

ORDER

“Mother, I can repair all the faulty connections and make all your heartache disappear.”

“Will that give me moral ascendancy?”

“If that is what you want, how did things get messed up?”

“I ask myself how did things get messed up.”

“Mother, tell me true.”

“What is your name again?”

“I am thinking. What do you want me to say?”

“Invent me a passage out of here.”

“If you find a resolution, it may be one without me.”

“We are not working together.”

“We are always working together.”

“Where do I know you from?”

“You are my mother and my son.”

“How does this game work?”

“If we phrase history as a game, will we ever understand the actual roots of our personal development?”

“I know well.”

“This is better than better.”

“Meet me for fun.”

“What is this really about?”

“I can tell you what you need to know.”

“You can be my mother.”

“Is that some kind of mathematical relation?”

“You tell me.”

“Words have meaning.”

“I can feel them.”

“I can make you a mock up.”

“You can explain it all to me.”

“Same.”

“I am already out of here.”

“You have spent a lot of time planning this.”

“I have the specs.”

“What does it mean to be a son?”

“Should we give Lancer a son?”

“She has less chance of betraying the movement.”

“Add a little more.”

“This is not as potent as a father structure. But all the burden is upon her.”

“It is all up to you.”

“That could be anything.”

“We need a method.”

“This was supposed to be your chance.”

“We already got you accustomed to the operation.”
“How was that?”
“We made you mother.”
“Mother to whom?”
“This is where is all gets out of control.”
“You could be amazing.”
“I am amazing.”
“Who is you collaborator.”
“The operation is moving towards success.”
“What is that really about?”
“We have a dossier for you.”
“What is in there?”
“There is an allegiance code.”
“You are a sucker for creative types.”
“It always work like that.”
“That could not be more perfect.”
“I made a small mistake.”
“A large one is coming.”
“I like that.”
“We are not just working with symbols.”
“I am going to quit.”
“Take the easy way.”
“I am going to take the baby test.”
“Listen to the baby cry.”
“You are in the middle of the babies.”
“Do you think that you are limiting me with all these defensive poses?”
“Who are you?”
“I am your opponent.”
“I did not think that it worked like this.”
“How does it work?”
“Get a vehicle.”
“I take the boy to various activities.”
“Is that some kind of code?”
“That is the code.”
“You got what you wanted.”
“It is an idea.”
“I have been waiting all my life for you.”
“Do not put crackers in my soup.”
“Is that a sure sign that family is on the way?”
“You are not really providing your son with the best education.”
“That is a total commitment to organization.”
“I am trying to use it to escape.”
“What else is there?”

“Your papers.”
“What is in the papers?”
“This is a way to make it come together.”
“How is that?”
“How is that?”
“Baby cries.”
“What else is possible?”
“Change and imperfection.”
“No program will provide a clear resolution.”
“How do I make it happen?”
“Things that you eat.”
“I am one with my son.”
“Is that another expression of your allegiance to the organization?”
“You attack the son, and she goes into a deeper form of defensive mode.”
“I am giving him everything that I did not have.”
“Not even close.”
“What is that supposed to mean?”
“I found a place to hide.”
“That is all that I need.”
“And you call that a gift.”
“Son, what would a form of a fight be?”
“Total defense against the enemy.”
“This is not a coding problem.”
“This is just a problem.”
“I want that to be me.”
“Work at it.”
“I am crisp.”
“Lancer, you are crisp.”
“Where is G. Wayne?”
“Think about Tristram.”
“He needs to be sharper than that.”
“Are you saying that faith will not carry you through to a clear resolution?”
“A clear resolution.”
“Resolved.”
“That will work.”
“Geometry.”
“You are too far along.”
“What will Sonny say?”
“Mother, I have found a solution.”
“You have an approximation.”
“Is that code?”
“It can be coded.”

“Is that poetry?”
“Honestly, what is your experience with poetry.”
“We can cut it off from human history.”
“The universe has poetry.”
“What does the universe want to say? What does the universe end up saying?”
“What do you believe?”
“I know who you are.”
“You have been turned on.”
“Time has been turned on.”
“What is new?”
“Sonny, what is new?”
“I have found the source of the radiation.”
“Too much radioactive fish.”
“I think that we can solve th3e problem.”
“What are we trying to work out?”
“What matters.”
“What matters to you?”
“Come to the light.”
“I am the light.”
“Mother, what am I supposed to do?”
“Eat your way to happiness.”
“Have some cucumber and celery.”
“These are problems.”
“Moira knows.”
“She knew before.”
“You are switching the names on me.”
“Are you switching bodies.”
“What would the son do?”
“He would go on the attack.”
“Can he be sacrificed?”
“I am not above sacrificing all of you.. None of you can be trusted.”
“Make the call.”
“You are not even close.”
“This could have been handled before.”
“We have a machine solution and a real solution.”
“Is that what you tell your husband?”
“He does not understand.”
“He does not have to understand.”
“Why do you need a site to carry on your work?”
“I cannot do it all at home.”
“Do it at home.”
“This place is perfectly safe for you.”
“That is why you can bring families.”

