

JACOB

“Are you willing to do the deed? Are you willing to do when needs to get done to influence others? Are you willing to do we need to get done influence yourself? Where is any of this headed? What is your hope? What is your liberation? How do you clean up? Who are you working with? Who are you working for? You know that money is easy. That’s how it works. Money is easy, but labor is difficult. Labor can transform the social and the material aspects of our world. Money can run roughshod over that creation. You can destroy the fabric of community. It shouldn’t be like that. Like that? Where are you like that? Why have you made things this way? Where do you want to start? Should we start with a meal? We start with a lesson? This is all too much for me. It’s way too much for me. I have no idea what this is about. I cannot affect me. I can’t think about this.”

“I need to take a chance. I need to move ahead. Tell me about your fun. You look like a fun guy. How much are you willing to spend? Can you find someone who wants you to spend money on her? What’s the offer? What are you sharing? You look like a generous person. What are you expect? Sometimes that’s the best thing. Sometimes, that’s the beginning of excitement. That’s the beginning of growth. That’s the beginning of understanding. Do you want to take on challenging problems? What about the effects of progress? What about the indigestion of civilization? Where do you join? You got there? Are you in a sharing mood? Who are you willing to share with? What about monopolies? What about the real side of competition? Where is any of this headed? Where are you headed? What is your interest? What is our interest? How am I involved? How are we involved together? What do you want to know? What is her knowledge begin?”

“You’re a caring person. You are a knowledgeable person. You are searching for answers. You were getting lost in the questions. Where do you want to start? What do you want to talk about? You seem like an eager person. You’re eager for success. Got your nose to the grindstone. It’s not privilege. You’ve worked for your success. I’m sure you have. I want her to be part of it. Do you want her to join in? Do you want her to play along. Do you wanna play along. Where does it begin? Where does it end? Who’s helping you? I want to learn things. Are some important things that you could teach me. I am eager. We are both eager. I have principles. There’s a starting point. There’s an endpoint. There’s a point to this. Don’t disappoint me. Love her. Love should never be disappointing. Do you understand what that means? Do you really understand? You came here for some fun. You came here to forget. But you don't want to forget too much. You don't want anyone to forget that you're the boss."

"You came to tell people that you're the boss. You're number one. You're a boss. You can boss around yourself. You can make a plan. You can plan your life. You can give your life meaning. You can include others. You can be appealing. She looked at me. All the shears looked at me. What did they say? They saw that you had a method. They saw that you had a reality. They saw that you were a lover. Love you. You all work together. He worked well together. He worked harder. You were good at what you did. You turn the machine on."

"You learn how to tell the machine what to do. You learn how to tell yourself what to do. You only knew what was needed. You found it was needed. And you did it for yourself. How long can you hold this together. It's not going to be difficult for you. Do you know how to have fun? You know how to forget. You know how to forget yourself. And just as you're forgetting, you need to let people know who you are. You're running things. You're running the social thing. And everything. You're the boss. You need to let people know that you're the boss. You're the Director. You're very direct. You can guide others. You can leave them to goals. You have goals of your own. You have clear goals of your own. Who are you afraid of? What are you afraid of? What is the source of your fear. How can you communicate that to others. Going to take less time than you think. This is going to take no time at all."

"This did not even happen in time. This is instantaneous. This happens before you even think about it. It is retroactive. That's why everyone loves you. This is all because of your sweat. This is all because of your tears. This is all because of your equity. It's all because of some thing you did. What did you do? You came here to have fun. The more fun you have, the more you hurtle towards your distraction. That is a part of your fun. That is all part of the explanation. You need this explanation. You need this awareness. When does it start? What do you start with? What are you bringing to the shower? Who do you bring to the show? Who's your guest? What is your guest wants? What is your guest need? Truly, what is your guest need.? This should be easier than you know. If this works out, it should be easier than you know. You need to open another door. You need to open another window. Don't move. We're following you. Order another drink. Tell me what you do at work. You have accounts."

