

SEEDS

“I am not going to explain why I want what I want.”
 “The seeds were planted for something else.”
 “And what did you do about it.”
 “There is one thing that I want. And one thing that I pretend that I want.”
 “It could have taken a whole year.”
 “Where did it end up?”
 “We had other concerns.”
 “The seeds were planted to create a critical outlook about the world.”
 “Where did that end up?”
 “I am not going to chase anyone.”
 “Who has the answer?”
 “I have waited all night for that.”
 “I am a purist.”
 “You need to get purer than that.”
 “I hated to disappoint you.”
 “That is part of growth.”
 “I write.”
 “I scribble.”
 “These are important things to do .”
 “That is only half of it.”
 “What is the other half.”
 “Flavor.”
 “Holding your breath.”
 “I had an inkling.”:
 “You better move quickly if you have any hope of making money.”
 “You have never been successful at doing this.”:
 “Who are you?”
 “Who are any of you?”
 “I am truly on the verge.”
 “Do you even know the difference?”
 “I do, and I cannot deal with it.”
 “He is not that bad.”
 “And there is a side of him that is evil.”
 “There is nothing wrong having those inclinations.”
 “I slipped.”
 “You need to have some honesty.”
 “I feel bad about that.”
 “That will take care of everything.”
 “She knows it.”
 “And that is love.”
 “And that is not love.”

“What do any of them expect?”

“You wait all your life for this.”:

“And you take what you are waiting for.”

“Let us get back to this.”

“We are only starting.”

“I really fucked up.”

“This is not for you.”

“I can get you close to power.”

“This is my presentation.”

“What is that?”

“How to take everything that you have.”

“You promise, and you promise.”

“They all have potential.”

“You have no idea what I did.”

“You look as if you have been there.”

“I am delirious.”

“And I live off your deliriousness.”

“Do you feel comfortable each time that you start again?”

“What is the definition?”

“How systematic is he?”

“What does he care for?”

“Let the children decide.”

“Decide.”

“Can you do this?”

“I do not need to.”

“You cannot substitute.”

“And you believe that this is important.”

“This is not even an invitation.”

“I will need to make an extra effort.”

“Let us assume that I can make a more exhaustive description what is involved. What did I miss?”

“We all missed love.”

“That does not work.”

“I am trying to get out of here.”

“None of that is what I expected or wanted.”

“What is his problem?”

“I can fill in the missing elements.”

“You have no idea where I started.”

“Where?”

“With the seeds.”

“Why does that ever lead to growth?”

“There is a cultural allegiance.”

“You have spent a lot of time trying to explain what is happening, as if this is your happening.”

“And it ended just like that.”

“All this real shit ends so quickly. And the nonsense stuff keep pon.”

“Will you take my life for me?”

“What does that mean?”

“Love and cherish the difficult times.”

“What else happens?”

“Practice, practice, practice.”

“I think that I know what I am doing.”

“You cannot ask for anything more.”

“I need to give so much more.”

“You gave delight to the world.”

“I am not going to stop.”

“I have everything that you have.”

“I can fill in with that.”

“I cannot do that on my own.”

“That is all that I will ever need.”

“HE SAID THE SAME THING.”

“That is counter-productive.”

“There is a lot to detail.”

“Where do I start?”

“He is worthless.”

“He thinks that all the world have their eyes trained on him.”

“Then I completely break down in public.”

“I get what I want.”

“That is evern more dangerous.”

“HAPPINESS LOVES YOU.”

“I could never do that.”

“You have arrived.”

“Show me your heart.”

“I cannot tell what that is among the other organs.”

“Call a heart doctor.”

“He has a lot of power.”

“I brought you back from death.”

“Give me the touch.”

“The good seed.”

“A whole field of grain.”

“How are you getting water here?”

“You need to kill the flies.”

“How do we do this?”