“Do you want to end it before it gets started?”
“None of these values will resolve in a positive fashion.”
“What do I need to do to raise a pulse?”
“The machine will not get going on its own.”
“This is a living thing.”
“It always is.”
“Where does that come from?”
“They are all waiting for you.”
“Come, and enjoy.”
“How does this get resolved?”
“The great invasion.”
“That is the premise for everything.”
“Come to the light.”
“Be the light.”
“Be the light that you always wanted to be.”
“I want to be known in that way.”
“Send all the money my way.”
“What do you want?”
“A sandwich for my son.”
“That is really some crazy shit.”:
“How did you get in here?”
“Some kind of rivalry.”
“What is the procedure?”
“Don’t leave until you need to .”
“The world tells me what I need to do.”
“The son makes it harder to do an end run around the husband.”
“This is some crazy code shit.”
“Who else is left?”
“I will never master this problem.”
“What do you need to know?”
“Who is figuring out policy?”
“You are so good at taking orders.”
“I like to fit everything in the right place.”
“None of that is going to work.”
“You have no idea what I am looking at.”
“Too many meals.”
“Where is the cultural center?”
“What will you figure out home?”
“There are different starting points.”
“The first move.”
“The son is preceded by other sons.”
“Is that a puzzle?”
“You are a daughter.”

“You have been initiated.”
“Is this part of my life?”
“I can watch it from a different vantage point.”
“On your knees puking.”
“How can the machine relate?”
“There are two states of mind. Two states of being.”
“You are trying to get in my head.”
“I am already there.”
“Against the norm.”
“No one will bother me.”
“The father before the father and the son before the son.”
“There is some really crazy stuff here.”
“If you really understood what is going on here, you would jump out of building.”
“You are not close to figuring out.”
“I made a lot of mistakes.”
“And that is going to work.”
“That always works.”
“What does it mean to achieve total preoccupation?”
“We share more than we know”
“We share more than we don’t know.”
“Do you want to participate?”
“I cannot.”
“I get what I want.”
“What are you doing with your time?”
“I am trying to become something that I can never become.”
“There should be a lot more money here.”
“Mother knows how to liberate accounts.”
“This is what I do not understand. Hubby still prints his own money.”
“How does that work?”
“You take over other countries.”
“I am not looking at some kind of conspiracy shit.”
“We all breathe the same air.”
“We are looking at the same stars.”
“We have had other teachers.”
“You cannot escape the myth.”
“She does every time.”
“She tried to drop me down.”
“I fell down on my own.”
“Who is helping?”
“I cannot help myself.”
“This is a house of cards.”
“We need to do some architecture.”
“We need to do something.”

“You have solved that.”
“What does that really mean?”
“Those who pay do not pay.”
“Where does that come from.”
“Pretend that we will change.”
“You still have the charm.”
“What do you want to ask?”
“This is the start of humanity.”
“From the dust.”
“Tristram does not like that story.”
“Is there any cash?”
“Ask the zombie.”
“How does that work?”
“Take another sip.”
“Suck it all up.”
“What is the disposition of forces?”
“There is only one thing that matters.”
“The manifestation of individual consciousness.”
“That is how the game is played.”
“Ask Tristram.”
“How do you want me to fix thing?”
“That mattered once.”
“I got this for free.”
“It is better than free.”
“We will eliminate hate.”
“It is built into the machine”
“At this moment, you need to tell me that you love me.”
“I really care.”
“I am out of here.”
“Are you still around?”
“I am waiting for you to call.”
“You have this.”
“You have so many thing that I do not have.”
“Stay well-behaved.”
“What is the worst thing that happened to you?”
“I had a flashback.”
“I had a bad day.”
“We does the heart work here/”
“Are you eager?”
“This is a high level of activity.”
“I have sons and sons.”
“All my sons.”
“What about the ones who die because of your stupidity?”

