

TRUTH

“What do you really understand?”

“Bull shit.”

“This will not make sense.”

“I need to get out of here.”

“When are you available?”

“I lost the show.”

“I am not feeling sorry for myself.”

“Shut up!”

“Where do we go?”

“What is this about?”

“When you leave so many options , disaster can follow you.”

“The darkness follows you.”

“I will never respond.”

“I have thought about this a great deal.”

“I can’t be around this anymore.”

“What do you want me to do? Should I confess that I went into your room and stole your jewelry. Then I pawned it.”

“I want to live.”

“What were you doing at the pawn shop?”

“Looking for my fucking shit.”

“You probably need a fence.”

“What does that mean?”

“This is signature stuff.”

“I am way beyond that.”

“Fill in the signature.”

“I have everything that I need.”

“I am leaking.”

“I hooked a big fish.”

“I am doing this for the workd.”

“What is a world that we can do things for.”

“My world is going up in smoke.”

“Then they send in the paramilitaries.”

“How is that?”

“That is the actual social order.”

“This is not about the traficking of hte body.”

“What does that mean?”

“I am trying to get elemental.”

“Do we go with the biology, or do we need to be more elemental than that.”

“She said that she was devoted to science.”

“I do not want you to be my friend.”

“We share so much in common.”
“I am trying to get away from all that.”
“There are so many variations left.”
“The many faces of you.”
“How many are left?”
“Do they each need to be different?”
“Tempest said something about science. I wanted to sign up for her experiment.”
“Are you really another Owen? What drives you to this point?”
“She gave me permission.”
“Where does that originate?”
“Tempest is brilliant.”
“How?”
“She realized what she needed to do to survive.”
“Then she found it impossible to keep on.”
“So she quit.”
“Where does quitting begin and end?”
“Accept things that you cannot change.”
“Time to make some new things happen.”
“How did you get that cash?”
“You need to work hard for me.”
“Tempest, do you like to sacrifice?”
“What does that mean?”
“What got you started?”
“Then everything became so obvious.”
“There was a fantasy.”
“I want back to something that I understood.”
“He is talking to me about printing his own money.”
“The machine is on.”
“That is all well and good.”
“That is all well.”
“Take the pie out of the oven.”
“You are adding more than we need.”
“I am glad that you are here.”
“I was productive.”
“You have been doing a wonderful job.”
“What am I supposed to look at?”
“Look at the screen.”
“What am I looking at?”
“I hate to admit that I saw that.”
“Where were you the last time that you realized it?”
“I was buried in shit.”
“What were you actually doing?”
“I was cutting ties.”

“That is the only tie that matters.”
“Sell, sell, sell.”
“I can break down the second into finer measurements.”
“What is the standard?”
“Can your finger fit in the hole?”
“It needs to be much smaller”
“A sliver of gold.”
“The body betrays you every time.”
“If it didn’t, this would be a better story.”
“Who is next?”
“I am sleeping it off.”
“Part of the body is sleeping it off.”
“That is called numbness.”
“Or extra-sensitivity.”
“That will do.”
“You need to train yourself better.”
“Put the words together.”
“Listen to the alarm ring.”
“I thought that it would be more explosive.”
“I am not a field of wheat.”
“What if I was?”
“I need you to show up.”
“I am not willing to negotiate. Get it right, or do not get it at all.”
“Then you show up.”
“I show up.”
“The interpretation is in my head.”
“The description is in my head.”
“This is how the payment goes.”
“This is a forgetting.”
“It is very important. I need you to remember where you were.”
“Do you have receipts?”
“We are fighting over some image thing. None of this went very far at all.”
“I am not here to help you to sort out tragedy.”
“I am a fucking mess.”
“I am completely resigned to what follows.”
“We all are!”
“You will need to wait in the basement.”
“No one is waiting for anything.”
“Pop you in the ground.”
“I am protected.”
“There is no resolution.”
“Rewind.”
“How can we do it over?”

