingt at this speed?"

"There are impediments."

"That is where I got my name."

"When will you admit to your crimes?"

"When you admit to yours."

"We need to go skiing."

"We need to go to the beach."

"And that is the end of history."

"Kiss me!"

"The sharks got us."

"We are the sharks."

"We are the sharks."

"You can stop now!"

"You can love now."

"You know shit. What are you like this?"

"Do you have wha you really need?"

"These are completely different things."
"Give me everything that you have."
"I am not supposed to betray anyone."
"That was the ultimate."
"It stopped being so good."
"I am not going to move."
"Do you appreciate what is happeninng?"
"Why did they cross over?"
"They were already on watch."
"Who were they looking at?"
"This was all for you."
"Go to the next level."
"I know nothing of this."
"We cannot go back to the same place."
"All this is obvious."
"This is more than I can know."
"All lost time."
"Who was your friend?"
"I will not get any of this back."
"I am much better than this."
"BOOK IT!"
"Was this offensive?"
"There is some sacred stuff up there."
"This is now so different."
"When will it be different?"
"I need to boil it down."
"This is a waste of love."
"I want all of that."
"We need a casting director."
"Someone else is watching this."
"The money people."
"The ones with the silver."
"I am going to need a differnt cast."
"I am on the verge."
"This is almost time for confession.""
"Will you chase?"
"I am the chase."
"You need clearance."
"I am right there."
"You can help me."
"You tell me."

“What are you doing when you are not doing this?”
“What are you waiting for?”
“I need to be waived through.”
“That is not going to help.”
“Do I have to look at this.”
“Find a solution.”
“This will take a short period of time.”
“She promised to pay.”
“I need to learn.”
“I only want to look.”
“There is one thing that you cannot do.”
“We do not have what we need.”
“They are moving faster than I can follow.”
“They are not going to make the curve.”
“That is ridiculous.”
“They should have another room for clearing candidates.”
“They do.”
“This guy. He gets through.”
“What is his method?”
“He has a compartment in his suitcase.
“Everyone knows that.”
“There is another side.”
“What is in there?”
“That is not where he hides the real shit.”
“You are waved through.”
“Can you get it together?”
“I have it all together.”
“You can do this a millions different ways.”
“I want to take a sip.”
“I made the cut.”
“You will finish it.”
“I can help.”
“What do you do?”
“I make laws.”
“Who enforces them?”
“The Director.”
“This is another country.”
“You can have whatever you want.”
“We have investigated you.”
“I was part of the story.”
“Which part?”

"The good part."
"What happened?"
"We all smiled."
"You can put everything on this."
"There is a theory."
"Proof theory."
"They do things with cotton."
"They will not understand."
"That is beyond me."
"Let it go beyond."
"It will freeze solid."
"It does not get that cold here."
"There is miracle."
"Something wonderful happened."
"The miracle of the loaves and the fishes."
"They want to help."
"Where is this headed?"
"People learn things."
"I want to get messed up."
"You have the tools."
"I do not want to admit to that."
"I gave you the chance."
"It turns out to be a beach game."
"I am not dressed for this conflict."
"This is not going to work."
"I will take it for now."
"You are not going to leave any of this."
"You are on a different wavelength."
"That is way too much for me."
"I thought that you could make it change in one night."
"You are going to have to do a lot more than that."
"I changed all the pictures in your book."
"You need to do more than that."
"It looks better and better with every minute."
"I know what you like."
"I like what moves."
"I get it."
"Tell me more than that."
"I do not need to clear it with customs."
"Who are you?"
"This is not a fight that I want to get into."

"This is not that important."

"I can't let that get any more out of control."

"Just do it."

"Done and done."

"How long would it take to transform that?"

"There is not enough there."

"Playtime and proof time."

"You are never going to prove anything to anyone."

"This is a twenty day plan."

"This is a million day plan."

"Say it like it is."

"I am losing what I want."

"What did you do to stop it?"

"I was in border control."

"How did that help?"

"You were searching."

"How did this occur?"

"We went one way, and they went another."

"Is the world listening? They pulled me in the office. They want to ask me a few questions. I was willing to talk. When I'm going to be able to figure out the problem? I would like representation. I don't want to talk to you without some form of representation. How should we start? I did nothing wrong. I'm only here to see my peace. I know that there are a lot of fucked up things. That's really what we have to live with these days. I didn't want it to be that way. I created a monster. I have nothing to do with this. If you wanna make claims in my life, do it! I don't mess with me. I have enough problems to deal with. I wondered what was happening to me. They made us this way. And we didn't live this way forever. What happened next? Who is running the show? That happened much later. Those things just disappeared on us. You took away what we needed? Why did it all end up? What did you wanna see?"