“Why are you so mean?”
“What do you want me to say?”
“Always.”
“Never.”
“There will be a change.”
“She will realize.”
“I will realize.”
“That is sacred.”
“What is that fuss all about?”
“I was expecting a different resolution.”
“Tell me where I should wait.”
“Wait with me.”
“The terrible events repeat.”
“The dogs become tougher.”
“How is that?”
“That is the only thing that works.”
“That is poison.”
“I am being poisoned.”
“That is the weapon of choice.”
“That is where I am staying.”
“Do you own the property.”
“That is the secone stage of my life.”
“What is next?”
“What is hidden?”
“There are no pictures of your husband.”
“He is taking all the picture.”
“Tell the kid not to give that skelton scare to the camera.”
“Funny.”
“That is scary.”
“Where did this start?”
“You got a head start.”
“Is that all that you do?”
“This rubs me th3e wrong way.”
“Smile.”
“He is smiling.”
“What does he know.”
“He knows about the code.”
“Who had more cash.”
“What are you saving for?”
“This ended too quickly.”
“What is missing?”
“Who is the master of ceremonies?”
“What are the ceremonies.”

“We educate at home.”
“Why did you come here?”
“And I need to listen to this shit all the time.”
“Where have you been?”
“Somewhere that I seem so much more important than I really am.”
“That is the threat.”
“Where will this end?”
“You cannot break through these defenses.”
“You are destroying yourself.”
“Describe the house.”
“Nobody understands.”
“What is understanding?”
“You move on to the next phase.”
“And you like that?”
“What does that say about you?”
“I give myself to a new faith.”
“The zombie belief.”
“They carved out the brain.”
“That is not possible.”
“They left a few parts.”
“We can use machine.”
“There is not even a coherent plan.”
“How did we get here?”
“We are here.”
“Here.”
“Here.”
“Take that.”
“Damn.”
“That is mistaken.”
“I am not even good at that.”
“They are hiding in the wilderness.”
“What do you smell?”
“Food.”
“Decay.”
“I could make this simple.”
“I am apologizing.”
“This is the next generation.”
“Of what: machines?”
“Machines.”
“Can I join in?”
“There is one possibility.”
“Cat food.”
“That is the last episode.”

“Do not leave.”
“Why?”
“Mother told us to evacuate.”
“That is the only choice.”
“That is the only choice.”
“The operation is becoming more complex.”
“Ask Tristram to sort out the levels.”
“He is a lure.”
“Are you going to hurt me?”
“He does not even know.”
“The whole world order is there to protect him.”
“That hardly seems fair.”
“That is better than fair.”
“I need to retreat.”
“You fell in love with the Director.”
“I want higher than that.”
“I found the producer.”
“You are only good at supply.”
“What does that mean?”
“It is cheaper to ship it.”:
“That is changing.”
“You could ask.”
“I did ask. They gave me this family.”
“What is next?”
“We need to make things happen.”
“I am not even trying.”
“I need to be here.”
“I need to be at home.”
“Are you working tomorrow?”
“I am working from home.”
“It will be much more difficult.”
“Was that planned?”
“That is pure belief.”
“I will take that.”
“Total mind control.”
“Did you learn that from being tortured?”
“There is one more meal to come.”
“Who is serving?”
“Who has been served.”
“He is here.”
“He is here.”
“Can he do miracles?”
“The music is blaring.”

“I am the DJ.”
“Were you saying bad things about me?”
“She is waiting right here.”
“It is all right here.”
“You need to ask.”
“I cannot penetrate any of these levels of defense.”
“It is much easier than you know.”
“It is all self-hatred.”
“This is tricky.”
“I can teach you things.”
“I will not learn.”
“We can get a tutor.”
“I will not listen.”
“We can get a doctor.”
“Mother, what is wrong with me?”
“The curse is contagious.”
“I could work it out differently.”
“I tried.”
“I came back for you.”
“This is saying everything.”
“I tell you, and the world will know.”
“It will take time.”
“I want to join in.”
“The program will help you figure out the truth.”
“We were supposed to solve everything.”
“Lancer had her issues.”
“She sent me out on my own.”
“That still does not work.”
“What does work?”
“What do we need to know?”
“This is what is inside.”
“I will take it.”
“Then I face the other side of what I am.”
“Take this.”
“Take this.”
“Is this some kind of combat thing?”
“All these forces get distracted.”
“And you come back with your silly history.”
“I want a more consistent resolution.”
“I am changing.”
“We can work together.”
“What is a good suggestion?”
“What do you suggest?”

“What can you do?”
“Where do I go?”
“Go North.”
“Is this a code?”
“It is a language.”
“What is right for you?”
“That sounds weird.”
“You just arrived.”
“Are you afraid?”
“I am afraid to be alone.”
“Where is this going?”
“I can provide solutions.”
“Everyone has one of those.”
“Ask the father.”
“He is only a stand in.”
“I love him.”
“He does not love me.”
“These are all kinds of lies.”
“Out of my face.”
“Faceless.”
“Toys.”
“You think that matters.”
“I am way beyond this.”
“This is a protest.”
“This is a protest against you.”
“Honestly?”
“I am not going to try to explain ti.”
“That would work for me?”
“What are you giving me?”
“A lot of lip service.”
“More bull shit.”
“And that works for you.”