“I was sure that I had more than one chance.”
 “You have no idea what this is about?”
 “All of this and more.”
 “You are going away for a while.”
 “I will rise from the dead.”
 “How does that work?”
 “A mix of drugs.”
 “This is an art.”
 “It needs to look like ritual.”
 “Like in solitary.”
 “Confess to the murder.”
 “Jump.”
 “Nothing bloody was done here.”
 “You need to clean up.”
 “Do you mind if I interrupt?”
 “Do you have much to say?”
 “I can only think about so much at one time.”
 “Do you really think that you can tell the joke?”
 “Learn the punch lines.”
 “Mix it up.”
 “The pets are barking.”
 “Are you pretending that this is serious?”
 “You are trying to control the narrative.”
 “How do you do that?”
 “I add new characters.”
 “I give you scripts.”
 “Bath, what does Roy want?”
 “Is this going to take us somewhere new?”
 “Where are you headed?”
 “Can I help?”
 “This affects different people in different ways.”
 “I am interested in a bunch of psychology experiments where people are affected in a similar fashion.”
 “Send me a cake.”
 “Where does this start?”
 “With the flour.”
 “Rice flour.”
 “You had a difficult day at work.”:
 “You are very creepy.”
 “That is not what this is about.”
 “What is the overall affect?”
 “We use anesthetic.”
 “With anesthetic, I realized that I could challenge body in new ways. I could increased the stimulation. The anesthetic would enable me to accommodate better to the situation. I enjoyed the options. Honestly, this excited me. I felt as if I had a new level of control. I could push the body to regions of heightened awareness. This added to my overall ability. I needed to enhance this belief. That made me more confident. I could exhaustively describe this awareness. I could add to the sensation. I felt as if I was pushing myself in a new direction. Amazingly, everything was possible.”

“The body was completely malleable. I could find new avenues of growth. This knowledge was completely rooted in the actual resources of the body. This was not idealistic. I was living this moment entirely in the present.”

“I didn’t have to pretend. I was no longer relying on belief. Each level of excitement could be coordinated with other kinds of pleasurable experiences. The whole system was self-referential. It was all based on my decision-making abilities. I enhanced this awareness. I felt completely immersed in this process. I could make my calculations even more precise. And this exploration became even more involved.”

“I could play the body in this exact manner. It was no longer simply a matter of stimulation. I could create complex patterns of interaction. This became even more engaging. I was creating new emotions and higher levels of provocation. If others participated, they could engage in more complex arrangements of feeling. I could select the level of influence, and I could sustain this feeling.”

“There was nothing that was more appealing. I no longer feared the process of discovery. It was as if all obstacles had been eliminated once and for all. I felt a sense of this limitless power. I could keep going further. I could strip away layers. This was no longer about the will. Everything was so automatic. This was a total enhancement of the self.”

“No one could put me in a box. No one could restrict my growth. I was on the verge of this wonderful explosiveness. And it all seemed so natural.”

Temple was describing this ideal. I wanted to believe what she was saying. She suggested that her partners were willing to accede to her wishes. This assent became more and more complex. At any point, she could leave the game. She could find something that was truly involving. Or someone else could disrupt the activity.

There was a danger that this process could become catastrophic. Temple would continue to face the same risks. But she did everything that she could to try to control the experience. She embraced this kind of life because she knew that everything could backfire. But she was committed to this massive power position. In a sense, it contradicted everything about her nature. She claimed that she was devoted to the science. But the science could eliminate the very things that made this program so appealing for her. She craved the instability. She loved to let go. But the new program made it seem as if this was all about a unique wonder. She loved the marvel.

There was something that was entirely celebratory about her efforts. But her motivation became darker, and she felt fulfilled by the domination. This made her more vulnerable than ever. The pattern could disperse. It could lose its integrity. And she would be left without any clear guidance.

“Are you rooting for the world to explode in my face?”

“What are you talking about?”

“Your writing is motivated by a sense of self-destructiveness. And you apply it to everyone else.”

“Do you realized what you are saying? You are so deep in this shit that you do not even think about where it is taking you.”

“Are you envious? Are you resentful? I didn’t include you in my experiement.”

“What is this really about?”

“We are not doing a celebration of life.”

“I do not want to lose the thread.”

“It will eventually make sense.”

“I makes sense to no one and everyone.”

“You have that side to you.”

“Where does that come from?”

“I do not embrace suffering.”

“What do you enjoy? What happens when your philosophy frays at the edges.”

“Everything is so disruptive.”

“Today was supposed to be everything.”

“I do not know how to do it anymore.”

“What do we need to do to change it?”

“Everything is in clear relief.”

“I am working hard at this.”

“You need better tools.”

“I am holding tight.”

“I want better control.”

“You were not invited.”

“Who else is participating?”

“I enjoy it just like this.”

“Where is your participation?”

“I got this started.”

“You are not supposed to enjoy stuff like this.”

“Where are we headed?”

“We have been doing too long?”

“You have one more chance to get it right.”