“Release the birds.”
 “We do not make good decisions.”
 “You have poisoned the water.”
 “But we have sold some airplanes.”
 “They break in our hands.”
 “Do not worry about that. We are not going anywhere.”
 “You are almost here.”
 “I am here.”
 “And you call this your life.”
 “What more do you want?”
 “A little dance.”
 “A smile.”
 “A frown.”
 “I only have to be myself.”
 “I need to be clever. I need to respond to shit going on around me. I need to forget the terrible images.”
 “Is this a team thing?”
 “What season is this?”
 “Did I say the wrong thing.”
 “Whatever it is, repeat it again.”
 “I got uninvited.”
 “CHOW DOWN.”
 “That is meaningless.”
 “We think about education differently.”
 “Are you going to make a stand here? It is a more casual environment. A little more tolerant. You really think that anyone is going to learn by doing the same thing week after week.”
 “You have no grasp.”
 “We are coming to an understanding.”
 “What is the difference between a habit and a bad habit.”
 “Do you realize what you have? Do you see how you can turn the world on? And what does the world give you in return. Do you have to work harder in school? What are you working on? Where will that take you? Who is guiding you? Who is interfering?”
 “And you waited all your life for this.”
 “Your pizza is ready.”
 “Are you making fun of my life?”
 “What can you do?”
 “I am good at imitating.”
 “Doing impressions.”
 “My life is a bad impression.”
 “What is a sentimental education?”
 “Why do you need to craft your emotions to changing the world?”
 “You need to exhibit constraint at key moments.”

“I want to throw over the chess board.”

She cherished the rule book.

“That is his line.”

“You will arrive.”

“There needs to be more grace.”

“I can hold out for quite a while.”

“Were there onions?”

“I am doing more than cooking.”

“I have a life for myself.”

“I want to understand the ritual.”

“Someone else understands way better than you ever could.”

“Think that it could be different.”

“Was that a signal?”

“Bite, but do not bite.”

“That was horrendous.”

“He is horrendous.”

“I think that is is bull shit, but I cannot prove it.”

“What happens every day that we are together? How does the world deform our desires?

How do we fight against those changes? Then we arrive at an acceptable level of human understanding.”

“We do not aks for the impossible.”

“You are the impossible.”

“You are impossible.”

“There is a place that this does not make any difference.”

“What is in the head?”

“We go along with shit.”

“And that is all that there is to it.”

“If it is not hot shit, it not shit.”

“Any particular day is only part of the mosaic.”

“He is still a clown.”

“Call it for what it is.”

“Does this inspire you?”

“No, this is what is going on.”

“What does that mean?”

“I could have headed in a different direction.”

“You went for the heart.”

“I am good with a map.”

“No one will look.”

“Wait until they look back.”

“Are you looking for inspiration?”

“Honestly, are you? I know what has to be done. I am trying to influence people to make a change. I am looking for someone who needs inspiration.”

“Another cult leader.”

“We are developing ways of collecting evidence.”

“He makes the necessary corrections.”

“It is all too correct.”

“I am giving away tickets for the cruise.”

“Maybe.”

“Why would I want to share.”

“The hopefulness industry.”

“And he sees this.”

“I show this.”

“I wanted to talk about art.”

“What is there to talk about?”

“What design do you start with?”

“How did I lose my place?”

“This is all connected.”

“This is not connected at all.”

“The world is waiting for me.”

“I did this before.”

“Follow me.”

“Where are you taking me?”

“Take me somewhere that I do not want to go.”

“Is this fulfilling?”

“That is more than wonderful.”

“Can we leave now?”

“Please leave!”

“I was involved.”

“Who is your banker?”

“Do you think that you are going to get a loan.”

“You do not understand that process at all.”

“This is where it gets really good.”

“Imagine that I go home and sulk.”

“This could be so much more.”

What was the connection between the plan, that I devised for myself when I was at home and the mess that I got into tonight?

“Then nothing happens.”

These were a series of discontinuous experiences. What happened at one point in the night had no connection to anything else that happened in my life.

“The body is the connection. There is a hope to get turned on. Then there are the stimuli that send me to the stratosphere.”

“Should I stare into space?”

“Do what you will.”

“We have our own agendas until we don’t have our own agendas anymore.”

“And shows up like in some kind of mystery movie.”

“Where did this start?”

“It all lingers on.”
“And we linger on.”
“This is a genius moment.”
“And sometimes, it is just a matter of showing up.”
“There are two more stages of revelation.”
“We are moving toward final fantasy.”
“There was a brilliant moment.”
“And it faded.”
“How could we do this?”
“We are proficient.”
“We are oing to need new costumes.”
“This is not a period piece.”
“There are people who are going to melt.”
“And people who bruise easily.”
“I know what this is.”
“The world loves me.”
“Those who want me to look, but who will not tell me what I am looking at.”
“Get this on the map.”
“What goes on in final fantasy?”
“More pain.”
“More personal revelation.”
“Personality exchange.”
“Who do you want to be?”
“This is where we start.”
“We could complete it in a different way.”
“We got a place together.”
“I need to go back to work.”
“When did this happen?”
“Not last week?”
“I want to understand.”
“Do not wish for more.”
“I emerge.”
“I only have so much time.”
“That is tragic.”
“More trash.”
“What would mother say?”
“She is supportive.”
“She could be here.”
“This will not work well for me.”
“I need to be in school.”
“Why are you doing this?”
“This is life changing.”