"And you have money in the bank. And you're saving for a house. And you have a house. You don't want to hear anyone complain. They complain because they don't have what you have. Do you have the knowledge? No, you don't. Or you don't complain. Your lack of complaint is your bliss. You lord over the world with your bliss. Thank you!"

"You have everything we want. I love her, I want to rub my body against you. You're so funny! You're so cute! I wish I could be a shithead like you. I am a shitheads like you. I want to love. I want to cherish. I want the world to love me too. He's part of the mainstream part. That simply means that he's short on innovation and long on ideas. Don't short change us. Don't make us feel worse! We've got this down. We've got this down to a science. This is the beginning of scientific method. Our knowledge is the beginning of scientific method. Remind me! Remind me that we're gonna be okay! Don't disturb my sleep! Don't disturb my slumber! Don't disturb my rest. This is all that I need. This is all that I want. I asked someone who is the fun guy. And they told me that it was you. I'm so excited. I'm so excited to have the opportunity to talk to you. I'm so excited that you're going to make my night fun."

"What can you do after that happens? Are you going to call this love? Will you call this a relationship? Can you call this a partnership? Are we going to buy a house? Is this for life? When does anyone wake up? We're having a rough patch. I'm glad that things can be so simple in your world. To be so simple. If they're difficult, if there's some difficulty here, how do we account for that complexity I need to get out of here. I need to escape. I need to escape myself. I'm gonna do what I do. If you kick me out, Sophia if you lose control, so be it I want to add a little more time, I want to add a little more understanding. I want to be in the middle of things. I want them to turn me on. I want them to make me mean something. I wanna cry in your presence. I want to love you. Who's handing out the money. Hey Mr. funny guy, who is handing out the money."

"Should we cooperate? What does it mean to go along? What does it mean to take her places? Are we among the lucky ones? How does that work? They should've been easier I should've dodged the bullet it wasn't supposed to hurt me. None of this was supposed to affect me. You told me some thing. You made me afraid. But it wasn't supposed to affect me. None of this was supposed to affect me. But my fear became greater. Hold me! Love me. What can he give you that you can give yourself? He has momentum. You have slowed down. Everything is so slow here. But you're moving quickly."

"Look at her. She is moving so quickly. You make me want to love you. You make me want to touch you. You make me want to know you. You are everything. Your knowledge and forgetting. Who is supposed to listen to this? Who is supposed to know this? Who is supposed to understand this? There has to be someone out there someone is searching. What are you looking for, honey? Do you think that I've got it for you? Why do you think that I've got it in for you? Maybe I should quit now. I'm not going to learn anatomy. It's impossible that I will understand anything. This is a simple life. Bath, explain it for them. You just got off work. And you got to go to work tomorrow. Can create that design. You can try to make it last. What is it good for?"

"How does it work? Why does it work for you? How have you been rewarded? I need to figure this out. I am the only one who really can figure it out I've got this down. I've got this down to a science. How does that work? How does that work out? I'll explain it to you a little later. I'll explain it to you once I figure it out the method. None of this matters."

They had their plans, and they had their targets. Everything was totally coordinated. Everything was linked together. With such a perspective, they were able to get what they were after. They were able to find their phone. It was all about constructing the world their view. Honestly, they were always surprised. Alas, they told everyone that they were never surprised. This gave them credibility. This provided them with power. They need to lock down this world. They need to walk down everyone else. Such a perspective, they could get whatever they wanted. It all made sense. Everything was in place. It was simple. It was available to all. I was how it worked. You didn't have to go that deep. You didn't have to dig. Everything was apparent to you. That evidence counted for everything."

"And this helped make sense of the world. And help give a pattern to it all. I'm not basis, human understanding discover it's solution. It was the fun solution. Why did anyone believe the sky? You wouldn't believe anyone? There were things to come. There are explanations to come. None of it mattered. It all mattered."