“Who is listening?”

“Do you want to play along?”

“That is all thzt matters.”

“Crazy repetition.”

“Are you going to leave?”

“I want everyone to love me.”

“That kind of love is never mutual.”

“The hammer comes down. I do not have to worry.”

“But you do. That is all that matters to you.”

“I can add things that are not there.”

“Add the ketchup.”

“This is not real blood.”
“What if it is?”
“There is no surgery without blood.”
“I remember what this means.”
“You must apply more of yourself to working on this.”
“The spice collection.”
“Is that how you talk about pain now?”
“What do you want me to say?”
“How do I feel as if I am a part of fold?”
“Who is this affecting?”
“I want to give you something that you don’t have?”
“This is electrocution.”
“Do you really have the ability to regenerate?”
“The Resurrection question.”
“Do you want a religion?”
“You can ask.”
“Does suffering result in devotion?”
“How did I end up here?”
“Someone opened the door for me?”
“Then everything crashed down.”
“There needs to be more where that came from.”
“There is so much more.”
“What do you do when you are not doing what you do?”
“This is not a theology.”
“Is it astronomy?”
“They have taken things from me.”
“This inch of paradise will make me feel better about myself.”
“Who will bless that feeling?”
“I need to figure that out.”
“That is completely part of the command and control site.”
“We will spend money on this.”
“We will feel blessed.”
“I like that combination.”
“That is vulnerability.”
“Is it imperfection?”
“What do you want?”
“What we all want? I need you to be on at this moment.”
“You are so on.”
“This has nothing to do with the stimulus.”
“What initiates the process?”
“I am glad that I am going to be able to find an answer.”
“It is inside.”
“What does anyone need this?”

“Why does anyone need this?”

“I am subtracted from myself.”

“This seems to be the whole story.”

“I am the whole story.”

“What are you hiding?”

“The eye drops.”

“Why are they so important?”

“This is elevation.”

“I am risking something about myself.”

“You want too much control.”

“Then you surrender to such foolishness.”

“All this is planned out.”

“We will come to a greater resolution.”

“You always make those promises.”

“This really has nothing to do with anyone else.”

“This has nothing to do with you.”

“I am a little ahead of the curve.”

“Tempest, where are you right now.”

“I have found something for myself. That is all that I need.”

“You are so many places at once.”

“This is too much immersion.”

“The self is not what you think that it is. It is simply a gateway.”

“It is everything that you believe.”

“You are preventing yourself from growing.”

“You need more control.”

“You will figure it out after it is over.”

“Where does the mind fit in this process?”

“It is all mind.”

“You need to apply more effort.”

“You are not even moving.”

“I am trying to recover.”

“The recovery process is disruptive.”

“He is like a snake.”

“Where does that come from?”

“THIS IS WHY YOU CANNOT MAKE EFFECTIVE PLANS. YOU CAN ENHANCE THE SEEING. BUT YOU CAN DO LITTLE TO IMPROVE THE ACTING.”

“I am not going anywhere.”

“That is the self-destructive part. What happened to the game?”

“I am not really playing.”

“Were you bit?”

“What does that matter?”

“I need some kind of luxury.”

“We are all sharing.”

“What is the foundation?”
“It is not writing. It is something more fatal.”
“You are helping.”
“When do you surrender.”
“Who is interrupting?”
“The line of the fabric.”
“Everything means some one thing.”
“Do not be afraid!”
“Look at what you are looking at.”
“How would this be different in a corn field in Iowa?”
“You are seeing what you want to see.”
“You have been summoned.”
“We cannot do that for you.”
“This is for your own good.”
“Why are you trying to interfere?”
“I am in the wrong room.”
“We are all there together.”
“This is a launching pad to something else.”
“I fell down in front of everyone.”
“The ailments increase.”
“You need a better model of pain management.”
“No one else is following along to a deeper level”
“I do not want this to be any part of me.”
“This is all you.”
“Pick me up off the ground.”
“You have such good pain medicine.”
“Could I ever like that?”
“No one understands fabric.”
Tempest understood every negation.
“I wanted something to push this along further.”
“This works the best for me.”
“How does the organization take care of you?”
“You encouraged me to be like this.”
“I want to be a part of the surgery.”
“There is a difference.”
“This is deliberate.”
“I need to go back to the board.”
“Go back.”
“Who else is being sent with you?”
“Give me more, Temple.”
“The pain or the remedy?”
“It is all the same.”
“I want to go under.”