"Who did you want to know? Who is guiding you? You're looking for people just like you. Those who make it make it well. That was you don't make it fall by the wayside. Do they still have a dream? What happens when they blow their minds out? They're still hanging around. They're still trying to get everything down. What do you see in your mind saw it? What are you seeing your blind eye? Who is doing this to you? Who's not doing this? Do you need guidance? You're going back-and-forth. Don't get too close! Are you going to hold me here much longer? I said everything that you wanna hear. I've told you all these things. I think nothing makes any difference does it? It's just like you've been hell in the cell and they told you that he did something wrong. And you're convinced that it's all propaganda. And you're living under a propaganda machine. And you're gonna take the money. I need to take more money."

"Even to hold your breath. I'm going to make sure that everything is in place. You're going to put all the pieces in place. It's the best that you can do. It helps you put everything into place. You're working night and day. You're getting closer to a resolution. I made one mistake. I made two mistakes. There are things that I need to say. I need to take a shower. You're keeping me in here. I just want to get out. You're keeping me in this holding cell. What do you want me to tell you. I was tired of trying to take things across the border. That I had something in my bag. I was told that it would be okay.

"Who taught you? Someone who is very familiar with the law. Someone who has connections. I want to be with people who have connections I want to hang out with people who make the law.

"I want to make the law with them. I want to help them make the law. I'm going be the law. I am the law. My body is a life. This is the law. This is all that matters. I am hanging here. Forever, stay with me on this. I am hanging here until nothing matters. I'm so close to some thing that I want. I'm closing in on something that I want. I'm connecting. This is not what I'm about. I'm not looking for this."

"I'm not building on this. I'm getting too close to some thing. It's going to rub off on me. Then I'm going to have to confess. And that's when it's gonna really hurt. That's gonna that's when I'm gonna get what I really want. It's going to be nothing. I'm going do this over and over again. That's why it's such a mess. That's why I'm such a mess. That's why this office is such a mess. Do you think that you have things on people? You have loads and loads of files. Behind those files you have loads and loads of files. But none of it matters. None of it makes a difference. There was a time before time. And they did that then. And they do this now."

"How long is this supposed to last? How long do you want me to be part of this? This is mystical. This is magical. I can balance on the head of a pin. I can stop on a dime. These are different ways of seeing the same thing. Theories are different things. None of it makes any difference. I woke up one day. I woke up one day. And it wasn't the same. Nothing was the same. I'm gonna go down again this time. The sad thing about it all, is that I can't say some thing. I need to stop this from happening. I need to stop all of you from happening. You don't think anything is wrong. I have to admit in this case, they are all right. They got all the points right."

"This is just a mishmash. Do you think you're trying to stop things? How are you gonna do this? Is there one sentence that you heard that is going to offer a clear understanding of what is going on? How could someone get so many things wrong, and just see one thing is right? It's the stopped clock syndrome. This is the way that it works a clock that is stopped is right twice a day. In a deeper sense, the clock is right because it says that there are twenty-four hours in a day. And we will look at it and interpret it as describing what's going on in our world."

"Our sense of time is based on this understanding. We think that we have discovered it. We believe that we have discovered who we are in. Time means that we can exist outside of time. We can do some thing that has nothing to do with what we have done in the same time before. When you look at a plant, you can see it's time clock. And it continues to act in the same way every day. It might respond to the sun. Responds to daylight and nighttime."

"You have a watch. You can show up for work. You can make it on time for school.

However, one day you can decide that you're going to do something different from the same time yesterday. That is your understanding of time. Go to it. Make it happen. You're charting out your day. You're telling yourself it's going to go on for the rest of the time. That's why you have this down so well. You have this down so well because you've done it like this before. And you'll do it like this again. You'll go down the same road. You'll go down a different road."

"That's why you called a road. Are you going to let me leave now? What else do you wanna know? Tired of creepiness. But he only sees the creepiness that's outside. You don't see the creepiness it's getting close to you. And the creepers are all there. They are your friends. I hope you make the connection. I hope you cross the road. They help you cross the boundary. They help you cross the border. I'm trying to set boundaries. Not respecting them. They're trying to set boundaries, and you're not respecting them. What do you have for me? Why do they stay here this long?"