"There was a rhythm to this confusion. She had to learn the rhythm to this confusion.

That was how the body was altogether. That's how the body came apart. I was the only thing that mattered. It was all about human effort. Everything out there together. Clarity? How could you make sense at all? Afraid of? This is not going to affect anyone.. This was the only thing that meant anything anyone. Give each one of the guys to drink. I give him another drink. Thanks. Is that all that you want? Honestly, is that all that you expect? Or your other ideas or just frosting. Forever. Everything supposed to. Understand? Do you grasp it? Where is the scoring? This is not someone who has it together? Confused. Work? What's the source of your confusion?"

"I can't do this anymore. I need to start. This was so perfect. There's nothing controversial here. You can get whatever you want. Nothing. Nothing. You're yapping on. Attending to your personal understanding gives some awareness about historical development. Things become tricky. This is where things become tricky. You start tricking yourself. I know what would work. Let's both hang on, and we can make this one thing work. After I get what I want, I'm not gonna come back. Why should I? It's a scandal for my existence. Hold on. Let go. Hold on. Let go. Hold on. My car. I'm going to take the risk in the house. I'm going to enter the house. This is my house. I paid for it. I worked for it. I worked for this life. I paid for this life. Look at me. That's all it takes. It's so sad. That's all it takes came to explain any of this.

"You go back in history, and you try to provide some explanation for what's been happening. I tried to rescue you. Take these things, and make some thing of them. Take this one thing, and make some thing out of it. What are you going to do tomorrow? Is tomorrow better than today? I'm going to hold my breath. I'm not going with that guy. I'm going to save some money. I'm gonna stay home. Been doing at home? I've been binge watching television how does that work? How do you work? How does any of this function? Where are the missing elements? I can get a lot done, and I can keep it all going. I can get a lot done, and keep it all going. I have a little extra. I have something to work with. I have some extra to work with. I'm good at this. I'm strong at this. I know how to make this work. Maybe, I'm a little late. Maybe I'm on time. It's got to be a way out of this. Where does it end?

One line that I cannot cross. You need to be a little faster. You need to fill in all the blanks. It's in there? You've got what it takes. You've got what I need. I'm coming to that point. I'll be there in a few minutes. It starts with a clicking noise. Do you know what that's about? We have these associations, and they are organized here in fashion. Once this coherence is interrupted, it's difficult to understand how these things are put together. Do you understand how these things are put together? Do you understand how you were put together? Where is this going? I'm not your babysitter? You're not my babysitter. Where is any of the score? I need to be careful. I need to wait for the right moment. One part of me is strong, the other part is weak."

"I said what the fuck. Why would that be better for me. How are you different from the last alpha dog? This song made me confused. I'm so confused. I have all this time. But I cannot put it together. What do I see in the shadows? A monster is going to come out from the shadows? I hear the barking. There's this guy at the bar, he's looking at you. When you say he's cute, what are you really saying? Are you absolving yourself of any responsibility from this point forward? What kind of job are you doing? Who are you working for? You told me that you were the boss. So I want to go over the books."

This is how the story works. You're the boss, we go over the books. I see what's wrong with the operation. I make some suggestions. This is how it starts. You're the boss. You explain things to me. I've been here before. This is a very bad virus. I don't want to think about this. I'm not going to let this affect me at all. I need to move slowly. I need to show my desire. I'm heading into the fire. Why am I doing this? Someone's going to help me. We're gonna help each other. I love you more than you know. You're going to help me more than you know. I'm saving more than you know. How will I be safe? How are you be safe? I keeps thinking that my savior is coming. He's looking at you right now."