“This is not good for my life.”
 “Your name please.”
 “You are so deep in things that you cannot change.”
 “You know the artist.”
 “I am the artist.”
 “What does that have to do with how we are now?”
 “Hyde?”
 “The name.”
 “I am good with my surroundings.”
 “I am sorting through people.”
 “And this is all that I am left with.”
 “I will explain if if you would like.”
 “There are so many layers of sharing.”
 “Fruit filling.”
 “That is not good for you.”
 “Take a stand.”
 “It is going to take volumes to explain what is happenintg here.:”
 “These are things that I accept.”
 “I am not going cold turkey.”
 “A brutal night.”
 “Whatever you call fun.”
 “I distill my life into these experiences.”
 “That is never enough.”
 “I cannot complete myself.”
 “It will only take a few days.”
 “Slow down.”
 “It will only take a few hours.”
 “You are a very expressive person.”
 “It will happen.”
 “There are so many layers of defensiveness. I am reliving all the shit over and over again.”
 “I can only shine for so long.”
 “You need to show a little more brilliance.”
 “I am not here to be a savior.”
 “I AM NOT HERE TO BE A SAVIOR.”
 “You got pissed and went home.”
 “The witness.”
 “This is an even more brilliant fire.”
 “How do you do that?”
 “Chemistry.”
 “What are you burning?”
 “At what temperature does the truth burn?”
 “They did this before.”

“You create a more complex theory to justify your innocence.”
“Is this a book of prophecy?”
This was supposed to be a book of prophecy. We were predicting her time of arrival.”
“You do not realize who good he is.”
“What does she have to say about that?”
“Everything is tight.”
“With time.”
“I see things that you do not notice.”
“So many levels of preparation.”
“Layers of prophecy.”
“Who is the writer?”
“That is some complex anthropological shit.”
“I have collaborators.”
“You will never know.”
“Who can know?”
“There is a place that this all comes together.”
“The temple.”
“What is that about?”
“More ritual than you can ever know.”
“I need something to wake up.”
“These are big plans.”
“Do not interfere.”
“Did you listen.”
“I felt obligated.”
“The prayer is inside.”
“I do not want to join the pumpkins.”
“We are going to have nothing there.”
“When was your last confession.”
“Did you pay.”
“Are you close?”
“You are blocking my access to heaven.”
“That is going to be a question.”
“And I have so much time to get shit done.”
“Make the right choice.”
“I think that I did.”
“Who is watching?”
“The witness and the savior.”
“The prophet and the preacher.”
“We are all one. “
”This is only rhetorical.”
“It is liturgical.”
“That is so confusing.”
“I feel cheated.”

“Is this something that you do?”
“I want to know what I am dealing with.”
“Did you make contact?”
“With the entity?”
“Is the entity coming?”
“We do no witnesses.”
“You really do not have skills.”
“What are you saying about us?”
“Eat the snack.”
“We live the snack.”
“This is so fantastic.”
“There is a lot of work to get done.”
“I can do it by machine.”
“I forgot.”
“They see it a completely different way.”
“The skeletons? They only want redemption.”
“What else is there?”
“A good time.”
“And we contradict the only good thing that we ever had.”
“And he is going to bring you everything that you ever needed.”
“The bottom fell out.”
“What about the other days?”
“I could quit this.”
“There is only one.”
“That is what I hate.”
“It is a sport.”
“Who is going to emerge.”
“The skeletons want one thing.”
“Recognition.”
“A half-life.”
“Then it is all over.”
“She could aks.”
“What are you holding back?”
“More body parts.”
“Construction.”
“Great days for all of us.”
“And bad days.”
“This is all a little late.”
“We could work on costumes.”
“You never have to stop.”
“You have been here too long.”
“That would never do for me.”
“Does this make people happy?”

“You have helped me to deal with my unhappiness.”
“This guy is hopeless.”
“He is part of the prophecy.”
“Shit.”
“I was hoping for something more.”
“I need to pass through a wall.”
“Then we get to a better mousetrap.”
“Let the mouse go.”
“What do you want to reveal?”
“It is all damaged.”
“Different roles.”
“Who is your friend here?”
“Love me forever.”
“Ouch!”
“Tell me more.”
“We do not need someone sorting this out. This is our shit.”
“I don’t know where to start.”
“That is so cute.”
“Everyone loves something terrible.”
“They give me the messages, and I wear them.”