"I was almost had a solution. I needed to listen to this. I got what I wanted. It took me all the way. He finished me off. He went in my story. I wasn't looking for this. This was the closest that I had been to anything like this. This could've worked out. You could've told me some thing. I could've arrived. I could've put it all into place. I'm not this person. I want your soul. You need to be stopped. All this bullshit needs to be ended. All this fiddle-faddle. You can't get deep, so you don't know."

"We're splashing around on the surface. There's no risk here. You have the five senses. And you're using all of them. But nothing is directed towards anything. It's all this long performance. This isn't going to stop anything. This is our pet project. This is our bake sale. Who's making the cookies? Think the right question. That is the whole question and this is no different than what you accuse others of doing. It's just another performative. These aren't people or listen to by anybody. They only add Venere to another level of oppression. And I think that's a mistake."

"Overall, I'm convinced that it's a mistake. You pretend that you're agreeing with me. But you have your own theories that are full of nonsense. And you've come around to this other point of you. You all have. The only thing that makes any difference as what we're all doing together. There's that one moment when you say no more. There's nothing more to say. Can you look it's really behind it? And you ask yourself how can you go ride it a different way. Why did I get to this point. Took me in this direction? How did I get this far in? When I'm getting this far out."

"I do have any questions that you want to ask me. You've kept me here for a long time. And you think that I'm gonna stay here longer. I want nothing to do with any of this. I want a solution. I want to reason. I wanna know more. How did this get in the water? How did this get in my life? How did this get in my body? Why is my body part of the story.? I can never get to a point that I care about anything. It doesn't seem as if he's going to move anymore. How did he get like that? What did he eat? How was he sleeping?"

"That's no way to end. I don't want to end like that. Someone should clean it off. There's still a lot but I have to do. There's so much that remains and finished. This is no reason to think like that. You can have whatever you want. Just let me be. You can go. You have to promise to sin no more. You have to promise to eat no more. We'd like you to make some other promises. We want you to guide us. There's hope. You're gonna have to get that to me right away. You can help me take care of some of my issues. You can help me feel better. It's almost time. I'll take care of it in the morning. Then we can put the rest of it out of our minds for good."

"You could stop it from happening. You could say I need to stop this from happening. There still is ringing in my head. It's all coming back this way. This is the source of the problem. There's so many sources. There's so many routes. Do you think this is going to be easy? You go in public and cry. And you think that's going to make a difference. I'm so over all of this. I'm sorry to say but they are right."

"You take it from account A, and you put it in account B. Do you think that this is going to stop it? Sure it's slow sit down. But there's no reason to go any further. That's no reason to go along with it. This is not a case of love. This is part of all your freaky suggestions. They were supposed to help"

"Why are you still keeping me in this place? I've answered all your questions. I told you that I had friends. I'm not sympathetic with the evil ones. I have simple desires. I want someone who cares for me. I want to change this. I'm not gonna go along with this. I'm going to expose you. I'm gonna expose all of you. You really think this is funny don't you. You don't see this is a third way. This is no way at all. Do you think that I'm being fooled. Do you think they were all representatives of the same thing. We all suffer the same way. We all feel bad. We make friends. I don't think that you even know the difference anymore."

"I don't know why. I think you need to turn this shit off. I think it's like a heartache. It's like a reeducation. How am I going to change? I'll make it to go along with us? I was sitting on the porch. I was inside the house. I was walking through the field. What does any of this mean? How does it determine who I am? You've got to figure these things out. You need to bring a map. You need to look at the constellations. There is a time when all this will matter. It will describe your role. I would describe how you're able to change things. I understand your complaint. But it's going to go the same way."

"You're going to rob from Peter to give to Paul. Do you think that you're a Robin Hood? But you're just another thief. And your dreams aren't going to lead anywhere. You're going to be shocked. Everyone's going to be shocked. You're all going to find your place in line. And it's going to be over. It will be a great run, and it will all be over. It's already worse than anyone knows. You're both dealing with the same problems. You're both political prisoners. Being confined in the house."

"And you don't know the difference. We need to talk about this. We need to further develop these issues. I should've been friendlier. So many times, I just need to get up and go somewhere else. I want to be friendly. I need to stop this. I need to come to a solution. This is a partial understanding. This is a clear awareness. This is some thing hideous. This is all that matters."

"Where do you come from? Are you one of them? Who's helping you? Maybe, it will never end. What difference does it make?"