"Let's just pretend. Let's pretend for the moment. You have everything that I need. You have everything that human beings need. That's how things twist and turn around here. But nothing moves forward. It's only a slight deviation from the center. Then the noises start. The craziness starts. Are you protecting me? Are we protecting each other? How is that supposed to work. I can get out of myself. I can take a breath. I can work hard at this. But it's not hard enough. No one will truly understand. I'll look at the sky. Touched my hand. I touched your hand. I touched one million hands. Are you taking me? Where are we going? Where are we going? I'm making the biggest mistake in our lives. We're doing some thing we shouldn't do. We're acting in a way that we shouldn't act. We are doing things that we shouldn't even think about it."

"Let's do more of that. I need to make my way. This is the house. This is the entryway. Am I too far ahead of myself a difference. None of this makes any difference. We're all too good at this. I feel useless. How did I get here? I can make you feel good. I can create a fantasy.. Is that going to do it for you? You can get me off, and I return to the shit. And you never really understood any of it. The stimulation becomes an obstacle to the understanding. Everything is under scrutiny now. Everything that we worked on is under total scrutiny."

"What are we looking at? What are we hoping for? What are we doing? Who is helping us in these endeavors? There's a genius year. How do we make it work? How do we do it all together? What's the science? How do we pull it all together? You're making me afraid. You're making all of us afraid. I'm good at this. I've done this before. I can get others to work with me. I can teach others how to do this. I'll be good at it. I'll be experts. Don't get close to me. Get close to me."

"For that one brief moment, that touch was everything. And we return to our lives, and nothing has changed. You trusted this guy. He was going to take you to his place. Instead he ended up at your place. And he was an embarrassment. And you were glad when he left. And you wanted nothing to do with him. He wanted everything to do with him. He could give you everything that you ask for. He can make sense of your world. You've heard of scratching on the walls. You had reminders of these things. If I'm going to come with you, this shit better be pretty good. Then you're living your life at the edge. Someone's insulting you. You're supposed to accept this humiliation. Where does this come from? What is the send up going? Who else is along with you. Where is any of the scoring? You need to take a breath. You need to figure out what this all means."

"Have you reached your destination yet. Have you come out of the shadows. You can still smell his presence. It's freaking you out. All of this is freaking you out. You're only afraid of one thing. You need to be prepared for that. You need to be prepared for this. You need to be prepared for all of this. The night has its fear. Yes, you accept that. You need to except that closeness. It's not gonna give anything to you. This is more than a thing. This is a glance. This isn't even a touch. This is a smile. This is a wind. As is and certainty. You are my uncertainty. I saw this guy wandering around the place."

"I guess he brought him home with you last night. It was pretty stupid. I could've taken her thinga. I wish that I could trust you. I wish that you could trust me. I don't even know how this happened. I'm not getting close. I'm staying away. I'm hiding in my place. If I see movement I'm going in the opposite direction. He has a job. He has a serious job. Why he doesn't need a story. He gives too much himself to the seriousness. And there's nothing else. I thought I heard him ordering are you around. Did you do what he told you to? Did he convince you? Did he influence your actions? How does that work? Or did you find him? Can you send him back? Can you send all of him back? Maybe, I made a mistake. I made a serious mistake can I deal with a blender. I'm going to take the risk. This time, I say no. I do nothing. I bring an organization to things that are haphazard. How did you get lost? Who loves you? Already dealt with enough shit."

"Only deal with enough life. You're going to protect me. I want you to protect me. Don't bite the hand that feeds you. It is that simple. I can't make it any simpler. There is a hand. And there was teeth. Where did you get the sky. He works. And you work. Then you have fun. You have fun together. He works, and you have fun together. Is there any other way to describe this he works a great deal. He makes a lot of money. He has the smirk. He has a knowing smirk as if he's figured it out what you're all about. And you're sick you say that you're using each other. You're using nothing. Here tomorrow, nothing will change. Look at that smirk! Look at that smile! This is free for you."