“You are so under that there is no under to go.”

“There is a rip in time.”

“That will not get you out of this problem.”

“And they sucked you in.”

“None of this is specific. None of it makes any difference.”

“You need to work at this more.”

“This is not going to matter to anyone.”

“I closed the book.”

“You are not using books, Tempest.”

“I need to understand the dosages.”

“This is all by feel.”

“It is all about focusing the will.”

“I cannot even think about something like that.”

“I have one simple question.”

“Leave whil you can.”

“You have no idea what any of this is about.”

“You need to control the world.”

“I see how it works.”

“You are trying to balance on a tightrope.”

“This is not a metaphor.”

“This is your body. This is your world.”

“You do not know how bad the damage is.”

“You claim that you care about the families. These other families are simply an excuse for total disruption.

“The brain needs to be burned to the next level of dissipation.”

“I have protection against that.”

“It is not going to work.”

“What do you want me to do to you?”

“Some people eat this stuff. But it can kill you.”

“What does thqat mean?”

“We are both equally self-destructive.”

“You admire that until you get too close.”

“I think that I have found what I have been looking for.”

“That is the only thing that ever matters.”

“That is you. I am positive.”

“This is a totally different show.”

“These are different inspirations for the soul.”

“Where does this key lead. What door will it open?”

“How does this cover further exploration?”

“He has been here before.”

“We all have.”

“I am trying to find an isolated place.”

“It does not exist.”

“Be honest.”
 “All the parts are there.”
 “The complete picture.”
 “You will need a detective to put it all together.”
 “Do not let it affect you?”
 “I have it all down on a sheet.”
 “I am everyone’s fantasy.”
 “That is not going to do anything for me.”
 “Don’t be so sure.”
 “I am having problems decompressin.”
 “Do you want to tell me something else.”
 “You should know the answer to all these questions.”
 “This would be total liberation.”
 “Move along.”
 “Move along.”
 “You do not have what I need. I am totally sure.”
 “How can anyone be sure.”
 “I knw science.”
 “I have found you.”
 “We are celebrating together.”
 “This is not about celebrating.”
 “You are my total inspiration, Tempest.”
 “Not really.”
 “All really.”
 “The room is going to blow.”
 “We have someone else, who can offer a more thorough inspiration.”
 “I recognize all the part.”
 “Why do things seem to be fragmented?”
 “This is meant to cause more control.”
 “Everything is so uncertain. Everyone has played at least once.”
 “No one has done this twice.”
 “I know who perfection would work.”
 “You cleaned up well.”
 “What is this really about?”
 “I can reduce it all to a few simple parts.”
 “This is only on and off.”
 “I can see you reducing me to nothing.”
 “You are not going to respond.”
 “What do you expect?”
 “A better reaction.”
 “Bring me the cake.”
 “No one wants to hear this.”
 “This would mean a hospital discharge. And we woul have to find somewhere to put you.”

“You like the representation of the real thing.”

“What do you think that your friends are doing?”

“Could there be another role?”

“The guys are here.”

“I know what they are about.”

“The world knows.”

“Get in line.”

“This is so fucking boring.”

“Do not worry.”

“There are other options.”

“There are other flavors.”

“I need a transfusion.”

“I am murky.”

“I am not going to be affected. This will hurt more.”

“Who else is as scientifically advanced?”

“I can smell where you have been.”

“I want someone to make me feel so much better for feeling so much better.”

“You have got it.”

“You have got it.”

“You have got it.”

“Shit, I am so fucking messed up.”

“She is guilty.”

“That makes no difference. There is no evidence.”

“You are doing this to yourself.”

“I could be so wrong.”

“I need to reveal.”

“Bath was going to reveal.”

“I don’t need enhancements.”

“What really turns you on?”

“None of this matters.”

“None of this does not matter.”

“And you need to stop.”

“I stop.”

“Another failure.”

“Total failure.”

“Tempest, can fix it.”

“She is in the fixing business. But that can be the worst thing. We are losing attention to detail.”

“You quit taking the medicine.”

“Mix this up.”

“That will not solve anything.”

“I know about this.”

“I heard about these experiments. I was able to create my own model. It was completely based on the will.”

“We reach the proper level of insanity.”

“Everything can be cleaned up. Nothing will be understood. Nothing will be noticed.”

“There are too many options.”

“She has a book that explains it all.”

“It is total concentration.”

“What is the basis for this concentration of energy?”

“I pretend to be dead on the sidewalk. They do not bother me.”