"This is worth your while. This is going to help you out. This is tasty. That is all that matters. Is all that ever matters. This is the thing that will destroy you. Why? Where is the only thing that matters. You have lovely skin. You have a lovely demeanor. You have a lovely body. What are we doing together? What are we even doing? What is there to our lives? Get that in your head what is there to our lives? Head! There's the practice, and there is the explanation. The practice is not memorable enough. And the explanation is not meant to last. I'm almost there. I almost have a solution. Do you think that this is tricky. Can you manage this? Cheated me again. You made promises. You were sneaky. Understand? Or did you get this guy? God. I gave you so much of what I have, but I mean none of it. How could I?"

How did the universe make things the way that they they are.? Lancer, how do you mess up? Lancer, you messed up badly. I can't be part of this I can't be part of this so we nostalgia. This is all pathetic. It's also a game plan. I don't even understand what's happening. We keep repeating the same sentences. This is worse for me. Just send me the money. Just send it over. Just turned me on. Just make this happen. Use credit! Send me a money order! Sending love! Send me love! Better! You are going to get better, and this is messing with my mind. Lancer, why are you messing with my mind? I'm not. I'm not here. I have nothing to do with this."

"It's all Jacob. Jacob, how is your job? Did you do what you needed to do.? I see what I want. This is all that matters. They are all moving at once. They are moving on them. They are in my life. They're in my space. They are interfering. It's the wrong time. A question. I'm looking for the center. I am the center. Jacob you know nothing. Go back to your job. Go back to your people. Go back to your meager explanation. As the stocks the questions? This is all over? Where are you bothering me? I'm not feeling well? I need to stop this. You need to stop this.

This is ridiculous. This is silly. How did you get to this point?? Who drove universe? Why are you like this? You're nothing to me. Everything for me. Don't leave. My roommates don't want you here. Jacob don't leave. Don't leave."

"I wanted to make this work for me. I recognized who was there to help me succeed. I was sure that I could achieve my goals. I checked myself in the mirror. I felt that I had with it took. I wouldn't be the only one to recognize it. The scale was exactly what I did at work. I arranged the numbers in my favor. This kind of understanding easily worked in this situation. I almost felt less. It was more than skill. It was a gift. I did I feel so fortunate? I looked around. Women with. I would scare them back. We were lost sheep. Everyone here was lost. And I had some thing that they didn't have. I felt fortunate. I had achieved my own version of success."

"Most people here would be envious what I had. That gave me an advantage. I could win this card game time and time again. I knew the odds. I could keep raising until everybody else had to leave the table. This was my work. Everything played in my favor.

This couldn't be any different. I had the knack. Others might've been envious. They felt that they had some kind of magic touch. It really didn't work here. I knew it. I wasn't afraid. There was no way that anyone else was going to be able to play. When I cried it was all part of the dream. That was all part of the expectations. I knew how to implement my plan. In a sense, I was ruthless. Deep down, that was the basis of my achievements. This is all a result of my will. I could impress my will. I could get what I wanted. This was the child's play. I called it fun. How fun was it? I had created my self. I thought that I was invincible. But I was never able to escape. It was no art.

There was no greater purpose. I lived in immediacy of the now. I wasn't all that sympathetic towards others. I was there to be a winner. Everyone could win. That was how everything was built. I knew what I had to do. There was no remorse. I didn't pretend to be something that I was not. That was how it all worked out. On the other side of my blessings was a kind of damnation. I had a devilish smirk. I knew where it could get me."

It just gave me a sense of confidence. It was no regret. But I wondered what was really happening I couldn't believe that there was anything else. The lost sheep might pretend. They might feel they were they were on the road to liberation. No one was saved here. That was it that was why I could make bank. I didn't see myself as cheating. I simply recognized necessity.

Where was I supposed to go from here. Someday, in someone who truly love me. Someday, I might find a road to loving myself. I accepted things for what they were. I gave as much as I could. Nothing else was appropriate. This was all part of the balance. This is where I found myself. I created my own justification. I developed my own morality. No one could take that from me. No one can shower shot. There was a sense of immortality in the moment. I couldn't bother if my pride is getting a better of me I could buy a new car. I could save my money. I could put money down on a house. I was the life of the party."

"Jacob, you're a wonder. Jacob, everyone loves you. Jacob, you're unstoppable. Don't ask me silly questions. Don't get in the way of my dream. I have some thing that nobody else has. Her. I have a grace period exercise. There's nothing else. I don't have to worry about anything else it is always. Let's make this wonderful forever."

I had my own vision which provided me with the necessary understanding. I knew what I wanted. And I understood how to get it. It was almost as if I was a celebrity. I made my own brakes. People cleared the lane for me. I went after what I needed. I had clarity. I had understanding aware of us.

No one was going to get in my way. I could focus with total concentration. He misses all this was all that mattered. people knew it. They knew what I had. That was my fun. I saw the world as it was. Made its way known to me. It had an immediacy. No one could take that from me. It was a competition. There was no doubt about it. I was there to achieve victory. Everyone around me was an amateur. I had my friends. They were supporting me. They were aware of what it was okay. They were just as relentless. Everyone else was an amateur. That gave me certainty. They gave me awareness.

I did when was necessary. I showed everyone. Women loved me. They all loved me. That was why it was so fun. No one could get in my way. No one can stop me. No one could tell me that I was wrong. Made my own rules. I told everyone else to screw off. It was nothing that they could do to contradict my perspective. Missing. I was eminent. I couldn't see it any other way. This was how the world works that was how it all that made sense. I pushed ahead."

"I called people out. I let people know that I was a heavy weight. I had goals. I was going to realize them. Everything which makes sense."

"Everything would fall into place. This was all part of my development. It was my road. I thought it said some thing was attacking me. It was trying to take me down. It would never happen. I was invincible. I was totally irresistible. That made my night scream. Everyone would be hanging on me."

"If I wanted to bring a new person into my group, I could I determine how things operated. I created the rules. I made sense of it all. I was the boss. It should've been evident to everyone I was in a playpen. I told everyone what to do. They went along. That's how things worked here. I was all powerful. I could expand. I could develop."

"My social life foreshadowed my future successes. I would monopolize hour. I would expand. I would get crucified. I would be the definition of awareness. I would create a new philosophy for the world. It was all part of my greatness. It's just part of my development my growing. No one could ever stand in my way. Nothing will ever stand in my way. This was everything. It was all that matter. I was supreme. I was a visionary. I was an innovator. I could tear into the future. I was creating a new morality. Nothing else matter. I was the measure of all existence. I was the definition of all things. No one to get in my way. No one to tell me what to do. I was in the forever. I was time. I was a god. This was the essence of fun. I could take it all. I can take all of it anymore. I had investments. I had the world on my side. Nothing else mattered. I had total knowledge. I was defining the universe. I was owning it. I was blessed. I didn't need permission. I was the one calling all the shots. It was my vision. It was my creation. It was all me. It was all me."

"I didn't want to do an interview."

"This is an interview. I wanted to talk to you."

"I am not sure that I want to talk. I like my life as it is."

"I have all this time, and I want to fill it with important things."

"Fill it up."

"You could turn this into a career chice."

"I have a career. I am good at what I do. People could learn from I do.":

“I’m sure that works for you.”

“This is wear it gets dirty.”

“What is that about?”

“You are not really part of this.”

“I want to be. I come here enough.”

“You represent what is happening to this city. You are expensive real estate. You are real contribution to the betterment of our lives. We work harder for people like you.”

“I work all the time.”

“You are out here drinking.”

“This is the weekend.”

“You people try to do the weekend all the time.”

“If it wasn’t for shitheads like us, there would be nothing going on at all.”

“This is a happiness night.”

“How does that work?”

“This is an encyclopedia in action.”

“You do not want to know.”

“You take it for what it is?”

“And you all run out on me.”

“I could include this.”

“I am trying to follow you, Matt. You are fucking with me. You pretend that you care. But you are mocking me.”

“Really, Jacob. I am glad that you are so perceptive.”:

“I don’t think that it is happening like you think.”

“You know a few things.”

“I would have gone all the way with this.”

“This is the only thing that matters to me at all.”

“I have been there.”

“I am there.”

“I am there.”

“That is hilarious.”

“Confession time.”

“This is all that matters.”

“I am holding on.”

“What is in there?”

“Blood and sweat.”

“That will not be enough for either of us.”

“The world loves what you have to contribute.”

“After today, I will hate everything”

“I am getting there.”

“You have enough money saved up.”

“That is not going anywhere.”

“Turn on the lights.”

“That looks so bad.”
“That is so bad.”
“Jacob, you are excellent at this.”
“I am interested in saying other things.”
“Who is this guy?”
“I have no idea.”
“Jacob, are you running this?”
“We are all contributing.”
“You know what you want, and you go out to get it.”
“That is some crazy shit.”
“Now, everything fits in place.”
“I would rather do nothing.”
“I would choose nothing.”
“Take it.”
“You are not that deep.”
“And you are not.”
“This is where you really scare me.”
“He is getting what he wants.”
“It is all basic. We eat, and we have fun.”
“We have fun.”
“Fun, fun, fun.”
“Slam the door shut.”
“We can make it seem better than it is.”
“How is that even possible?”
“That is next to impossible.”
“You are mean to everyone.”
“That is how the job works.”
“Who are you working with Jacob?”
“People who are qualified to get things done.”
“That is nothing to me.”
“You are an insidious type.”
“People like me here.”
“In truth, people despise you.”
“You cannot try to do your business here.”
“I am having fun.”
“You are recruiting people for your way of life.”
“Where have you been hiding?”
“Pop guns.”
“What the fuck?”
“You are not a nice person.”
“I am not looking for a fight.”
“I want to do something.”
“Are you interfering.”

“Give more of yourself.”
 “You are going to have to leave.”
 “This is way me.”
 “I assumed something,”
 “I have to turn in a report.”
 “What are you doing at work?”
 “I am doing all the worst kinds of things.”
 “You cut without drawing blood.”
 “Sell high.”
 “I know how it goes. You are this scumbag who knows how to use people.”
 “I did not come here for politics.”
 “Of course, you did. You want to world loving you.”
 “They do naturally.”
 “They are buying my time.”
 “That is the next level of revelation.”
 “I can get it all to go my way.”
 “We could look at the books.”
 “You are the books.”
 “It comes back to the same thing. There is nothing glamorous about this. There is someone who is doing this kind of thing all the time.”
 “These are things that I have never heard before.”
 “Part the Red Sea.”
 “What is this really about.”
 “She has it down.”
 “Jacob, you saw it all.”
 “There is nothing else to see.”
 “I am in the middle of a drama.”
 “There is no drama. Give me what I want.”
 “You need to add things.”
 “You have a real knack.”
 “Lower your standards.”
 “Fuck yourself.”
 “Where to you want to go?”
 “Do not insult me.”
 “Stare at the planets.”
 “Is this supposed to explain thing?”
 “I need an explanation for things that cannot be explained.”
 “Like what?”
 “Faith.”
 “Hypocrisy.”
 “That is not funny.”
 “Are you going to pay?”
 “Drive quickly.”

“That is next to impossible.”
“Out of sight.
“How do we pay for this?”
“Out pocket.”
“Out of sight, out of mind.”
“You are driving me crazy.”
“Are we going go make this work?”
“Drag the river.”
“What do I do with the bodies?”
“You tell me Jacob.”
“I am over exaggeration.”
“I am over getting over.”
“Get it real.”
“Jacob, you are not as tough as you think that you are.”
“I could work on this.”
“What did you take from me?”
“My immortal soul.”
“Jacob, you do not have anything immortal.”
“This is where it gets nasty.”
“I will finish the drill.”
“You are an expert.”
“I am not going to give you what you are asking for.”
“Frustration!”
